RESOLUTION Proposing Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth. Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth, in Convention assembled, That the following amendments be proposed to the constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

FIRST AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional article to said constitution to be designated as article eleven, as follows: ARTICLE XI. OF PUBLIC DEBTS. Section 1. The State may contract debts, to apply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or other moneys not otherwise provided for, but the aggregate amount of such debts, direct or contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or in different periods of time, shall never exceed one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and no money arising from the creation of such debts shall be applied for any purpose other than to obtain, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

Section 2. In addition to the above limited power, the State may, in any act, or acts, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the State; but no money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose of which was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

Section 3. Except the debts above specified, sections one and two of this article, no debt shall be contracted by, or on behalf of the State.

Section 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted under the Legislature, the Legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than five per cent of the sum of the principal of such debt, until the principal of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

Section 5. The credit of the Commonwealth shall not in any manner be pledged, or be a security for, any individual, company, corporation, or association; nor shall the Commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association or corporation.

Section 6. The Commonwealth shall not assume any debt, or any part thereof, of any county, borough, or township, or of any corporation, association, or individual, unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the State to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in war, or to assist the State in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

Section 7. The Legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township, or incorporated district, by virtue of a vote of its citizens, or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association or corporation; or to loan money for, or loan its credit to, any corporation, association, institution, or party.

SECOND AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional article to said constitution, to be designated as article XII, as follows: ARTICLE XII. OF NEW COUNTIES. Section 1. Any county shall be divided by a line cutting one-tenth of its population, either to be a new county, or otherwise, without the consent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof, nor shall any new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.

THIRD AMENDMENT. Section two of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words, "of the county," and insert in their place the words, "of the State."

Section three of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words, "of the county," and insert in their place the words, "of the State."

Section four of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words, "of the county," and insert in their place the words, "of the State."

Section ten of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words, "of the county," and insert in their place the words, "of the State."

Philadelphia and each county respectively, from section one of article strike out the words, "of Philadelphia and of the several counties;" and from section seven, in same article, strike out the words, "in either the city of Philadelphia or any county;" and insert in lieu thereof, the words, "in the State;" and strike out the words, "in either the city of Philadelphia or any county;" and insert in lieu thereof, the following: Section 4. In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and every seventh year thereafter representatives of the people of one hundred shall be apportioned and distributed equally throughout the State, by districts, in proportion to the taxable inhabitants thereof, except that any county containing at least three thousand five hundred taxable, may be allowed a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided into a number of districts. Any city having a sufficient number of taxable, to entitle it to at least two representatives, shall have a separate representation assigned it, and shall be divided into convenient districts of equal taxable population as near as may be, which districts shall elect one representative.

At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be divided into single senatorial districts, of contiguous territory, as nearly equal in taxable population as possible; but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof."

The Legislature, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and representative districts, in the manner above provided; such districts to remain unchanged until the apportionment of the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

FOURTH AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional section to the first article of the said constitution, which shall be numbered and read as follows: The Legislature shall have the power to alter, revoke, or amend any charter of incorporation, heretofore conferred, by, or under any special, or general law, whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the Commonwealth, in such cases, however, that no injustice shall be done to the corporation.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. IT HAS WORKED MIRACLES! THAT ALL THE BALD AND GRAY can be restored perfectly to original color, and color so far as their locks are concerned does not admit of doubt; besides, it will cure every possible disease of the scalp, whether developed as dandruff itching, or in the shape of cutaneous eruptions—even of scald-head—and in no possible case will it fail of curing as if by magic, nervous or periodical head-ache, and if used twice a week by the young regular, it will preserve the color, and keep the hair from falling, to any imaginable age. OR LIVER REMEDY. HAS AN ABSOLUTE CURE OF ALL PURGATIVE MEDICINES, answering the purposes of any Cathartic without the debilitating effects experienced from most purgatives. It acts slowly and gently, but surely, moving the bowels to carry off all the secret matter, at the same time, stimulating the Liver to a proper performance of its function.

The Inquirer cures Sick Headache. Take one or two teaspoonful at each attack and it will soon disappear. For an overloaded stomach, or when food rises or sours, take the Inquirer after eating, and it will not prove disagreeable or oppressive. For constipation, or difficult breathing take a tea-spoonful once or twice daily. For Loss of Appetite, Langour or Listlessness, the medicine is invaluable. It will reduce the appetite and make the food digest well. Nightmares, take a tea-spoonful on retiring, and the demons of dread will all be banished. After eating a hearty dinner, take a dose of Inquirer and it will relieve all oppression of the chest. The Inquirer is a Liver Remedy of unequalled virtue, acting directly on that organ, curing Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Biliary Attacks, Dysuria, Piles, Worms, and all Female Obstructions, for which it has no equal.

We know there is nothing new before the American public, prepared with such skill by a scientific man, particularly for diseases of the Liver, as Dr. Sanford's Inquirer, or Liver Remedy. It has attained a reputation second to no other article in the world, simply because it rests on its own merit. To convince all by trial that it is all its proprietors claim it to be, if any of our readers are suffering from such diseases as are described in Dr. Sanford's advertisement, we know of no remedy that will so surely cure them as the Inquirer.

There has lately been brought to our notice a medicine that seems to possess wonderful curative and healing properties in diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Digestive Organs. It came to us in the shape of a letter, in which the proprietor stated that he had used it for several months, and his hair had been restored to its original color, brown, and the new hair is over three inches in length on the spots where it was bald. He had also been much gratified at the loss of his eye, and it has ceased to come out as formerly.

From Mrs. Ingalls, a well known nurse in Boston. Boston Oct. 19th, 1855. GENTS—At your request, as being so highly pleased with the effects of the Restorative, I have no hesitancy in stating that my hair has become quite thin, and entirely white, I have for the last five years been in the habit of using dye, but hearing of the Restorative, about five months ago, and my hair is entirely changed to its original color, brown, and the new hair is over three inches in length on the spots where it was bald. He had also been much gratified at the loss of his eye, and it has ceased to come out as formerly.

The following is from the Pastor of the Orthodox Church, Brookfield. Brookfield, Mass., Jan. 12, 1852. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effects have been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff, and a constant tendency to falling, with which I have been troubled from my childhood, and has also restored the hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article, with anything like the same pleasure or profit. Yours respectfully, J. K. BRAGG.

What is it for?—This Wood's Hair Restorative is a most valuable and efficacious medicine. We answer without hesitation or fear of contradiction, that it is the only article known which will do all it promises for the human hair. It will restore and keep the hair falling, and will restore a natural color! It is not a hair dye, but a speedy and efficacious Restorative.
