Its columns will then beloss exclusively occupied by political news and discassions, and will be much more largely devoted to literature, expect here. general news, and interesting miscellaneous reading. It will be made emphatically and especially a newspaper for the family and the fireside, containing Literary Tales, Original and Selected: Biographical Notices, Saetches of Character, Letters from Abroad, Anecdotes, and generally whatever will be most entertain-ing and most instructive to the great mass of spaper Readers. Among the spicuous attractions of the Weekly Times will be an original novel by a popular Amorican Author, written expressly for its columns, and abounding in interest and merit.

This will be published in successive numbers, commencing about the 15th of November, and expressly for the New Series of the weekly Times, it will contain, every week, a great amount of Original Correspondence, Domestic and Foreign. Miscellaneous literary anecdotes and sketches—notes of scientific discovery—biographical and critical notices—reviews of new and valuable books—choice poetry, original and selected, &c.,

In short, it is the design of its Proprieters to starts neither express for labor in pushing it.

In short, it is the design of its Proprieters to spare neither expense nor labor in making it the most interesting and desirable miscellaneous Family Newspaper in the United States, In addition to its literary and miscellaneous character the Weekly Times wigive, in a clear and condensed form, all the news of the day.
