BEDFORD INQUIRER AND CHRONICLE.

PACKER FOR PROHIBITION, [thorized to sell, upon his giving bond with READ THE PROOFS!

According to the promise made last week, we resume our exposure of GENEAL PACK-ER's views and votes on the Maine Liquor Law which passed the Senate in 1852, as exhibited by the Journal of the Senate for that year. that year.

On the 3d March, 1852, Mr. Carothers, from the Committee on Vice and Immorali-ty, reported Senate Bill, No. 419, eutitled An act to prohibit the manufacture and

"An act to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors." See Senate Journal, Vol. 1. p. 363. March 18th, a motion was made to cou-sider the bill. This was objected to, and the orders of the day called. A motion was then made to suspend the orders to get at the consideration of the bill. On this motion the yeas and nays were called, when the yeas were 20 and the mays 11, so the motion was lost, --two-thirds being necessa-ry to suspend the orders. On this motion PACKER voted yea. See Sen. Jour., Vol. 1, p 480.

March 22d, the bill was taken up for consideration; and on the question whether the first section should pass, the year and nays were called, and the section passed by a vote of 19 years to 14 mays. PACKER be-ing one of the years. See Sen. Jour., Vol.

1, p. 515. The bill was further debated and considered during that day, and the day following, as appears by the same volume of the Journal, at pages 515, 532, 533, &c., and the yeas and mays were frequently called on different sections of the bill, and in every law man: and we will await with pleasure instance the name of WM. F. PACKER is found recorded in favor of the bill, and slong with the names of the other warm friends of that prohibitory Liquor law.

March 31st-1852, the sections having been all agreed to, the bill came up on its final passage; and on the question, "shall "the bill pass? The yeas and nays were "require 1 by Mr. Crubb and Mr. PACKER, "and were as follows: viz:

"YEAS. Messrs. Barnes, Carothers, Car-"son, Evans, Fernon, Guernsey, Hamilton, "Hamlin, Haslett, Hoge, McFarland, Me-Murtrie, Malone, PACKER, Robertson "Sanderson, and Slifer.-17. "Nays. Messrs. Bailey, Buckalew, Crabb.

"Darlington, Frailey, Fulton, Jones, Kin-"zer, Kuukel, McCaslin, Matthias, Muhlen-"burg, Myers, Shimer, and Walker, Speakser-15.

"So the question was determined in the affirmative." See Senate Journal, of 1852 Vol. 1, p. 612.

Such is GENERAL WM. F. PACKER'S record in the Senate of 1852, and such are his votes upon the subject of the prohibitory liquor law which passed the Senate that year, as proved by the Journal of the Senate, which is the only authorized record of proceedings. And yet his partizan friends, and the unprincipled press which supports him for Governor, are mean enough and reckless enongh, to deny that he is or ever was in favor of prohibition, and round-ly abuse all who assert that he voted for prohibitory liquor laws. We say again, we have these Senate Journals in our office, and can show them, day, and date, and page, to any man who wishes to see them, or who desires to know the whole truth on this subject. And we will here remark that not only did Genl. Packer make speeches in the Senate in favor of the bill, and vote as here proved, but according to the well-remembered logic of the Bedford Gazette, he gave the casting vote on the final passage of this monstrous Maine Liquor Law. For on looking at the final vote, it will be observed the bill passed by 17 yeas to 15 nays. Consequently if Genl. Packer had voted may, the bill would have been defeated on its final passage, by a tie vote, and evidently his vote for the bill was what sa-du its nuar passage, by a the vote, and idently his vote for the bill was what sa-d it. But the same recklessness and disregard the twist which has been the same recklessness and disregard ved it.

at least two survives in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned for his faithful observance of the law,&c. Sec. 5. Imposes fines of from thirty to two hundred dollars, & costs, for violations of the automatic with sundry terms of

of the act together with sundry terms of imprisonment of not less than two, nor more than six months.

Such are the first three sections of this beautiful liquor law in full, and the sub-stance of the fourth and fifth; and we doubt not they are more than sufficient to satisfy all that a more ultra, radical, out and out prohibitory law was never passed in the State of Maine or anywhere else. It not only prohibits the sale, under sovere penal-ties, of all sorts of liquors, and by every every quantity great or small, except "for sacramental, medicinal, mechanical, and artistical purposes," but it absolutely prohibits the manufacture of any and all liquors, except for the purposes just mentioned. If this be not prohibition with a vengeance, we know not what would be. A subsequent section gives the right of search and right to sieze and destroy the liquors kept contrary to the act; and in short, the law seems to contain in itself all the ultraism on this subject that were ever heard of, and some others which strike us as entirely new and original, especially that registry which is to be "signed at the end therof" by the man who purchases the liquor, slating for what purpose he gets it. We have now given our readers a true such explanations as his partizan friends may manufacture for this desperate emergency. But for the great length of our article we would finish it off with a few choice extracts from the Bedford Gazette, showing what an infamous and unconstitutional outrage it is, and what a narrow-souled, and diabolical fanaticism it exhibits, for any man to speak or vote for a prohibitory liquor law. We will at our leisure hunt these matters up also, and in the mean time console ourselves with the reflection that for the proper use of a few choice extracts there is doubt 'a good time coming."

deny that the bill which passed the Senate in 1852 was a prohibitory Maine Law. The bill was made up of fiftcen sections, and is therefore too long for publication entire, but in order that all doubts may be removed on this point, and all mouths stopped, we will give our readers some extracts from the bill as specimens. As before stated, it was entitled, "An Act to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors." And to demonstrate that the bill itself corresponded with the title, we publish the first three sections of it, as follows:

SEC. 1. Be it enacled, &c. That no person allowed at any time, to manufacture, or himself, his clerk, servant, or agent, directly or indirectly, any inductant or agent, whether the same be spirituous, vinous, or malt, or a mixture of the same, or any of them, or any other liquor possessing intoxicating properties, except as hereinafter provided.
