

excuse for this attempt to get a man drunk and then extort from him a confession of intimacy with a woman, or a boast, in order to have it used as testimony against her reputation.

Nothing can exceed the furious maledictions of all Loco-freedom on the defeat of John W. Forney. The Gazette is in a "fine frenzy," and deals in dark hints in regard to his faithless representative, Smith, of Cambria.

The election of a Senator of the United States, to serve for six years from the 4th of March next, took place on Tuesday last, and the whole country will blush to learn the result.

The next extract we will lay before our readers is from a long article in the Gazette of 25th of June 1850, defending Gen. Cameron from the attacks of the Harrisburg Keystone.

In private life, Gen. CAMERON'S acts are of an irreproachable character. He rose from a poor and friendless printer boy, by his own untiring energy and industry, to one of the most useful and enterprising citizens in the State, and we have no doubt he has done as much to ameliorate and make comfortable the condition of those in distress as any other man of his years.

In this article defending Gen. Cameron from the attacks of the Berks County Press, he says: "In private life, Gen. Cameron's acts are of an irreproachable character."

ena of the Gazette. We could fill our columns with extracts from the Gazette in favor of, and defending Gen. Cameron, but we have copied enough to answer our purpose.

THE ELECTION OF GEN. CAMERON. Nothing can exceed the furious maledictions of all Loco-freedom on the defeat of John W. Forney.

The large majority that he carried at the election of a United States Senator after the majority had decided not to meet.

Gen. Cameron will take his seat in the Senate of the United States on the fourth day of March next, backed up by the majority of the Legislature, and by the solemn seal of the Commonwealth.

The General is every inch a man, and would adorn any station in the gift of the people. Gen. Foster is entitled to the confidence and friendship of the party throughout the State.

This is the same Gen. H. D. Foster that the Gazette, last week, charged with "treachery and double-dealing" and wishes the Democracy of Westmoreland to "proclaim his disgrace."

The Greensburg Republican, the organ of the Loco-freedom party of Westmoreland County says that the Democracy of Westmoreland County will sustain their Representatives in their opposition to Forney.

The Huntingdon Globe, (Republican) contains the announcement of Cameron's election, and accompanies it with three columns, in which to bury the three honest Germans from York and Schuylkill, who voted for Gen. Cameron.

It is very evident that all the aspirants for the Generalship (Cameron) - Bedford Gazette, Jan 26, 1857.

DISTINGUISHED CORRESPONDENCE.

We publish below two letters that have entered considerably into the late contest for Speaker, and to which Mr. Forney, no doubt, owes, in a great measure, his late defeat.

Our friend Forest is now here, and is about to apply for a divorce from his wife. He has had, for eighteen months, the proofs of her infidelity, but has chosen to keep them quiet, and would have done so still but for her folly in consulting him for legal aid.

After they reached home and had been there some time he found, on examining his wife's trunks, a letter from the hand of a young man, in which he stated that he was the most modest and unassuming of mortals.

The large majority that he carried at the election of a United States Senator after the majority had decided not to meet.

Gen. Cameron will take his seat in the Senate of the United States on the fourth day of March next, backed up by the majority of the Legislature, and by the solemn seal of the Commonwealth.

The General is every inch a man, and would adorn any station in the gift of the people. Gen. Foster is entitled to the confidence and friendship of the party throughout the State.

This is the same Gen. H. D. Foster that the Gazette, last week, charged with "treachery and double-dealing" and wishes the Democracy of Westmoreland to "proclaim his disgrace."

It is very evident that all the aspirants for the Generalship (Cameron) - Bedford Gazette, Jan 26, 1857.

FOR THE INQUIRER AND CHRONICLE.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

FOR THE INQUIRER AND CHRONICLE.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

FOR THE INQUIRER AND CHRONICLE.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.

MR. ORR:—The election of SIMON CAMERON considerably elevated the American Republic in the eyes of the world, and the victory was celebrated in quite a splendid manner.