or inspector shall not attend, the person electd judge shall appoint an inspector in his place and in case the person elected judge shall not ttend then the inspector who received the or the proceeds of the sale of the saine, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the state together with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the state, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be used or applied otherwise than in extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

Section 5. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, he filedged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation, or association; nor shall the commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association, or corporation.

Section 6. The commonwealth shall not as shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel invasion, support domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

Secrion 7. The legislature shall not authorize any county, city, berough, towaship, or incorporated district, by virtue of a vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholice in any company, association, or corporation; to to obtain money for, or loan its credit to, any corporation, association, institution or party.

BECOND AMPRIMENT.

There shall be an additional article to and constitution, to be designated as atticle XII, as follow:

ARTICLE XII.

OF NEW COUNTIES

No county shall be divided by a line cutting off over one-tenth of its population, (either to form a new county or otherwise,) without the express assent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof, nor shall any new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.

THIRD AMENDMENT.

From section two of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words, "of the city of Philadelphia, and of each county respectively." Irom section five, of same article, strike out the words, "of Philadelphia and of the several counties;" from section seven, same article strike out the words, "neither the city of Philadelphia nor any," and insert in lieu thereof the words, "and no;" and strike out section four, same article, and in lieu thereof insert the following:

"Secrios 4. In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and in every seventh year thereafter, representatives to the number of one hundred, shall be apportioned and distributed equally, throughout the state, by districts, in proportion to the number of inxable inhabitants in the several parts thereof, except that any county containing at least three thousand five hundred faxables, may be allowed a separate representation, but no more than three country shall be intend and no nore than three country shall be intend. sand five hundred faxables, may be allowed a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided, in the formation of a district. Any city containing a sufficient number of taxables to entitle it to at least two representatives, shall have a separate representation assigned it, and shall be divided into convenient districts of contiguous territory, of equal taxable population as near as may be, each of which districts shall effect one representative."

To be section xxvi, Article 1. The legislature shall have the power to alter, evoke, or annul, any charter of incorporation accounter conferred by, or under, any special, or general law, whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the cilizens of the commonwealth; is such manner, however, that no injustice shall be done to the corporators.
