We have no controversy with the editor of the Hollidaysburg Standard. Wherever he is known, he is known to be an unblushing, unscrupulous liar. The stale old joke which he attempts to perpetrate in this week's paper at our expense, is a simple lie, taken from the whole cloth! The bungling classical allusion attributed to a writer in our paper never appeared in it, and the reader knows it. Remember that the State election takes place next Tuesday a week. Americans of Bedford County are you ready? Let no voter be away from the polls.

That Flag!

There was but one thing connected with that meeting calculated to disturb the mind of Democrats—the prostitution of our old Cass and Butler flag to the vile purposes of Know-Nothingism. This was mean and contemptible, and so considered by all men of candor.—Gazette.

We find the above in the Gazette of last week, in relation to a flag raised on the house of Mrs. Cook on the day the Bedford and Colerain delegations left this place to attend the American meeting at Schellburg. If the facts were as represented by the Dimeocrats, it might be considered "mean and contemptible." But how are the facts? In 1848 a number of Loco-focos went to a store in Bedford and purchased the materials for a flag, but they also took good care not to pay for them. On reference to the day book for that year, are the following charges and credits: 1848. Democratic Party, Dr. Oct.—To 28 yds muslin for flag, $3 50 Do. to 15 yds red flannel, 7 50 Do. to 2 yds blue merine, 2 50

DECLINATIONS.

Our Loco-foco friends profess to think the declination of Mr. Griffith, and the nomination of another man in his place, a very strange affair, and boast that they have already defeated one of our candidates. We will remain all concerned that two of the candidates of the sham democracy have already declined in the manner; and hence of their own showing we have already defeated two of their candidates. A certain W. M. HALL, Esq., was nominated for county Surveyor by what purported to be a democratic convention, and after deliberating over the matter for several weeks, he very prudently declined to run, and be beaten by one Daniel Sams Esq., of the American ticket. In this emergency, the democracy did not call their convention together again to nominate a new man, but their county committee nominated one Mr. Ketterman.

The Gazette is ever finding fault with the American conventions for irregularity, &c. Now we would like to know who gave the Loco-foco county committee the authority to nominate a county ticket, or any part of a county ticket. According to the Gazette's own showing they had no authority at all, and the party is under no obligations to support Mr. Ketterman.

Then on the Loco-foco State ticket, as nominated by the convention, was a certain TIMOTHY IVES, for Surveyor General. Soon after the convention adjourned it was discovered that the said Timothy was a great rascal; and that by some means or other he had got out of the State Treasury some TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS more than the law allowed him. He was therefore induced to decline, and one Jonathan Rowe put on in his place. In our regret for the declination of Mr. Griffith we and all his friends have the consolation to know it was not occasioned by any charge or suspicion of dishonesty. Our readers can best judge of the merits of the said Timothy's case from the following article taken from the Greensburg (Westmoreland Co.) Argus.—The editor is said to be a good fellow, but a most immitigated loco-foco. Read what he says on the subject, as follows: TIMOTHY IVES.

"It will be seen that we have removed the name of Timothy Ives from our columns as a candidate for Surveyor General. In justification of this course, we will, at this time, simply remark, that charges of a very grave nature have been made against Mr. Ives, in his official capacity as Superintendent of motive power on the State works. It appears, that recently, Mr. Banks, Auditor General discovered that about two thousand dollars had been drawn from the treasury, some two years since by Mr. Ives, on false or forged estimates. On discovering the fraud, Mr. Ives was sent for, and frankly admitted that the voucher in question was fraudulent, but denied all knowledge of the base character of the paper, and alleged that it was done by his clerk, Tom McGuire. McGuire was examined, and admitted the spurious character of the paper, and in explanation, said that the paper had been drawn up as a form copy, to follow in making out proper estimates, and that it had been sent to the Auditor General, by mistake! In place of the genuine paper, and thus the two thousand dollars was wrongfully drawn from the treasury. Mr. Ives offered to withdraw the paper, and refund the money, but Mr. Banks refused to let the paper out of his office. Mr. Ives received the money, and asseverates his entire innocence in the matter. He may be—we trust he is. The explanation of Mr. McGuire may be true, but candor compels us to say, that if we have been correctly informed as to the facts, no explanation can remove the brand, either of imbecility, culpable negligence, or rank dishonesty. We understand that the State committee have had several meetings to investigate the charge. Fidelity to our conscience and the Democratic party, compels us promptly to remove his name from our columns until the charge can be explained, so as to remove the brand of suspicion from his brow. We hope our readers will approve our course."

