J. A. RHODES, Esq: Dear Sir—As I took your medicine to sell on consignment, 'no cure no pay,'' I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live it this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

W. S. Conklis told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually ran down while using it until my lungs and liver were Congested to that degree that bloed discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors too did all they could for me, but though I must die. Nothing did any good until I got Rhodes' Fever and and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and howels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

S. M. CONKLIN was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M's. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same such quanti y, and I might so specify. Yours with respect.
