SIGNS OF THE TIMES!

Withdrawals from Buchanan.—The Arkansas Shield of July 5th contains letters from Henry Archelas, Elisha Walker Absalom Morelend, T. W. Hill, Alfred Maynard, B. L. Bayless, W. B. Cooper, John R. Crosby, Peter Simmons, G. W. Richey, and Lemuel Kinaler, announcing their withdrawel from the foreign Democracy, and their adherance to the American party.—The Shield says all these were prominent and leading members of the so-called Democracy and never have voted any other ticket but the Democratic.

Maine.—"From all we can learn, there are many Democrats who will follow in the course marked out by Messrs. Hamlin and Morrill. This opposition to Mr. Buchanan come from a quarter where it was little expected, and well tell with power against the boasted supremacy of the Democracy in this State." So says the state of Maine, a strait Whig paper, which last election helped Wells, Democrat.

Tennessee.—Mr. Fillmore's arrival home was hailed at Memphis, Tenn., with a salute of 34 guns. An excursion party echoed the salute, and took a vote among the men, which was 28 for Fillmore, and 4 for Buchanan. The ladies were all for Fillmore.

Louisiana.—"The Red River American" is the name of a new Fillmore & Donelson Journal in Alexandria, La.

"The Daily Creole," is the title of a very neatly printed sheet just started in New Orleans, and it is doing good work in the American cause. "Fillmore and Donelson" floats at its mast head.

Mississippi.—The "Corinthian Pillar" is the name of a handsomely printed Fillmore and Donelson paper just started in the city of Corinth, Mississppi. It is quite a spiey sheet, and the copy before us fires a broad side into the Buchanan camp.

Virginia.—Every Old Line Whig paper in Virginia, except the Wheeling Intelligencer, supports Fillmore and Donelson: and all are working bravely in the cause of the Americans.

The Detroit Advertiser says:

Dr. Niel Gray, a Democrat of steady persistence, State Senator, and an influential citizen, accepts the appointment of delegate to the Republican Convention. Hon. Calvin Davis joins his own political associates in the abandonment of the slave driving democracy. John Sowles, Charles F. Mallory, Henry Stevens, of Macomb Co., Henry J. Higgins, of Jackson, and Horace C. Lathrop, of Lapeer, all old democrats, go the same way.

Opinions.—A Buchanan Man.—Extract from a letter of a resident of Brooklyn, now in Missouri, dated St. Louis, June 22, 1856.

When I left home two weeks since, I considered Buchanan's election certain. I think now his chances are very doubtful.—Fillmore's strength in the Southwest is very great.

The New York Express says the above was written by a prominent Democrat.

Stampede of the Democracy.—Sanford Harrison, Esq., a prominent Democrat of New York, has issued an address to his fellow Democrats, in which he states that he has just returned from a tour of the central counties, and finds the leaders of the Democracy have all gone over to Fremont and there is no hope of carrying the State for Buchanan. In this condition of affairs, he urges his political friends to vote for Fillmore, and thus save the State from Fremont.

The Louisville Journal says that the story, now going the rounds of the papers, stating that the old line Whigs of Kentucky, at their late Convention repudiated Fillmore and Donelson, is simply not true. No such resolution being passed, no such resolution having been offered. The fact is (he says) the old line Whigs are a unit in support of our gallant standard bearers, and you may put down Kentucky as certain for Fillmore and Donelson, and that, by an unprecedented majority.

The Oneonta (Otsego county) N. Y., Herald says that 5000 freemen attended the recent Fremont Ratification Meeting at that place. Among the speakers was ex-Senator Johnson, of Delhi, an influential Democrat, who now goes for Freedom. Hon. S. Miller, a well known and influential Democrat of Delaware, also spoke.

Fillmore and the Mechanics.—The mechanics, all over the country are enthusiastic Fillmore men. A vote taken on Friday last in the Franklin Foundary and Machine Shop, at Reading, Pa., resulted as follows: Fillmore, 66; Buchanan, 20, Fremont, 0; no choice, 2.

☞ The Albany Statesman estimates the number of Fillmore papers in the State of New York at over fifty. Not one of them, it adds, has deserted.

During a debate in the U. S. House of Reps., on Monday last, Hon. George G. Dunn, of Indiana, declared his intention to support Mr. Fillmore.

Hon. Caleb Goodrich, of N. Y., one of the present members of Assembly, has abandoned the Democratic candidates and declared himself for Fremont.

The Memphis Eagle gives Buchanan three States and claims all the others for Fillmore.

The Independent Democrat, of Waukegan, Illinois, which, before the Cincinnati Convention has hoisted the name of Buchanan, since he has been placed on the ultra Pro slavery platform of that Convention, refuses to support him and will support the Republican ticket henceforth:

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

Hereafter let a ten cent piece be no longer called "a dime"—or "a shilling"—but let old Buck have the honor of naming it—and let it be so called—"a Jimmy!" Let the table of "Federal Money" be changed, and let the boys shout in school, hereafter,

Ten Mills make one Cent,
Ten Cents one JIMMY.
Ten JIMMYS one Dollar,
Ten Dollars (or 100 Jimmys) one Eagle!

