UNITED STATES MAGAZINE

FOR 1857

ANOTHER ENLARGEMENT,
AND STILL GREATER ATTRACTION:

With the JANUARY NUMBER, the commencement of the FOURTH VOLUME. This young progressive American Monthly will be again enlarged, its price changed from two to three dollars a year, and its attractions otherwise increased accordingly. We refer with pride and satisfaction to the success which it has already achieved and the position it now occupies among the leading publications of this country. With the increase of price, and the immense resources at their command, the publishers confidently believe that they will furnish a Magazine for 1857 that will form two of the most magnificent volumes, ever issued in any serial published on this side of the Atiantic—Arrong the many brilliant features which it will embrace are:

THE LIFE OF GEORGE WASH-

THE LIFE OF GEORGE WASH-INGTON,

Prepared by a distinguished American writer, and profusely and elegantly illustrated. There will also appear during the year several ORIGINAL ILLUSTRATED POEMS, a feature contained in no other Magazine in the country. There will be commenced in the January number, to be continued in each aumber until completed,

NEW GOODS!

ST received and far sale at REED'S NEW STORE, a lage and well assorted stock of Fall and Winter Goods. He is now prepared to accommodate his friends and customers, and the public generally. To attempt to enumerate his stock in a news paper advertisement, would be folly, or a list of the prices useless, for the public would not believe that goods were solling as they offer them, unless they call and see for themselves. We don't wish to hoast, but merely remark that for variety texture, and cheapness, his stock cannot be excelled, and it is calculated to please all. culated to please all.
