

trilled on the Eighth ward party, and drove them up through the market, accompanied by perfect volleys of musketry, and the occasional discharge of a swivel. The fighting through the market was continued, with but little intermission, up to dark, when both parties retired.

During the time of the battle, the following persons were carried to the apothecary shop of Mr. Joseph Roberts, corner of Harford street and the York road, where they were attended by Dr. P. J. McGary, their wounds dressed, and taken home by their friends.

Philip Dagner, an Irishman, received a ball in the back, on the left side, just below the shoulderblade, which it is thought will result fatally.

Charley Smith, one of the Eighth ward party, was shot through the left arm, tearing at considerable of the flesh. He is one of the hands in the Tobacco Warehouse, No. 2.

John Kinsey, an Irishman, received a ball through his thigh and one in his back.—Bodily wounded.

Henry Shuster was badly wounded in the forehead, and the ball could not be found.

John Metier, who resides on Constitution street, received a bad wound in the arm.

Samuel Smith, residing in Etwah street, was shot in the leg above the knee, the bone being badly broken.

Hyde Mitchell received a shot in his side, and had the little finger of his right hand badly broken.

Hulbrook was shot in the back, but his wound is not considered dangerous.

Joseph Brown, residing in Briton street near Monument, was shot in the knee.

A German living at No. 27 McEldeery street, was shot through the knee.

Samuel Jackson, living in Monument street, near Gay, received a slug in the thigh. A boy was brought in wounded in the breast, it was thought fatally.

The above were all parties engaged in the Democratic fighting gang from the Eighth ward.

John Ryan was slightly wounded, a ball carrying away his toe.

A man named Willis, residing in French street, received a ball in his leg.

William Williams, one of the Eighth ward party received a spike shot from a swivel, tearing away the flesh and bone of his right leg below the knee.

Albert B. Clark was shot near Orleans street, the ball entering his thigh, and rupturing the femoral artery. He died.

Among those wounded on the side of the American rioters, were the following:

Hitzelberger, a genteelly dressed young man, was shot in Orleans street, supposed to have had no part in the fight.—Wounds supposed to be mortal.

John Haupt was carried to his home, badly wounded, in Caroline, near Mullerly street. Callender Patterson, a boy was shot through the arm.

Thomas Bartlett was shot in the face, the ball lodging in the back of his head—dangerously wounded. He was taken to his residence in Fayette street, near Jackson square.

Washington Dalo was shot through the body, and died in a few moments.

Norris, a boy residing at 49 Holland street, was shot in the leg, producing a flesh wound.

Woods, boy, living in Orleans street, was shot through the chest. He is thought to be mortally wounded.

Thomas Murray received a shot in the hip, causing a severe wound.

Police officer Stephens was shot in the groin, receiving a painful but not dangerous wound.

Nicholas Gill, 757 West Baltimore street was shot in the right eyebrow, not seriously.

Samuel Mixkinis, 214 East Lombard street, received a ball under the left collar bone. His wound is considered mortal.—Baltimore American.

Marriage and Divorce in California—Advice to Ladies.

By reference to the law columns of our journal, you will perceive that we are in, on an average, for four divorces every day.—And what is not a little singular is, that the application generally comes from the wearied wench. Perhaps you will get your ears pulled for publishing it, but I must in all fairness say the root of the evil is that women are naturally a little too fond of admiration.—Here, in this city, we have at least seven men to one woman, and in the interior the disproportion is much larger. The consequence is, that, in the case of all scarce commodities, the article commands more than its intrinsic value. "It is a good deal sought after," as the quotation sometimes runs on a popular railroad stock.

The feminine is quickly caged; the husband is in ecstasies for about a fortnight, but not quite so exalted the succeeding two weeks. Her forty other lovers, not easily forsaken, and her unappropriated piece of family to soothe her disappointment, make friendly calls upon the lost Pleiades, and by exceeding sympathy with her at the coolness of her husband, win her regard, and then their attentions are so much more delicate than those of her lord, that the poor weak thing finds she has committed a great error in her choice, especially if the new flame is rich and generous, and the old one rather plain and economical. An application for divorce is the result.

Headings have no other excuse to offer in making the application, than "uncongenial dispositions," and dislike. The process is the simplest imaginable. A lawyer with an easy conscience is engaged—most San Francisco lawyers have easy consciences when they have any—who receives the fee from the new lover. A referee is then hunted up by the lawyer, who agrees to decide according to the lady's wishes for a portion of the fee. The judge of course refers the application as requested. The referee hands his report into court, where it is often passed upon without a word of open testimony—and, nine cases out of ten, favorably. The lady is then ready to be married again—and having lost all delicacy by the process she has gone through, is ready to run away with the next lover without a divorce.

My advice to weak headed ladies in the Atlantic States, is not to come to California to get married—and not to come after they are married; if they are pretty "and interesting" they are much safer anchored in some snug harbor in the Atlantic than in the open roadsteads among the shoals and breakers of the Pacific.

But for the encouragement of those who have determined to come, I will quote from the Bulletin the following advertisement.—If a plain cook, thirty five years of age, has to give bonds not to marry within six months it stands to reason that a tender little chicken of about half that age would stand no chance at all of pining away for lack of a husband up at Rabbit Creek:

Wanted—A single female, from twenty to thirty-five years of age, to go to Rabbit Creek, Sierra county, to do plain cooking and general housework in a genteel family, and agree not to marry within six months. Wages $50 per month. Expenses paid.—None need apply unless well qualified.—Address A. C., at this office, or 117 Merchant street.

N. B.—Your correspondent is a married man, but his wife doesn't live in California.

ARREST OF MAYOR WOOD.—Mayor Wood, of New York, having on Tuesday afternoon taken upon himself the responsibility of illegally discharging several persons who had been arrested for illegal voting, and obstructing passage to the polls, assaulting voters, &c., without proper bail, Recorder Smith issued a warrant late in the afternoon for his arrest. The affair caused considerable excitement in political circles, and the examination into the circumstances is now progressing before the Recorder at his office. The offence charged against the Mayor, if proven, is punishable with imprisonment in the State Prison, and by a fine.

DEATH OF JOHN M. CLAYTON.—The numerous personal and political friends of the Hon. John M. Clayton will learn with deep regret that he is no more. He died at Dover, Delaware, on last Sunday evening.

Mr. Clayton was a native of Delaware, and represented that State for many years, with great ability, in the Senate of the United States. His death leaves a void in the Senate Chamber which it will be difficult to fill. He was an able and experienced statesman, and his death will not only be universally lamented, but cannot be regarded otherwise than a great public loss.

At a meeting of Cove Lodge, No. 293, I. O. of O. F., the following Preamble and Resolutions, were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, it has pleased the All Wise Creator and Governor of the Universe to remove by death from among us our esteemed and beloved Brother, DANIEL BROWN, therefore,

Resolved, That we as members of Cove Lodge deeply sympathize with the bereaved father and friends of the deceased Brother; and that we wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That the Lodge be clothed in mourning for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions be presented to the bereaved family.

Resolved, That these Resolutions be published in the Bedford papers.
