STILL IN A DILEMMA.—We sympathize in a measure with the Sage of Wheatland. Whether he really has many friends to re-surd or enemies to punish we know not, ret, one thing is certain—the number of of-hereschers still dogging his footsteps is a luming. Their name is legion.—They are a numerous, pestiferous, and offensive to beent society as the frogs and lice of L-synt. Indeed if such pother, clatter, brow-teing, caucussing, jatbering, log-rolling ansing, swearing, praying, whining, beg-ing and wranging, emanating from high and wrangling, emanating from high and wrangiing, emanating from high and low, rich men and poor, snable, pie-is, temperance men and rumsuckers, temper crust" as well as the fag ends, e upper crust" as well as the fag ends, for sale by Dr. B.
