OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"This volume will be read with satisfaction by those who most enjoyed the 'Sacred Mountains.'"—N. Y. Evening Post.

"It is full of deep interest, and written in a most glowing and beautiful style."—Louisville Journal.

"There is merit sufficient in the work to make it a favorite with the lover of things associated so close with Biblical history."—Detroit Daily Advertiser.

"The writer has a powerful use of language, and though he enters upon his task with a true devotional spirit he invests his theme with an interest sure to fascinate the general reader."—S. Evening Gazette.

"A finished specimen of style and workmanship."—Buffalo Christian Advocate.

"He has clothed his ideas with lofty and beautiful language, and treated the subject in a manner becoming its importance."—Roch. Union.

"The style is different from J. T. Headley, and perhaps better adapted to the subject. It is simple and unpretending, but plain and forcible."—Boston Journal.

"It is written in a style of poetic prose suited to the subject and makes some glowing pictures of the 'Sacred Plains,' spreading them out in all their oriental loveliness, and investing them with a charm and interest that belongs only to scriptural scenes."—Medina Tribune.

"An elegant book, both in contents and appearance—fitted to adorn and increase the value, of any library."—Buffalo Daily Republic.

"This volume is handsomely illustrated with views of many spots made interesting by the sacred history."—Boston Daily Advertiser.

"The author has faithfully executed his design, and presented to the public a book replete with interest and instruction."—Genessee Republic.

"The materials of the several chapters seem to have been collected with great care."—Salem Observer.

A HUMAN LIFE SAVED!

DOWAGIAC, Mich, March 11, 1856.

J. A. RHODES, Esq: Dear Sir—As I took your medicine to sell on consignment, "no cure no pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

W. S. CONKLIN told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually ran down while using it until my lungs and liver were Congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors too did all they could for me, but though I must die. Nothing did any good until I got Rhodes' Fever and and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

H. M. CONKLIN says: "I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of quinine and specifics without any good result, from 25 August to 15th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which effected a permanent cure by using two thirds of a bottle."

S. M. CONKLIN was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M's. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so specify. Yours with respect. A. HUNTINGTON.

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me.

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to Caution the Public in these words:—

"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then with brazen impudence end their pamphlet with the exclamation, 'Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares,'" &c.

Now I take pleasure in saying that the Caution referred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, except the certificates of Cures, and the Certificate of the celebrated Chemist, Dr. James. R. Chilton of N. Y., in favor of its perfectly HARMLESS CHARACTER, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations.
