will probably be completed in six months.

The Weekly Times will also contain a series of letters from Europe and the East, by one of the ablest and most Popular writers in the United States,—embracing Notes of Incident, Adventure and Observation in Europe, Egypt, Arabia and the Holy Land, and forming one of the most interesting series of Foreign Sketches ever published in this Country.

Besides these continuous articles, prepared expressly for the New Series of the Weekly Times, it will contain, every week, a great amount of Original Correspondence, Domestic and Foreign. Miscellaneous literary anecdotes and sketches—notes of scientific discovery—biographical and critical notices—reviews of new and valuable books—choice poetry, original and selected, &c.,

In short, it is the design of its Proprietors to spare neither expense nor labor in making it the most interesting and desirable miscellaneous Family Newspaper in the United States.

In addition to its literary and miscellaneous character the Weekly Times wi give, in a clear and condensed form, all the news of the day. From all quarters of the world, and in a departments of activity, embracing agricultural, commercial and financial intelligence, prepared expressly for its columns, and for the use of those in all parts of the country who wish to be kept informed upon a those topics. The doings of Congress, with a synopsis of a important documents, valuable speeches and the proceedings of the several State Legis of a important documents, valuable speeches and the proceedings of the several State Legis-latures. Foreign news, as given in the Letters latures. Foreign news, as given in the Letters of Special Gorrespondents, and in extracts from the Newspaper Press of England and the Continent—and the miscellaneous news of accidents, crimes, disasters, personal movements, $\frac{c}{c}., $\frac{c}{c}.\], both at home and abroad.

The Weekly Times wi also contain editoria articles discussing a the leading events of the day, in such a manner as shapromise to be most widely useful and instructive. In its political department the Times will be wholly independent of a political parties, speaking upholding and sustaining them in whatever may tend for the advancement of the public good. It wi advocate equal and exact justice to all men—the preservation of the Union up-on the principles of the Constitution, and the improvement of the condition of a classe by education, morality and Religion. It wi wave no war upon any section nor counter by education, morality and Actigion. It will wage no war upon any section nor counten ance, any infringement of the constitutiona rights of any portion of our common country But it will also resist all attempts to subordinate the general good to sectional ambition, ot oundermine those great principles of human iberty which form the basis and foundation of our Republican institutions. It will be moderate but firm in its tone—seeking to convince rather than intimidate, respectful toward those rather than intimidate, respectful toward the rather than intimidate, respectful toward those who differ from it, conservative in its tendency and devoted zealously and steadily to the elevation and advancement of the people.

The Weely Times will be printed upon handsome paper, in clear type and in elegant style, each number containing eight pages or forty-eight columns—presenting every week a larger amount of choice reading and news than can
