Among them are three Marble Busts, executed by the greatest living Sculptor—Hiram Powers: GEORGE WASHINGTON, the Father of his Country; BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, the Philosopher; DANIEL WEBSTER, the Statesman. A special agent has visited Europe and made careful and judicious selections of foreign works of Art, both in Bronze and Marble; Statuary and Choice Paintings.

JOHN J. LUTHER.

Nov. 9, 1855.

THE New York Tribune, 1856-6.

THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its fifteenth year: Vol. XV. of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy or popularity, it has aimed to stand for Righteousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave-trader on this Continent, though he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes-payable, who does not know and hate THE TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous Liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, and wonder why its publication is tolerated in a commercial, cotton-buying City like New-York. The Newark Mercury once forcibly remarked that it had never known a hard, griping, screwing, avaricious employer who was not hostile to THE TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kind-ly who did not like it. Prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, while claiming no exception from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories contemplating the melioration of human woes, especially those of the voiceless and downtrodden, have ever found audience and hospitality; while it has ardently resisted, and will persistently combat every attempt to proscribe and degrade any class because of diversities of Nativity, Creed or Color.

In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of hostilities the most deadly and untiring, THE TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers, each fitted by special accomplishment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples that of its earliest issues; a staff of salaried correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention; while Politics, Legislation, Literature, Art, History—in short whatever affects the social well-being of mankind, Polemic Theology alone excepted—finds here the freest and most searching discussion.

Attached by profound conviction to the beneficent policy of Industrial development and Internal Intercommunication, whose most conspicuous champion through the last Half Century was HENRY CLAY—imbued, moreover, with that spirit of forbearance toward our weaker neighbors, and toward the much wronged Aborigines of this Continent, and of Peace with All which will hallow the name of Whig, THE TRIBUNE, while surrendering no jot of its independence, cooperated earnestly and ardently with the Whig party so long as its vitality was preserved. When, in 1850–2, an attempt was made to interpolate slave-hunting into its creed, we sternly resisted that imposition; when, at the close of the last Presidential canvass, it was seen that a large portion of the Whigs preferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery wing to share its triumph, even under a conservative Chief on a Pro Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, including the rise and culmination of the Know-Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-Slavery Whigism, only confirmed our undoubting anticipations. With no sickly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitably bygone, but with hope, and joy, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUBLICAN movement which, impelled by the perfidious violation of the Missouri Compact, and stimulated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by the repeated and utter vitiation of their elections by an armed mob collected by conspiracy and hurled suddedly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave State, is destined to sweep away the landmarks of old party feuds, and unite the true hearts and strong arms of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confine the scourge and scandal of our country within the limits of the States which unwisely uphold it. To the success of this effort the energies of THE TRIBUNE will be sternly devoted; while the TEMPERANCE REFORM, including the entire suppression of the Traffic in Intoxicating Beverages, will find in it, as hitherto, an earnest and unflinching champion.

Commencing as a daily folio sheet of moderate size, and with scarcely a shadow of patronage, THE TRIBUNE is now issued in quarto form Daily (three distinct editions,) Semi-Weekly, and Weekly, on a sheet 44 by 34 inches, eight ample pages of six columns each.—Its circulation has steadily grown from nothing to the following aggregates:

Daily issues (evening and morning)	29,500 copies
Semi-Weekly,	14,175 "
Weekly,	137,750 "
California edition,	6,000 "
Total,	187,425

We believe no other newspaper in the world has a subscription list over half so large as this; and no periodical of any sort can rival it. And while its extreme cheapness, rendering an increase of paying readers only as indirect pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled its subscription list, it would be absurdity not to perceive in this unprecedented patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem.

TERMS.

THE TRIBUNE employs no traveling agents and sends out no papers on trust. If it is not stopped when the term paid for expires, and the subscriber does not choose further to pay for it, we resort to no legal force to compel him. On the Weekly, we mean to stop every paper on the expiration of the advance payment, awaiting a fresh remittance from the subscriber. If none comes the account is closed. We pay no local agents; wish no money paid to any when the payer cannot trust him to mail or otherwise send it to us; once mailed, its safety is at our risk, (and a serious risk it often proves,) but are grateful to every one who deems it a good work to obtain and forward the names and money of his friends and neighbors. Our terms invariably are—for the Daily Tribune, $6 per annum.