The Organ-grinder of the Border Rufians in this county, expresses a great deal of holy indignation because an elder of the Presbyterian Church was fit to attend the American Meeting at Schellburg, last week. Having howled himself hoarse over preachers of the Gospel interfering in politics—unless they happen to belong to his side—he now seeks to prevent lay members of the churches, from meddling in political affairs. It is the same dastard spirit which is now seeking to suppress free speech in Kansas, and wherever else the Border Ruffian influence prevails. If men like this editor had the power no man would dare to open his head against these outrages upon popular rights. An elder of the Presbyterian Church cannot take a few of his friends to an American meeting without incurring the malice of these Rufians.—The Editor of the Gazette seeks to interfere with free speech by abuse; his comments in Kansas adopt the bludgeon. Perhaps this is the influence this man seeks to exert by his unwholesome connexion with the Presbyterian Church, which he disgraces.

Another member of that Church, inflamed with whiskey, can any day go out among the people, and spread his reckless calumnies, without meeting any rebuke; on the contrary he is cheered with approval from the same source which seeks by malignant abuse to prevent another member of that Church from going to political meetings.

Not long since this same border ruffian editor, this craven apologist of the coward Brooks, threatened to "crush out" the Rev. Mr. Sample, the Presbyterian Clergyman of this place, because he happened to hold religious services on the same day and in the same neighborhood in which he was holding a political meeting. He attempted to account for the smallness of his meeting by meanly charging the Rev. Mr. Sample with designedly holding divine worship at the same time! The cowardly conspirator of this editor in Kansas take another plan. They tarred and feathered a Methodist Clergyman not long since because he avowed that he was in favor of making Kansas a Free State. They are only different manifestations of the same hellish spirit.

MORE PROPS GONE.

We have already informed our readers of the many prominent men who once adhered to the Democratic party, as it is called, who have abandoned it since the nomination of that old Federalist, James Buchanan. Some weeks since we announced the desertion of the Hon. John N. Parviance, of Butler county. Our opponents say that he has regretted his course, and now declares his intention to support Buchanan. If this be true it is a most strange and sudden conversion on the part of that gentleman. By the Pittsburg papers we are informed that recently he addressed the friends of Fremont in Allegheny county, in a speech of two hours in length. Subsequent to this, at his own request, he was advertised to address the Fremont Mass Meeting in Pittsburg. If after all this, he has gone back to Buchanan and Federalism, it is strange indeed. At any rate we take it he is now at most only a broken prop of sham democracy, and one which will bear but little weight. But, however, it may be as to Mr. Parviance, there are hosts of others of equal or greater note, about whom there is and can be no doubt. Among these we name first the Hon. A. H. Reeder, late the Governor of Kansas by appointment of Genl. Pierce. He was formerly an eminent democratic lawyer of Easton in this State; and after he was superseded as Governor of Kansas, he was elected to the United States Senate by the Legislature of that Territory. By a recent letter, he formally renounces all adherence to sham Democracy, James Buchanan, and slavery—extension, and is now snuffing Eastern Pennsylvania and the New England States against the Cincinnati Platform and its candidates.

