Beaten, but not Conquered!

The latest news indicates that the majority against the Union State Ticket, is only about 1600, and may be less. A small majority, which can easily be evereome, if the right spirit prevails in the ranks of the oppenents of Buchanan, on the fourth of November. Let every friend of the American cause, use every honorable exertion to defeat that arch trickster and political weawhich the anti-Buchanan gain will be over chanan as the sun will rise in the East, on

THE RESULT.

In another column, we publish the officicial returns of the election in Bedford County. We have through, treachery and bribery, been beaten by a small majority .-Our randidate for Commissioner, Alexander Davis, Esq., was only beaten 8 votes. To secure the defeat of the American ticket in this county the most damnable acts of villainy were resorted to, by the most unserupulous set of Lecofoco scoundrels, that ever was attempted. They had their runners out in every district, for months previous to the election, circulating the most abominable lies against our candidates that even were thought of. They had a large sum of money, sent on from New York and Washington in every borough and township, for the purpose of buying votes, and that enough were purchased to change the result, no one doubts. In this borough and township, for weeks before the election, so reckless were they in their efforts to purchase votes, that they could not keep the matter secret, and we know of several persons whom they attempted to bribe, but who scorned their offers. In one or two of the districts they purchased the officers of the election, who refused to take in legal American votes, and took in illegal Foreign and Locofoco ones. In Bedford Borough the majority of the board was elected as Americans, but through the treachery of the Judge, Locofee ism had control of the board, and a number of fraudulent votes were taken in, and some of our legal voters rejected. They took in the votes of two persons, in the borough, the one had been in New Jersey several years and voted there, and was back only about three or four months; the other had been in Ohio, two or three years, and he also voted there, as both testified to this fact, and was only back about six weeks! In Bedford township, they refused the vote of a man whom even W. P. Schell, Esq., said had a right to vote. In Southampton, Comberland Valley and ed from Maryland, which accounts for their ticket.

unprecedented majorities there. Against | The Bedford Gazette of last week says.

BEDFORD BOROUGE, aware of the cause of the change in this Boons. There are every year more changes from persons moving out, and others moving in than is, any other part of the county .-Since last fall, the removals have been from 30 to 40 against us. We still ought to have had about 20 of a majority, but as is this borough. well known, there are more persons here that can be influenced by money, than in also a pertain fellow, who deserted the Judge by the Americans, and then, in turn and visited houses, the occupants of whom tell! they would not notice at any other time,persons whom they supposed to be needy!-This day for several months was desecrated in this way by them. Others of the gang would buy this man a barrel of flour, and hand that one a five dollar bill. Several, early in the campaign, were bought, one with three hundred dollars, others with the promise of patronage and office. The desertion of one of the officers of the election injured us about five votes, illegal Locofeco votes were taken and legal voters of ours rejected. Everybody knows what caused us who still pretend to be with us, every one of whom was bought, and who are yet afraid are known. Not less than $1000 were spent in this Borough and Township alone. We are rid of the rubbish now, and we will know our strength hereafter, and gloriously triumph in the future.

THE STATE.

The contest in this State has been very close; so close, in fact that it will take the official vote to tell exactly how it has resulted. The Locofeces have probably carthereoek, James Buchanan. Union Electoral Ticket.

The following is the Electoral Ticket put in nomination by a portion of the Fillmore State Committee, the North American Committee, and the Republican Committee, on Friday evening last, at the Rooms of the Republican State Committee in Philadel. phia. It is proposed that twenty-six name n common shall compose the ticket, the twenty-seventh at the head of the ticket, to be different on the tickets voted for by the Fillmore and Fremont men, the vote of the electors, if chosen, to be cast pro rata according to the vote cast for the twenty seventh names respectively. It was also agreed that the electoral ticket voted for by the Fillmore men, should be headed by the name of MILLARD FILLMORE, and that to be voted for by the Fremont men by the name of John C. FREMONT.

The following is the Electoral ticket chosen, the Fremont one being the same, except in the leading elector:

THE PROSPECT.

That we can sweep this State by a large majority, on the 4th of November, we are anthorized to expect, by the facts of the past, as well as by the indications of the present. The results of the State and Presidential elections in Pennsylvania since 1836, show that the Whig vote in the (Actober election always fell short of the same vote in the succeeding Presidential contest while the Democratic vote increased but little. Thus, in the October election of 1837, that desertion! About twelve voted against the Democracy carried the State by a large majority; and in the Presidential election which followed, the Whigs, with scarcely te come out openly, but who, nevertheless, a hope of success, reduced that majority to a very low figure.

In the State election of 1840, the reselt stood thus: For the Democrats. 130,551

For the Whigs. 125,902 4,649 Democratic majority. In the Presidential election of the same year, the following was the result:

Harrison. 143,672 Harrison's majority.

In 1848, Johnston's majority over Longstreth, was 302; Taylor's over Cass, 13,- of the result, the following is probably a correct list of the Congressmen elected: 1st District,-Thos. B. Florence, Dem. 2d-E. Joy Morris, Am. 3d-James Landy, Dem. 4th-Henry M. Phillips.
