

INQUIRER & CHRONICLE.

BEDFORD, Pa.

Friday Morning, Oct. 31, 1856

"Fearless and Free."

DAVID OVER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

FOR PRESIDENT:

MILLARD FILLMORE, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: ANDREW JACKSON DONELSON, OF TENNESSEE.

TO THE AMERICANS OF Bedford County!!

A UNION ELECTORAL TICKET upon a just and honorable basis has been formed. This ticket is composed of men of the three great parties in opposition to the sham democracy, Americans, Whigs and Republicans, and is entitled to the cordial and earnest support of every true American in Bedford county.

It is composed of thirteen Fillmore men, and thirteen Fremont men. The friends of Millard Fillmore will vote the whole twenty six names with the name of Millard Fillmore at its head, the Fremont men will vote the same ticket headed by the name of John C. Fremont. This ticket is pledged if elected, to cast the electoral vote of the State in proportion to the number of votes received by each, and hence the more votes we can give this ticket, the greater number of electors will Fillmore get. It is not a fusion, but on honorable and magnanimous alliance, in which personal differences and jealousies are sunk for the sake of uniting all for the common good. The rivalry between the two candidates Fillmore and Fremont is preserved just as much as if there were independent electoral tickets in the field.

It is the only ticket which has any chance of defeating Buchanan.

We are confident that by proper exertion, this ticket can be triumphantly elected, and it is better to give Fillmore half or the greater part of the electoral vote of the State, than none at all.

It is the ticket which is supported by the great body of the American party throughout the State, and a vote for any other is at best thrown away, if not a half a vote for Buchanan.

Gor. Pollock, Col. Andrew G. Curtin, Peter Martin, Hon. Lemuel Tod, Hon. James Cooper, and nearly if not quite all the best and most reliable Americans in the State, cordially support this ticket.

A recent State convention of our friends held at Harrisburg has unanimously ratified it.

It is supported by every American newspaper in the State except two.

In view of these facts we earnestly recommend this ticket to the confidence and support of every voter in Bedford county.

- Samuel Radebaugh, David Over, P. H. Snider, John Taylor, Samuel Vandersmith, Wm. Shack, S. A. Shack, A. Mower, Simon Ling, A. S. Russell, S. R. Ashcom, Jos. S. Riddle, Jacob Barendollar, Abram Herman, Wm. Kiser, John Bittinger, John Bittinger, jr., Geo. W. Blymyre, John J. Luther, Henry Bridayman, Wm. H. Ross, Geo. D. Shuck, John R. Jordan, Wm. Simpson, Eben Pennell, Jacob Cronse, J. S. Eshelman, Thomas L. Rea, Jacob Smith, Simon Nans, Anthony Stuffer, John Davidson, John Linderman, Daniel C. Crouse, Daniel Leader, Samuel Smith, Robert Gibson, John Fauble, J. A. Henderson, Daniel Croyle, Wm. H. Ross.

In the Bedford Gazette of this week, appears an address, which was spoken by using John Cessna at the Club meeting on last Saturday night. The names of the other members of the Committee are also signed to it, some of whom have heretofore passed for gentlemen; but we presume their names were placed to it without their knowing its contents.

He flatteringly contradicts several statements made by us last week, without adding one particle of proof. Where we are known, our simple word will go as far, if not farther, than that of the creature who has managed to grow rich by getting people into difficulties, and rioting on the sweat and blood of the widow and orphan.

We now reiterate, plainly and distinctly, all the charges made by us last week, fully convinced of their truth.

It is true that Locofoos, the libeler of the dead, and a certain other person who we named last week, profaned the sabbath in electioneering for the Locofoco ticket.

It is true that illegal votes were taken in at the Borough box by nosing John Cessna, who was an Inspector. One person had been in Ohio for several years. Another in New Jersey a couple of years. Both on their oaths stated that they voted in those States. One was back about four months, the other six weeks. One or two legal voters of ours were rejected.

It is true that election officers were purchased and bribed. We all know of such. It is true that voters were imported from Maryland into Londonderry, Cumberland Valley, and Southampton. Compare the last returns with those for the last ten years and form your own conclusions.