In the same class, also, we have the pleasure to name JUDGE KELLY and JOHN M. REED, Esq., of Philadelphia. The former has been Judge of the Philadelphia Court of Quarter Sessions for many years, and yet holds that office. He is an able man and a powerful speaker, and he is now the Republican candidate for Congress in one of the city districts, and is boldly advocating the cause of Republicanism on the stump.

John M. Reed, Esq., has belonged to the sham democracy all his life, but can stand it no longer, and recently unfurled the standard of open opposition, by making a speech at West Chester before the Republican Club of that place. He has the reputation of being a great lawyer, and after Wm. M. Meredith, he has few, if any, equals at the Philadelphia bar.

And last, but not least, among these desertions is the Hon. Samuel D. Ingham, now of Trenton, New Jersey, and who was one of the Cabinet of Andrew Jackson when he was President of the United States. We hope to be able to publish his recent letter, renouncing all allegiance to low wages, slavery extension and Buchananian democracy. These are among the great men of the country, and their actions are among the cheering signs of the times.—These men were democrats when democracy meant something; but they cannot follow such men as Pierce, Douglas, Atchison, Stringfellow and Buchanan; nor can they longer adhere to any party which endorses the Cincinnati platform.

MORE MONEY TO CARRY PENNSYLVANIA.

We some time ago published a statement showing the large amount of money raised in Washington by the Loccos to carry the election in this State. It seems that large sum is considered not enough, and from an editorial article in the New York Tribune of the 26th inst., we quote as follows: "A meeting of some of the most wealthy New York Bankers and dry good jobbers in the Southern trade was held by special invitation at the New York Hotel, to take measures to remedy, if possible, the present desperate position of the Border Ruffian Democracy. Some fifty magnates of Finance and cotton were present, representing a capital of not less than twenty millions of dollars."

The article then proceeds to state that the tone of the meeting was one of great despondency. It was admitted on all hands that there was great danger of Pennsylvania going against Buchanan at the approaching State election, and it was determined to prevent such a dreadful catastrophe if possible, by raising a large sum of money. The editor then says: "With regard to the sums subscribed, we have no means of knowing precisely except that they were large. Long before the meeting was brought to a close the list stood at 20,000 dollars, and we presume it far surpassed that sum at the end. At a former meeting of the same kind at the same place it is understood that $50,000 was raised—all to carry the election in Pennsylvania."

We say to our readers, what do you think of this? Fifty thousand dollars it seems were raised long ago in Washington City for this same purpose, and now seventy thousand in the city of New York, to carry the election in this State for James Buchanan and the Loco-foco State ticket.—The elections in Kansas were carried by the friends of slavery extension by marching some ten thousand men over from Missouri, and outvoting the resident settlers.—That game cannot be successfully played in so thickly a settled State as the old Keystone; but the same party here are necessitated to resort to some species of fraud to answer the same purpose. Hence this corruption fund of one hundred and twenty thousand dollars raised in other States to buy up the mercenary and corrupt, to procure some ballot box stuffing where practicable—California fashion, and in every practicable mode to defeat the public will, and if possible, carry the day for sham democracy.

We have too much confidence in the integrity of the people of Bedford county, and of the Keystone State, to believe that they can be bought by any such means or appliances. They may, and no doubt will, by such means decrease our majorities some, but their political iniquities have been such that nothing can save them from overwhelming defeat in October next. Such base means only exasperate honest men, and make them more active and determined for the right. The same desperate game was tried by the same party in the late election in Maine. Money was there used like water, and poured out for every purpose deemed practicable to further the cause of low wages, slavery extension, and James Buchanan. The result was an overwhelming defeat of Loco-focoism in all its hideous forms. At the last Presidential election, Pierce carried the State by over 9,000 majority, and at the last election for the Legislature, they elected 29 out of the 31 Senators. This time their candidate for Governor was beaten some 20,000, and they elected but bare one Senator out of 33, and not a single member of Congress.—Let but our friends in Pennsylvania do their duty, and we may rejoice ere long over a similar result here.

