

Buchanan will be the largest minority President we have ever had. Fillmore and Fremont will have a majority over Buchanan of a quarter of a million of votes.

Buchanan's majority in this State will be about 25,000. It is not known yet whether he will have a majority over the Union and Straight vote combined.

The revival is still in progress at the Methodist Church, and bids fair to continue for some time yet.

Our paper last week, and the present, has been delayed on account of the absence of one of our workmen.

There will be no paper issued from this office next week.

Hon. THOMAS J. POWER has been appointed Adjutant General of Pennsylvania, by Gov. Pollock.

Gov. Pollock has appointed Hon. R. T. Conrad, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, vice Judge Kelly, resigned.

THE DUTY OF AMERICAN CITIZENS.

Though defeated we are not conquered, and though overwhelmed we are not dismayed. The election here demonstrates the necessity of our principles and a prompt reorganization to maintain them.

A REGISTRY LAW.

And for the whole country, A PURE BALLOT-BOX. An Amendment to the Naturalization Laws.

A more intelligent exercise of the Right of Franchise.

These are principles of detail, and every true man in the country ought to unite with us to secure them. But, judging from the past, all that is done to accomplish ends so desirable, will be left to the work of the American Party and of those who sympathize with it.

While the Buchanan party thus had the whole strength of the foreign vote, its opponents were divided by the adroit use of the anti foreign sentiment. Thousands and tens of thousands of our best citizens who have watched the political movements of the past ten or fifteen years, have become utterly disgusted and alarmed at the unity and compactness with which the foreign element in our politics is wielded, and they keenly felt the necessity of breaking up this foreign phalanx, or of preventing the increase of its political power.

Laugh when you win, if you lose, try again.

While you are beaten, our country and the right stand strong in the affections of the great majority of the American people. Sectionalism is rebuked. Partisan theology is rebuked. Commerce and trade, labor and manufactures thrive and prosper. We look out upon thirty-one States, and thirty-one stars to represent them upon a Union flag, flying in the breeze, and in the midst of our misfortunes find abundant cause for congratulation.

The Mormons for Buchanan.

TO THE LATTER-DAY SAINTS. The Elders and Rulers of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints to the Saints in the United States of America:

Dear Brethren, Faithful Followers of the Lord and Recipients of His Grace.—We call upon you to stand firm to the principles of our religion in the coming contest for President of the country.

It is given out by the quidnuncs, that Mr. Buchanan has announced or will announce that the policy of his Administration will be to make Kansas a Free State.

that code, and what will now necessarily follow it, makes Kansas a Slave State. When Mr. Buchanan shall have recovered from his fright at finding himself a sectional President, and is fairly seated at Washington, braced up by his Southern advisers and controllers, he will drop all this talk and confine himself to the easy platitudes of the constitution and the Union.

The Foreign Vote.

In the first place, the whole foreign vote—Irish and German—has been cast for Buchanan. There may have been, here and there, some scattering German votes given for Fremont.

Besides this, there is nothing that an Irishman loves like the opportunity to tyrannize over somebody; and nothing that he hates like a negro. Having been the victim of oppression, as he supposes, all his life at home, his only notion of liberty here is that he can treat somebody else in the same style.

While the Buchanan party thus had the whole strength of the foreign vote, its opponents were divided by the adroit use of the anti foreign sentiment. Thousands and tens of thousands of our best citizens who have watched the political movements of the past ten or fifteen years, have become utterly disgusted and alarmed at the unity and compactness with which the foreign element in our politics is wielded, and they keenly felt the necessity of breaking up this foreign phalanx, or of preventing the increase of its political power.

Frightful Riots in Baltimore.

Our city yesterday was made the theatre of the most prolonged and desperate rioting. Armed and organized associations, belonging to both political parties, resorted to the fire arms with which they were liberally provided, and fought with ferocious and daring recklessness.

THE RIOT AT THE SECOND WARD.

During the morning there was considerable illfeeling displayed at the Second ward polls, but up to three o'clock no serious disturbances occurred. At that hour a furious fight broke out, said to have originated from a stone being thrown into the crowd surrounding the windows. Pistols were immediately drawn and fired by both parties.

THE RIOT AT THE SEVENTH WARD.

A man, whose name we could not learn, was shot in the forehead and mortally wounded. He was removed from Eastern avenue, where he was shot, up Exeter street, to near Fawn, where medical assistance was called. He was subsequently removed to the upper part of the city, where he is said to reside.

THE RIOT AT THE BELAIR MARKET.

About three o'clock in the afternoon, a report was brought to the police, stationed at the Eighth ward that there was fighting at the Sixth ward, and assistance was asked to quell it. The police started, and with them several hundred of the crowd assembled around the polls, who in a few moments were armed with muskets, and accompanied by two gangs of boys each dragging a small brass cannon on wheels.

WHAT SHALL BE DONE NEXT?

The late election shows that there is a decided majority of the people (especially of the Northern States) opposed to the doctrines and policy of the so-called Democratic party.

THE WEELBARROW POLITICAL WAGER.

Tremendous Excitement in Boston—The Wheelbarrow bet. Boston, Nov. 7, 1756.—Major Benjamin Perley Poore, the late Fillmore candidate for Congress in the Sixth district, arrived in the city this afternoon with his wheelbarrow and barrel of apples, which he had wheeled all the way from Newburyport, a distance of thirty-six miles, in two and a half days.