It is true that money was sent from Washington and New York, and was used profusely by the Locofoos at every poll in Bedford County.

Americans, when the Locofoos engage in any desperate game of political iniquity, part of that game is to persistently and willfully deny it, in the face of the clearest proof. Their denials, as well as their calumnies are unworthy the slightest consideration. Let us go to the polls on Tuesday next, and earnestly work for and vote the Union electoral ticket, with the name of MILLARD FILLMORE at its head.

To the Polls! To the Polls!

We call on all the opponents of Buchanan and Locofoecism, to turn out on Tuesday next, and RALLY to the support of the Electoral ticket, headed by the name of MILLARD FILLMORE. Let our friends attend to getting out every voter young and old, weak and infirm. Vote early, and go to work with all your might, the balance of the day, in bringing out the anti-Buchanan force. Let all who are opposed to Buchanan, get all opposed to Low Wages, let all who are in favor of their country, turn out and vote against Buchanan, and posterity will bless them.—Tuesday next will be a memorable day in the history of your country, for weal or for woe! Vote as becomes honest freemen, and Locofoecism, with all its sins, will be prostrate. Turn out, friends, and let no voter be away from the polls.

ANOTHER MAIRE'S NEST.

The runners of the Gazette announce the intended publication this week of a letter of F. Jordan, Esq., to Charles Gibbons, Esq., Chairman of the Republican State Committee, containing some most astounding disclosures, &c., as usual. We were tempted to make some inquiry into the matter, and find the same letter was published a week ago, in the Philadelphia Inquirer, and on a perusal of it we find it to be in substance as follows: Mr. Gibbons by letter invited Mr. Jordan to meet the Republican Committee at Harrisburg on the 7th of October. Mr. Jordan by letter very politely declines to attend.—Wonderful disclosures, indeed. Will wonders never cease?

A LITTLE TOO STRONG.

We have just seen a Locofoco handbill calling a meeting of the faithful at Barley's school house on the 30th inst. It is to be addressed by all the Bedford speakers, and the importance of the contest is said to be great, because the handbill says: "If the Abolitionists succeed, three millions of Southern negroes are to be turned loose on us to eat our substance and fill our poor houses!" Is it not a shame that any man even professing decency should thus endeavor to impose on and deceive the unwary. They distributed them in the country in the desperate hope of deceiving the unwary, and those who are green enough to believe such lies. If the abolitionists succeed then the slaves are to be set loose. Yes, and if the abolitionists succeed, why not go the whole figure and say the whites will turn black. The one is just as true as the other. If the sky falls we will catch larks! The abolitionists, with Gerrit Smith for their candidate, can hardly poll ten thousand votes in the whole United States, and of course cannot "succeed;" but the baseness and falsehood of the bill is in representing all as abolitionists who will not vote for Buchanan and the extension of negro slavery into Kansas.—The idea intended to be conveyed is that if Fillmore should be elected, the Southern slaves will be liberated. Is not this too bad. The unprincipled liars know better than this, and we trust the honest voters of the "Corner" will treat such base attempts at deception as they deserve.

The Democracy, in spite of their assumed good humor, are getting desperately serious. A jeanar remark made by us about the plank read last week, has called forth a huge card, to which Saml. H. Tate, Esq., made himself conspicuous in getting names in his peculiarly cunning and astute way. When it is necessary to wheedle unsuspecting men into signing a stupid card, or to repeat the stale and false charges, amalgamation, Maj. Tate looms up in magnificent proportions.

REVIVAL.—Quite a revival has been going on in the M. E. Church, in this place for the last two weeks. The altar is crowded every night with prayerful and anxious penitents. Rev. Mr. Gibson is one of the most eloquent and effective ministers we have ever had amongst us, and it is mainly by his exertions, through Providence, that the people have been awakened to their true condition. Rev. Mr. Collins preached on Sunday and Monday night.

THE GENUINE UNION FILLMORE AND DONELSON ELECTORAL TICKET.