Mr John A. Carter, in his speech at the Loudoun Whig Meeting, said he had heard Gov. Wise remark that the reason he did not join the democrats sooner, was 'that it was covered with the gangrene of Van Burenism, and as soon as that was sluffed off he united with them.' He would like to know what the Governor would now do since the wily politician of Kinderhook had again thrown his gangrenous influences over the party in the North.

☞ Bullard's Panorama of New York City will be exhibited in the COURT HOUSE to-night. It is highly spoken of, and we hope all will go to see it.

MARRIED.

Hon. JAMES W. COFFROTH, Senator from Tuolumne Co. was married last evening by Bishop Alemany, to Miss BELLE COOK, daughter of Mr. James F. Cook, of this city.—San Francisco Ev'g News.

The happy Bride is young, beautiful, highly educated and rich, and has a dashing look; with all this James cannot fail to be happy, most sincerely do we wish it.

Public Sale of Lots, in the Town of Hopewell, Bedford County, Pa.

A SALE of Lots in the town of Hopewell, will take place by PUBLIC AUCTION, on the premises, ON THURSDAY, THE 31st DAY OF JULY, 1856. The Sale to commence at 9 o'clock in the forenoon.

The town of Hopewell, the termination of the Huntingdon and Broad Top Mountain Rail Road, is located on the east bank of the Juniata, opposite the mouth of Yellow Creek.—It is destined to be a large and important town, it is within half a mile of the Coal openings; it lies directly upon the main line of rail road, and at the point where the visitors to Bedford Springs will leave the rail road for the plank road. It is the only point on the main rail road, where the produce of the great rich limestone valleys, watered by the Raystown Branch of the Juniata and its tributaries, can find a convenient shipping place to market.—Here they will find a common centre. But the great advantages of Hopewell, are the facilities which it affords to the manufacture of iron. There is no place its superior in Pennsylvania. There is an inexhaustible supply of Coal, iron ore and limestone, and also a great abundance of water-power in and adjoining the town.

☞ The terms will be made known at the time of sale.

President of the Hopewell Coal and Iron Company.

BY AUTHORITY.

RESOLUTION

Proposing Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments are proposed to the constitution of the commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

FIRST AMENDMENT.

There shall be an additional article to said constitution to be designated as article eleven, as follows:—

ARTICLE XI.

OF PUBLIC DEBTS.

SECTION 1. The state may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 2. In addition to the above limited power the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the state in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the state; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

SECTION 3. Except the debts above specified, in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by, or on behalf of the state.

SECTION 4. To provide for the peyment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the state, or the proceeds of the sale of the same, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state together with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be used or applied otherwise than in extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

SECTION 5. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation, or association; nor shall the commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association, or corporation.

SECTION 6. The commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township; or of any corporation, or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

SECTION 7. The legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township, or incorporated district, by virtue of a vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association, or corporation; or to obtain money for, or loan its credit to, any corporation, association, institution or party.

SECOND AMENDMENT.

There shall be an additional article to said constitution, to be designated as article XII, as follow:

ARTICLE XII.

OF NEW COUNTIES.

No county shall be divided by a line cutting off over one-tenth of its population, (either to form a new county or otherwise,) without the express assent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof; nor shall any new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.

THIRD AMENDMENT.

From section two of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words, "of the city of Philadelphia, and of each county respectively;" from section five, of same article, strike out the words, "of Philadelphia and of the several counties;" from section seven, same article strike out the words, "neither the city of Philadelphia nor any," and insert in lieu thereof the words, "and no;" and strike out section four, same article, and in lieu thereof insert the following:

"SECTION 4. In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to the number of one hundred, shall be apportioned and distributed equally, throughout the state, by districts, in proportion to the number of taxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof; except that any county containing at least three thousand five hundred taxables, may be allowed a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided, in the formation of a district. Any city containing a sufficient number of taxables to entitle it to at least two representatives, shall have a separate representation assigned it, and shall be divided into convenient districts of contiguous territory, of equal taxable population as near as may be, each of which districts shall elect one representative."

At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be divided into single senatorial districts, of contiguous territory as nearly equal in taxable population as possible; but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof."

The legislature, at the first session, after the adoption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and representative districts, in the manner above provided; such districts to remain unchanged until the apportionment in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

FOURTH AMENDMENT.

To be section XXVI, Article I.

The legislature shall have the power to alter, revoke, or annul, any charter of incorporation hereafter conferred by, or under, any special, or general law, whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the commonwealth; in such manner, however, that no injustice shall be done to the corporators.
