The Account of John Sparks, Esq., survivation of the Editor, master deaded and embodied in the Pedaration of Independence, and embodied in we hold if to be a self-evident truth, that allmen are evented equal; that they are endowed by their Greator with certain indicated rights;
that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of impoiness; that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men; and that the primary daty and of ject or our Federal Covernment is to secure these rights to all persons under its exclusive furisdiction. That, as our Republican fathers abolished Slavery in all the national territory, and ordained in the Consumition that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, it becomes our duty to maintain this provision of the Constitution against all attempts to violate it, for the purpose of establishing Slavery in the territories of the United States. That we deny the authority of Congress, of the Supreme Court, of a Territorial Legislature, of any individual or association of individuals, to give legal existence to Slavery in any territory of the United States, while the Constitution shall be maintained.

Resolved, That the Constitution confers upon Congress coveregu power over the Territories

7 00 Resources, That the Constitution confers upon Congress solvereign power over the Territories of the United States, for their government; a power not controverted for the first sixty years of our national existence, but exercised by the Government, through every Administration from Washington to Policy and that in the exercise of the government, through every Administration from Washington to Policy and that in the exercise of this unguesticable power it is ereise of this unquestionable power, it is the duty of Congress to prohibit in the Territories, those twin relics of barbarism, polygamy and Slavery.

Resolved, That whale yet Freezen, and that white we retain the inestinable rights of Free-men, secured to us by the sacrifices, sufferings and blood of our Revolutionary fathers, we will not submit to have a new Constitution imposed upon us by the extra-judicial opinions of Jud-ges of the Supreme Coort - opinions subversive of the rights of human nature - in conflict with the truth of history, with the unbroken action of the government and the law of the land, as heretofore pronounced by the Federal Judicia-re, and the Courts of nearly every State in the American Union.

Resotre2, That the recent opinions of the ma-

Risotrel, That the recent opinions of the majority of the Judges of the Suprane Court, in a case over which they decisied the Court had no jurisdiction, and, therefore, no authority to pronounce the law arising therein, is but another step in consummation of that conspiracy against our free institutions, which had its inception in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise: that it is the direct result of the late triumph of the Slave Pow r in the election of its candidate, James Bromanay, to the Presidency, and unless prampty rebiked by the people at the hallot-box, may be followed by other usurpations fatal to the independence of the Free upon all good citizens to unite for the suppression of this cyti, and we call upon our own Legislature to guard by effective and stringent aws the purity of the ballet box.