The country is being flooded with Spurious Electoral Tickets, and the several parties must be on their guard or they will be cheated. We subjoin the genuine Union Fillmore and Donelson ticket, and urge every Fillmore man in the county to be careful that he votes no other.—Mark that this ticket is headed Millard Fillmore, and that James Irvin, Joseph Edwards &c., follows:

- ELECTORS. Millard Fillmore, James Irvin, of Centre county. Joseph Edwards, Philadelphia. G. N. Eckert, Philadelphia. M. H. Dickinson, Philadelphia. Wilson Jewell, Philadelphia. Albert G. Rowland, Philadelphia. Caleb N. Taylor, Bucks county. Wm. Darlington, Chester county. Wm. M. Beitz, Berks county. Michael H. Shirk, Lancaster county. Shanon Cameron, Dauphin county. J. M. Cornick, Northumberland county. Smith B. Thompson, Montour county. Russell F. Lord, Wayne county. Frederick E. Smith, Tioga county. Abram Undergraff, Lycoming county. Joseph D. Simpson, Perry county. Hezekiah Easton, Franklin county. Edward Seull, Somerset county. Wm. M. Stewart, Indiana county. Alfred Patterson, Fayette county. Bonair C. Sawyer, Allegheny county. Jacob Painter, Allegheny county. L. McGuffin, Lawrence county. G. W. Arnold, Clarion county. James Skinner, Erie county.

POST MASTER.—We understand that there are now some ten anxious expectants of the Post Office in this place, in case of Buchanan's election. Don't be too sanguine, gentlemen, Buchanan will not be elected, but if, through a direful national calamity, he should be, the present incumbent will be continued. She is a Catholic lady and a foreigner, and Locofoecism will not dare remove her! Besides, she is the widow of one of the seven, who once met in a candy shop, and forced Brown, after deserting Buchanan, to pull down Dallas, and run up Buchanan again!

"The Democratic State ticket has been elected by about 10,000."—Bedford Gazette, Oct. 17.

"Be not deceived by such false and unfounded charges. They can scarcely tell the truth even in matters of history."

The Locofoco majority for Canal Commissioner 2753. On the Congressional vote it is 1818! These few hundred can be easily overcome if all our friends vote the Union Electoral ticket.

We publish an Address this week, signed by a number of Fillmore men of this Borough, and from some other parts of the County, to the American party of Bedford County. If we had had time, we could have procured the names of nearly every American in the County. Read the Address.

The Hollidaysburg Register, Mercersburg Journal, Fulton Republican, Somerset Herald, and in fact every Fillmore paper in the State but two, have come out and are fighting manfully for the Union State Ticket.

DAVID BOTTONFIELD.—The Bedford Gazette, some weeks ago, stated that this gentleman residing in Pottsville had left the American party, and joined the Locofoos. We are authorized by him to contradict the lie, and state that he is an American, and opposed to Buchanan and low wages. How can anybody believe anything that appears in the Gazette!

The Locofoos have got up a parcel of handbills for a meeting, in which they charge the Americans with being in favor of setting three millions of negroes free. Is there any person so stupid as to believe this lie. Yet the authors of it, act the hypocrite, take the sacrament, and charge their betters with falsehood. The American party is in favor of letting slavery alone where it at present exists, and are opposed to extending it into the free Territories. Can any honest man believe anything, published by such a lying and slanderous sheet as the Bedford Gazette! Let no honest voter be deceived by it.

GETTING DESPERATE.—The Locofoos of this place, are getting desperate. It appears that our paper is a thorn in their side, and it requires the libeller, Bowman, Vosey John Cessna, Schell, J. W. Tate, Sprang, Statler, Beegle and Hall, all of them, to make any kind of a show in fighting us, solitary and alone! Come on, "my hearties," we can whip a score or two more of you yet.

The Locofoos make a great fuss when a minister of the Gospel, who happens to be opposed to them in politics, expresses his honest sentiments, but when one devotes the whole day electioneering for the Locofoco ticket, it is all right! That makes the difference.

On the Congressional vote, the Locofoos have only 1818 majority, which can be overcome, if the opponents of Buchanan cordially unite on the Union Electoral Ticket.

DON'T VOTE FOR BUCHANAN.