BARTHOLOMEW LAPORTE, the Union candidate for Surveyor General, was formerly a Democrat.

JOHN PRINGLE, our candidate for Legislator, was formerly a Democrat.

A. J. REIGHART, our candidate for Auditor, was formerly a Democrat.

Desperation.

Among the many evidences of the awful fright which has come upon the friends of Buchanan and Breckinridge there is perhaps none more humiliating and more unusual than the fact that John C. Breckinridge has taken the stump for himself and Buchanan. So far as we can now recollect this is without precedent. It is usual and customary for candidates for Governor and Congress and other smaller offices to speak for themselves and their party during the campaign. It has however heretofore been considered improper and in bad taste for candidates for either President or Vice President to make stump speeches. Hence Fillmore, Buchanan and Fremont, though all said to be good talkers, are silent; and Denison and Dayton, though known to be good speakers, restrain themselves within the usual bounds of propriety, and stay at home. The democratic candidate for Vice President however, in the desperation of his chances has been forced on the stump, and is doing what he can for his party by making speeches. Recently he came on to Pennsylvania, and made one speech at Pittsburg, and perhaps others; but he was met here by the news from Mass., and he took the back track in short order, and we believe never stopped until he reached the State of Indiana. We venture to guess that on the second Tuesday of October both Pennsylvania and Indiana will give him and his party such an intimation of their political preferences, that he will thereafter confine his labors nearer home.

Wilson Reilly.

We find the following paragraph in the last week's Gazette, under the above caption: "The result of that election proves, incontrovertibly, that Mr. Reilly was a much stronger and more popular man than Mr. Pumroy. In a Whig county, which gave 800 against his party, Mr. R. came within 100 votes of an election, and Mr. Pumroy was defeated by nearly the same number of votes."

This shows the manner in which the libeller of the living and the dead, attempts by "downright lying," to bolster up his candidate for Congress. That election was in 1841, the year after the election of Gen. Harrison, and when his death had so disappointed the Whigs that they were beaten almost everywhere. In 1840 the Whigs had a majority in Franklin county, but in 1841, when Mr. Reilly and Mr. Pumroy were candidates for the Legislature in that county, the Loco-focos had the majority, and Mr. Reilly was beaten! David R. Porter carried Franklin county by 144 majority, and at the very same election, Mr. Reilly was beaten about 100 votes, whilst Mr. Pumroy was beaten only about 40 or 50 votes, he running ahead of his ticket about 100 votes! It is the game the Gazette is playing in this campaign to tell the boldest and most unblushing lies, and palm them off upon its readers as the truth, and when we point them out and prove their falsity, it keeps man Mr. Pumroy will run ahead of the ticket like he always has, and his election is sure. An old broken-down nag, who ran behind his own ticket and was defeated in his own county when Porter had a considerable majority there, is not the man to defeat Mr. Pumroy, who always runs ahead of his ticket.

The Gazette decries that the special Court on the 17th ult. was called by Judge Kimmel, at the request of Loco-focos in this place, for the purpose of naturalizing foreigners. Of course the convicted libeller would deny anything. We had it from several members of the bar, that it was their opinion that it was called for no other purpose, as there was scarcely anything else to do. It says that we said there were "15 or 20 foreign papists" to be naturalized. We said that we understood there were to be from "ten to fifteen." A pretty fellow to talk of other people's "downright lying!" They called the Court no one doubts, for that purpose, but very fortunately for the Americans, they were deceived in their men, as they found to their sorrow that they were not in the country quite long enough for that purpose, and they only got one!

