STRATLING, BUT TRUE

Warning to Every Sensible Weman. Why Females Suffer in Mealth.

No woman of delicacy is willing to disclose he peculiar ailments incident to her sex, even to a most intimate family physician.

This mo torry and delicacy is implanted by nature, and neither should nor need be subjected to the rude shocks inevitable in making known to the other sex those ailments belonging exclusively to the temale.

Except in extreme cases, her sensitivenes

Except in extreme cases, her sensitivenes will sacrifice her health rather than herdelicacy

Thus what at first could have been easily rem edied, or perhaps better still, not incurred, becomes a complication of diseases, not only ruining the health of the mother, and embitterinher days by sickness and suffering, but entailing broken constitutions upon her children, and embarrassing, if not distressing, the business and pecuniary prospects of the husband. Let every sensible woman

How many suffer from prolapsus uteri (talling of the worne), or from fluor allus (weakness, debility, &c.)! How many are in constant gony for many months preceding confinement. How many have difficult, if not dangerous deliveries, and slow stid uncertain recoveries!

To the question, how are these to be prevented? what shall be done? the answer is simple. Let every woman ascertain for herself, without violence to her delicacy, the nature and character to be a fact that they or their children or friends, ever had fits, when the ferromstance is always regarded as one of the family secrets.