There are a few stiff-necked, impracticable men in both the American and Republican parties, who refuse to vote the Union Electoral Ticket. To such we venture to say, "Don't vote squarely for Buchanan, but vote for the 'straightout' tickets of your respective parties. Here is that of the impracticable Fillmore & Donelson men. To vote it is virtually to vote for Buchanan, but it is better to vote for him in this way than square to join the Foreigners on the Cincinnati Platform and vote the same electoral ticket they do. To vote this ticket, we say, is virtually to vote for Buchanan.

ELECTORS AT LARGE. Hon. A. Stewart, Hon. J. R. Ingersoll.

- DISTRICT ELECTORS. 1. A. J. Flomerfelt, 13. Samuel Yelm, 2. Henry White, 14. Chas. F. Wells, J. 3. Jos. S. Riley, Jr., 15. G. W. Youngman, 4. Henry D. Moore, 16. J. V. Hoshour, 5. Daniel O. Hittner, 17. S. E. Duffield, 6. Isaac Newton, 18. Geo. W. Patton, 7. Stacy Brown, 19. Jos. H. Kuhns, 8. John C. Myers, 20. Wm. H. Smith, 9. Sam'l Kenney, 21. Wm. M. Wright, 10. Henry W. Snyder, 22. Henry Phillips, 11. Kimber Cleaver, 23. John M. D. Nesbit, 12. Robert F. Clark, 24. J. N. Hethington, 25. James Webster.

We have printed, and have on hand, the straight Fillmore and Donelson Electoral ticket, headed by Joseph R. Ingersoll, which can be procured by any American who is determined to give an indirect vote for Buchanan—or, at best, to throw his vote away.

Recollect freemen of Bedford County, that the Locofoco majority for Canal Commissioner, was only 2753. This can be easily overcome on Tuesday next, if we all do our duty.

FRIENDS OF FILLMORE.

All of you who are in earnest in your desire to see him elevated again to the Presidential chair, consider a fact or two.

We all agree that if the election goes to the House Fillmore's chance of election is better than that of either Fremont or Buchanan. Don't we? Indeed we feel sanguine that the two extremes must unite on him,—that the conservative sentiment of the country will absolutely demand such a union, and that Congress will not dare to disobey it. The safety of the Union and the good of the country will compel the choice of Fillmore if the election goes to the House. This we all agree about.

We all agree, again, that there is no chance of carrying Pennsylvania for a distinctive Fillmore Electoral Ticket.

We all agree, again, that if Pennsylvania goes for Buchanan the election will not go to the House—that such a result is fatal to the prospects of Fillmore. Don't we?

We all agree, again, that the only hope of electing Fillmore rests upon a cordial union of all the opponents of Buchanan in Pennsylvania on one Electoral Ticket.—Even Sanderson, the Bogus American at the head of the American State Executive Committee admits this. We all agree, again that if every man in our State who is opposed to Foreign Influence—to Papal meddling in our political affairs—to external aid for the votes of Catholics and Foreigners—and to the Repeal of the Missouri Compromise and the Kansas Outrages—will vote for a Union Electoral ticket that it will carry, and the State be kept from Buchanan.

Now, then, why should not every true friend of Fillmore vote for a Union Electoral Ticket, and so keep the State from Buchanan—and so secure the election of Fillmore to the Presidency—and so subvert the best interests of the country?—Why not! In the name of common sense, why not! Can a man really desire the election of Fillmore, and refuse to cast his vote in the only way that will ensure his election? Can he! And especially can he, if he may vote for a Union Electoral Ticket, without a shade of compromise of his distinctive Americanism! Surely, surely, not! And we appeal to our American brethren, with all the earnestness of a true American heart, to join at once, with cordiality and zeal, in a mighty effort to carry the Union Electoral Ticket, with Millard Fillmore's name at the head, and so avouch that Americans shall rule America—that the Union be preserved—and that SAM never dies.—Holl. Register.

UNION ELECTORAL TICKET.

The Union Electoral Ticket, as it is presented in another column, will enable every opponent of Buchanan and the Cincinnati Platform to form an entire and hearty union, and at the same time cast his vote for the candidate of his choice. No man honestly desiring the defeat of Buchanan can object to the plan proposed. With such a union we can beyond all doubt defeat the Cincinnati nominee—without it that party must inevitably succeed, and the pledged exultors of the Pierce Administration will oust the country for another five years.

