THE JUG LAW.

The Gazette of last week has a long article, trying to make capital out of the passage of this law, winter before last. We have frequently explained how, and by whom it was passed, and it is not necessary The Legislature of 1855, which passed it, was divided in polities, the Senate being American, and the House Locofeco. In passed the American House, and it also passed the Locofoco Senate. In the Senate seven Locofocos voted for it and only six Americans-it received the sanction of the Governor and became a law. It will thus be perceived that the blame of its passage cannot be laid exclusively to the Americans as it passed the Locofoco Senate, of whom

OLD LINE WHIGS.

Among the many slanders upon the old ine Whigs, there is none so gross as that which charges them with an intention to vote for James Ruchanan. They have been fighting Locofocoism all their lives; and the above charge takes it for grapted that the old Whigs are about to abandon or have abandoned all their long cherished principles, and have embraced, or are about to embrace the very extreme opposite of every principle hereicfore entertained. The idea f an old line Whig voting for low wages, focos enormitics is incredible. We never did believe there is any truth in this slander, and we never will, until we have better evidence of it than the declarations of Buchanier papers and orators. The best evilence on this matter we have seen for some time, is the Vermont Election of last week. Our readers are aware that Vermont was always the firmest, and most steadfast whig State in the Union. It never faltered, let others do as they might. It cast its electoral vote for Clay and Scott, amid general disaster and defeat elsewhere. According to the loca doctrine, therefore they should have carried the election high and dry in Vermont the other day, where there were only the Republican and Loco tickets in the field. He did not quite carry it however.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Tuesday, Sept, 2, Our State election for Governor, Members tor we suppose didat like to tread too heavi- of Congress, Legislature, &c., took place today. The vote, judging from the returns received thus far, is very large. Last Gettysburg Star. delivered one of the ablest and most ar. year the Republican majority for Gov. Royce was about 13,000. The candicates this year were Ryland Fletcher, Republican, and Henry Keyes, Demosrat. The returns show a large Republican increase on last year's vote electing Mr. Fletcher, Governor. by at least 20,000 majority, and the three Republican Members of Congress, and nearly the entire Legislature. SECOND DISPATCH.

The vote in some of the principal towns for Governor stands as follows:

Woodstock-Fletcher (Republican), 385 Keves (Democrat), 109. Theifort-Fletcher, 289; Keyes, 100. Royalton-Fletcher, 292; Keyes, 51. Barnet-Fletcher, 257; Keyes, 114. Rutland-Fletcher, 582; Keyes, 121.

In seventy towns heard from, the Demoerats have elected but three members to the "old blue light Federalism!" Legislature.

The Republicans have swept the State completely.

MONTPELIER, Vt., Thursday, Sept. 4, The general result of our State election is about the same as published on Wednesday morning. Fletcher's majority for Gov nor in 100 towns is over 12,000, and the 130 towns not yet fully reported will increase it to about 20,000. The three Republican Congressmen have from 3,000 to 7,000 majority.