Semi-Weekly, $3; two copies for $5; five for $11 25.

Weekly, $2; three copies for $5; five copies for $8; ten copies for $12; twenty copies, or over, to one address, for $1 each; twenty copies, or over, to address of each subscriber, $1 20 each.

Additions may at all times be made to a club at the price paid by those already in it.

STRANGE, BUT TRUE

Warning to Every Unmarried Woman.

Why Females Suffer in Health.

No woman of delicacy is willing to divulge the peculiar ailments incident to her sex, even to a most intimate family physician.

This modesty and delicacy is implanted by nature, and neither should nor need be subjected to the rude shocks inevitable in making known to the other sex those ailments belonging exclusively to the female.

Except in extreme cases, her sensitiveness wills to suffer her health rather than her delicacy.

The consequences are serious, lamentable and undeniable.

Thus what at first could have been easily remedied, or perhaps not, still not thought, becomes a complication of diseases, both of mind and body, undermining the health of the mother, and embittering her days by sickness and suffering, and entailing broken constitutions upon her children, and embarrassing, if not destroying, the business and pecuniary prospects of the husband. Let every sensitive woman

TAKE WARNING IN TIME

(as thousands have done) by the bitter experience and sufferings of others, of the dreadful consequences she entails upon herself and those endeared to her, by her ignorance of the simplest and plainest rules of health as connected with the marriage state, the violation of which entails disease, suffering and misery.

How many are suffering from obstructions or irregularities peculiar to the female system, which undermine the health, the effects of which have first manifested and for which their delicacy forbids seeking medical advice! How many suffer from prolapsus uteri (falling of the womb), or from fluor albus (weakness, debility, &c.)! How many are in constant agony for many months preceding confinement! How many have difficult, if not dangerous deliveries, and slow and uncertain recoveries!

To the question, how are these to be prevented? what shall be done? the answer is simple. Let every woman ascertain for herself, without violence to her delicacy, the nature and character of the ailment (to which she as a female is subject) the cause from which it may arise, and the proper remedies for its cure and future prevention.

This she can do by possessing a little volume already possessed by thousands, which tells her what is the matter, and tells her what to do for it, in simple but chaste words, and such as she can understand.

This Book is entitled

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S

PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION,

BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU,

PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN.

One Hundredth Edition (500,000) 18mo., pp. 250

[ON FINE PAPER, EXTRA BINDING, $1.]

A standard work of established reputation found classed in the Catalogues of the great Trade Sales in New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and sold by the principal booksellers in the United States. It was first published 1847, since which time

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES

have been sold, of which there were upwards of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND SENT BY MAIL, attesting the high estimation in which it is held as a reliable popular medical

BOOK FOR EVERY FEMALE

the author having devoted his exclusive attention to the treatment of complaints peculiar to females, in respect to which he is yearly consulted by thousands, both in person and by letter.

Here every woman can discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described, the nature, character, cause of, and the proper remedies for, her complaints.

The advice of becoming a mother, the proper mode of instruction and advice of the utmost importance to her future health, will find such instruction and advice, and also explain many symptoms which otherwise would occasion anxiety or alarm, as all the peculiarities incident to her situation are described.

It is of course impracticable to convey fully the various subjects treated of in this, a work strictly intended for the married or those contemplating marriage. The revelations contained in its pages have proved a blessing to thousands, as the innumerable letters received by the author (which he is permitted by the writers to publish) will attest.

Extract of a Letter from a gentleman in Luton, Ohio.

DAYTON, May 3, 1847.

Dr. A. M. Mauriceau:

"My wife has been regularly taking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering in the previous and during confinement; every successive one more and more debilitated and prostrated her, putting her life in imminent danger, and which was on the last occasion despaired of. I supposed that this state of things was inevitable, and assigned myself to meet the worst. At this time (now about two months) I heard you highly spoken of, as combining some skill in reaching my case. On its receipt I perused I cannot express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind, and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning the great discovery. M. M. Desom-aux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. No pecuniary consideration can ever pay the obligations I am under to you, for having been the means of imparting to us the matters contained in "The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion." But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave and my children left motherless."

In consequence of the universal popularity of the work, as evidenced by its extraordinary sale, various impositions have been attempted as well on booksellers as on the public by infractions of title page, spurious editions, and superfluous infringements of copy right, and other devices and deceptions, it has been found necessary therefore