Why should not the union be carried out? Opposition to Slavery extension is a principle held in common by the great masses of the Fillmore and Fremont voters, and it is only in this way that that principle can be carried out. United we can succeed, divided we must be conquered. No man voting the Union Ticket is called upon to sacrifice a single point—in doing so he identifies his preference and at the same time his ballot is made effective in favor of the great principle which is to be decided in the contest.

Look at this question in the light of reason and common sense, and discarding the petty jealousies of partisan warfare, come up to the issue like men determined to strike a firm blow for a great principle. Let your motto be, a union of the right against the wrong—a union for the sake of the Union. Norris-town Register.

For the Inquirer and Chronicle. THE FINAL APPEAL.

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord which made heaven and earth."

All parties regard the impending political crisis as of immense importance. All true Christians must feel that it is one which involves precious, social, moral and religious, as well as merely political interests. Recent events are calculated to remind us of what we should never have been unmindful of: viz Our dependence for success in every course upon the great Ruler of hearts and of nations.

This appeal, is therefore made to all who believe that God rules prayer. In the brief time which will elapse before the suffrages of the people shall have decided the Presidential contest, three things will be done:—1. They will appeal to God for the sincerity, and uprightness of their political views and purposes, endeavoring honestly and faithfully to review their position in all its bearings upon the great interests involved and praying earnestly that they themselves may be guided in the right way.

2. They will recollect that "The Lord reigneth," that even the "king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water: He turneth it whithersoever He will," and that the minds of no men who have power to influence the great decision, are beyond the reach of His control. With full conviction of this great truth, and the remembrance that God has often moved the minds of men in relation to matters of great moment, they will make it a matter of special duty and privilege to beseech of God that He will so move upon the minds of those men who have the right to vote for President of these United States, or the power to influence the votes of their fellow-citizens, that they shall choose that man to this high office, whom He, as the great King, will "delight to honor," as a just and equitable ruler over men,—over all the inhabitants of this favored land.

3. As even "faith without works is dead," so all God's obedient servants, while they call upon Him, will go themselves, if practicable, and by whatever influence they may properly exert upon others, to the place of political concourse, on the appointed day, and in its appropriate place, deposit their ballot as the representative of their pleasure in the decision of this question.

Having thus done what they could, and discharged their individual duty, they will calmly leave the event to Him to whom events belong, and pray and expect that He, as it is His will, will even from seeming evil, still educe good, and overrule all our national and social affairs to the promotion of His own glory.

Let those persons whose political position, principles or purposes awaken in their minds the least degree of opposition to the course pointed out above, recognize in such opposition proof positive that their position, principles, or purposes are not all right in the sight of God their Judge, and let them act "as they that must give account."

HOWEVER.

October 22d, 1856.

Union for the Sake of the Union.

We regret exceedingly that the Committees of the American and Republican parties failed to cordially and unanimously agree upon a Union Electoral Ticket at Philadelphia last week. We had confidently looked to their agreeing, and felt warranted in assuring our people on all hands that there would be a Union. Long ago we declared our conviction that a Union was advisable. We have not changed our opinion. In view of all the circumstances we cannot. We must therefore go for a union, and whatever influence the Register may have we give in that way. The Union State Convention yesterday held in Harrisburg have put up an Electoral ticket on a fair and honorable basis, and for that ticket we so put up we go heart and hand, and we appeal to every American in the country, and every opponent of Buchanan, of whatever party designation, as he desires the defeat of that party which seeks to control the country through FRAUD and PERJURY, by stuffing the Ballot boxes in Philadelphia and elsewhere in this State as well as in California.

We want our American friends to think that we do not desert Fillmore and Donelson nor fuse with the Republicans. Its a Union in which we stand for Fillmore as before. The Republicans will vote for Fremont. Let them do it. We have no quarrel with them for that. We go for Fillmore, first, last, and all the time. To advance his interests and that of the American party, we agree to vote the same electoral ticket that they do. This is the only course to defeat the Irish bores who voted the Buchanan ticket last week and who are now exulting over the fraudulent success of the Buchanan party. It is these men and their clannishness that we wish to see defeated. Will not every good American,
