A PERFECT CURE OF EPILEPSY.

Pittsburg, November 22, 1858. -It is now ten months since my wife had any of those nervous attacks. She thinks she is cured. She has not had any symptoms of the disease for the last nine months. She took the disease for the last nine months. She took your Vegetable Extract Pills for about four months, and discontinued them four months since. Mrs. S. was treated by the best old school physicians in the State for ten years, then by the best Homepathic for eighteen months, without a cure. It is to your Veretable Ex-tract Pills, and with strings and to diet, that we ascribe her cure of the most dreadful dis-case that even afflicted the humanfamily. I wish every person afflicten with Epilepsy had this medicine, and would give it a thorough trial.— It may not cure in all cases, but in this it has performed wonders. nerførmed wonders.

St. These pills possess a specific action on the nerveus system, and although they are prepa-red especially for the purpose of curing Fits they will be found of especial benefit to all per-son afflicted with weak nerves, or whose ner-vons system has been prostrated or shatterd, from any cause whatever; in fact it is almost i possible to convey an adequate idea of the speedy and almost miraculous results which these pills effect in the diseased, broken down tr anostrated nervous systems. Persons who were all lassitude, weaknesss and debility, be-fore their use, at once become robust and full of energy. No matter whether the constitution has been broken down by excess, weak by na-ture, or debilitated by sickness, their effection the unstrung and shattered nervous organiza-tion is equally certain and apparent. In cases tof neuralgia, headache, vertigo, pain in the nerves of the face, and the various train of ner-vous affections, palpitation of the heart, period-ical headaches, cold and shivered state of the frame, frequent fits of abstraction, total inabili-tiv display. Let no father be ashamed to present a copy of the ÆSCULAPIUS to his child. It may save him from an early grave.