The following article from the Hollidaysburg Register of last week shows the way they are doing up things in Blair county: "NATURALIZATION OF FOREIGNERS.—At the Adjourned Court in this place on Friday last, those present witnessed a spectacle never before beheld within the precincts of Blair at least. It was the Court House thronged with foreigners applying for Naturalization! And no less than EIGHTY-FIVE of them produced the required certificates and made the required proofs and oaths and were admitted to citizenship—making (with the one hundred and two Naturalized at the previous sitting of the term.) the enormous number of ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-SEVEN put through at one Term of our Court! Comment upon the fact is unnecessary; for surely the people will ponder it. Americans must be Americans still, as long as such things occur.

We see by the last Philadelphia Daily News, that the Buchananers in that city, are making voters out of this class of people at the rate of several hundred per day!—How long will Americans submit to these things? Notwithstanding all this an ignominious defeat awaits Loco-focoism as shure as the election arrives.

The Gazette last week has a communication from Jacob Bower, written by the libeller of the living and the dead, in which he states that he will vote for Buchanan and Breckinridge, and that "he may not be held up as a two faced individual?" Bah! He has changed his politics half a dozen times within the past year, and has within a few weeks said he was an American! But we will let him alone, for it is likely he will change half a dozen times more between now and the election, and the last change he may be with us!

The libeller falsifies about our old friend, Wm. T. Ralston. After the Loco-foco meeting we conversed with him, and he was as warm an American as there is in the county, and will vote against the foreign ticket!

The libeller don't refer to Anna Edwards, another as warm an American as is in the county, who they also named as one of the officers of their meeting.

They can't make people believe in other parts of the county where these men are not so well known, that they have changed, by naming them, as officers of their meetings, for the libeller's tricks, as well as those of the whole Dime-ocratic Buchanan party are well known.

Remember freemen of Bedford county, that G. Nelson Smith, the Buchanan candidate for Assembly, voted for the present License Law. Remember that he voted to charter a Jesuit Monastery in Cambria county, last winter, and that if he is elected this fall, he may be the means of having it chartered next winter! All opposed to establishing the corrupt institutions of Spain and Italy, will vote against this Papist and Jesuit.

Joseph Pumroy.

Our candidate for Congress visited this place on Friday last, and was called on here by most of our citizens. He makes a good appearance, is intelligent, and looks every inch a Congressman. Our friends were all well pleased with him, and he will be certain to go out of Bedford county with from two to six hundred majority. No one doubts his election. He left for home on Saturday.

COMING TO THEIR SENSES.—We learn that the Loco-foco speakers at the meeting at Barley's School House on last Saturday admitted that the Americans would carry Bedford county this fall, but that that ought not to discourage them and keep them from turning out! They are coming to their senses at last!

Who don't remember when the libeller of the living and the dead, libeled the best citizens of this place, men and women? He has not reformed, and yet the libeller and blackguard lying charges us with the same thing, because we merely quoted the words of one of the speakers at their meeting in Court week.

Are You Assessed?

To-morrow is the last day. Unless you are assessed by that time, you may lose your vote at the October election. Attend to it at once.

KENTUCKY ALL RIGHT.

From this old State, the home of Clay we continue to receive the most gratifying assurances of the undoubted prospect of her vote being cast for Fillmore and Donelson. We, yesterday, met a gentleman fresh from her soil, who begs us to assure our readers that she is safe for the national candidates of the country, Fillmore and Donelson, beyond a doubt, and we are permitted, through the kindness of a friend, to make the following extracts from business letters received within the last few days.

Under date of Paris, Ky., Sept. 25, a writer says: "We are working very hard in old 'Kentucky,' and she will cast her vote for Fillmore at all hazards, she has never faltered, and she is now more wide awake than she has been since the great campaign for old Clay." Another letter, under date of Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 22d, says: "We are in the very best of spirits here. There is no doubt or possibility of a doubt but that Fillmore will carry this State. The Locos are very low down. Main, was worse to them than a poultice of mashed ice. All are looking forward to the result of your October election. Beat the Buchanan party these, and the Democrats won't have seed enough to plant next year. Tennessee is as certain as Kentucky."

