Downgiac, Mich, March 11, 185 J. A. RHODES, Esq : Dear Sir-As I took

J. A. RHODES, Esq: Dear Sir—As I took your medicine to sell on consignment, 'no cure no pay,'' I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

W. S. CONKIN told me—'I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually ran down while using it until my lungs and liver were Congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors too did all they could for me, but though I must die. Nothing did any good until I got lihodes' Fever and and Ague Cure, which at once relieved use of the distress and hause at any stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and proach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

H. M. Conklin says: "I had been taking me dicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of quinine and specifics without any good result, from 25 August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely, it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE,

S. M. CONKIN was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M's. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same with frespect.

it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast runber of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me.
One thing more. Last year I had occasion to Caution the Public in these words:—
"I notice one firm who dive taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then with brazen impudence end their pamphlet with the exclamation,
'Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dures,'" &c.
Now I take pleasure in saying that the Caution referred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague

R. Chilton of N. Y., in favor of its perfectly HARMLESS CHARAC-TER, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations.
