AND STILL GREATER ATTRACTION!

With the JANUARY NUMBER, the commencement of the FOURTH VOLUME, this young progressive American Monthly will be again enlarged, its price changed from two to three dollars a year, and its attractions otherwise increased accordingly. We refer with pride and satisfaction to the success which it has already achieved and the position it how occupies among the leading publications of this country. With the increase of price, and the insmense resources at their command, the publishers confidently believe theat they will furnish a Magazine for 1857 that will form two of the most magnificent volumes, ever issued in any social published on this side of the Atlantic. Among the many brilliant features which it will embrace are:

THE LIFE OF GEORGE WASH-INGTON,

Prepared by a distinguished American writer, and profusely and elegantly illustrated. There will also appear during the year several ORIGINAL ILLUSTRATED POEMS, a feature contained in no other Magazine in the country.