Another gentleman writing from Rod Village, Kentucky, Sept. 19, says, "Rodg. Harrison, (Fillmore,) met Elijah Hise, (Buchanan) at Eminence on Tuesday last, when Hise actually and positively declined to divide the time with him and discuss our principles before the people. That is the tactics now of the Democratic speakers; they are thus declining at all their appointments, because they are always out-matched by the American speakers. Hise's course at Eminence resulted to our advantage decidedly, and at that meeting six Old Line Democrats declared themselves no longer for Buchanan, and came out publicly for Fillmore. Two Old Line Whigs also, who had been co-operating with the Buchanan party, publicly declared themselves for Fillmore. There are only two more Old Line Whigs in this county going for Buchanan, and they are watering. These eight men left the Buchanan party on the ground that if their speakers refused to sustain its principles on the stump, they were not worth adhering to any longer."

These extracts afford but a slight indication of the spirit and enthusiasm which is abroad throughout the whole State, and our friends will, without doubt, send up such a shout for the conservative candidates of the country, as will drive Mr. Buchanan out of the field. Courage friends everywhere, the day brightens on all sides, and the banner of victory is being rapidly moved.—Phila. News.

WITHDRAWAL OF MR. BUCHANAN.—The Baltimore Patriot, after copying from the Philadelphia Bulletin the paragraph relative to Mr. Breckinridge's suggestion to Buchanan as to the withdrawal of the latter from the canvass, says:

We clip the above from the Philadelphia Bulletin of yesterday, a journal generally cautious in giving evidence to mere rumors, that we can scarcely imagine it has been wholly deceived with respect to what passed between Buchanan and Breckinridge. We question very much, however, whether the Sage of Wheatland would consent, even as the most earnest solicitation of his most influential democrat friends to withdraw in behalf of Mr. Fillmore. That the latter could be easily elected under such circumstances, no one who knows the strong grasp he holds on the popular heart, could for a moment doubt. But we fear that Mr. Buchanan does not possess sufficient of the "Roman virtue" of such a request.

The Muscogee Herald, a whole-souled Buchanan paper, published in Alabama, has the courage to utter its sentiments in these words:

"Free Society! we sicken of the name. What is it but a conglomeration of Greasy Mechanics, Filthy Operatives, Small-fisted Farmers, and moon struck Theologians! All the Northern and especially the New England States are devoid of society fitted for well bred gentlemen. The prevailing class one meets with is that of mechanics struggling to be genteel, and small farmers who do their own drudgery; and yet who are hardly fit for association with a Southern gentlemen's body servant. This is your free society which the Northern hordes are endeavoring to extend into Kansas."

SOUTHERN NEWSPAPERS CHANGING GROUND.

The New Orleans Picayune, one of the most influential journals in the South, has come out for FILLMORE. The editor of the Brownsville (Tenn.) Journal, has abandoned the Democratic party, and declared his adhesion to FILLMORE and DONELSON. The Valley Register, heretofore neutral, published at Middletown, Md., last week hoisted the FILLMORE and DONELSON flag. The Lamp Post, a Democrats paper at Memphis, Tennessee has taken down the names of Buchanan and Breckinridge, and plants itself upon the American platform. The Charleston Mercury, the leading Democratic organ in South Carolina, recommends the Democracy to abandon Buchanan and concentrate their votes upon Fillmore, as the only means of defeating Abolitionism. These are "signs of the times" of some significance. The truth is, the result of the recent Northern elections has alarmed the Democracy of the South to a very considerable extent, and they begin to distrust their ability to elect Mr. Buchanan, unless the political revolution now going on in the North can be checked, which it is by no means likely they will be able to accomplish. Should the Southern Democracy find it necessary to sacrifice Mr. Buchanan in order to defeat Fremont, we have no doubt the sacrifice will be made. In that event, the present indications are that they will cast their votes for Fillmore, who has been already endorsed by leading Democratic journals of the South as a National Conservative.
