"Fearless and Free."

DAVID OVER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

"The Union of lakes—the Union of lands, The Union of hearts, and the Union of hands, And the flag of our Union forever!"

UNION STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR: DAVID WILMOT, of Bradford County. CANAL COMMISSIONER: WILLIAM MILLWARD, of Philadelphia. SUPREME BENCH: JAMES VEECH, of Fayette County. JOSEPH J. LEWIS, of Chester County.

Assembly, SAM'L J. CANTNER, Middle Woodberry, HENRY C. STEWART, Somerset County. Prethoratory &c., JOHN ALSIP, Bedford Borough. Sheriff, JAS. S. BECKWITH, Colerain. Treasurer, GEORGE R. OSTER, Bedford Borough. Commissioner, DAVID SPARKS, West Providence. Poor Director, THOMAS MILLER, Bedford Township. Auditor, GEO. W. STUCKEY, Napier.

A DUN.—We would like some of our delinquent subscribers to call and settle at once. We have not been getting money enough for the last three months to pay for our paper alone. This is intended for you, reader, if you owe us a dollar for subscription, advertising, or job work.

THAT CHALLENGE!

For some time past the opposition newspapers have been boasting that DAVID WILMOT has challenged Gen. PACKER to meet him in debate, and that he declines to accept. This is simply a gross falsehood, manufactured out of the whole cloth. No such challenge has ever been given. If it had, how easy would it be for them to give Wilmot's letter, signed by his own name? Gen. Packer is abundantly qualified to meet any man in Pennsylvania or elsewhere either upon the stump or in the Halls of Legislation, and the principles which govern and control his political acts are such as court the light of day. Discussion is what we want.—Gazette of last week.

It is, is it! Well, what do you think of the letters below on that subject? "No such challenge has ever been given"—pre-emptory, slightly, aint it! "Gen. Packer is abundantly qualified to meet any man in Pennsylvania or elsewhere either upon the stump or in the Halls of Legislation, and the principles which govern and control his political acts are such as court the light of day." Why does he not like a man, if he is so "abundantly qualified," meet Judge Wilmot, on the stump, to discuss the principles involved in the present contest. If "his political acts are such as court the light of day," why does he, like the cowardly craven, back-out, after the boast of his friends, to meet Judge Wilmot on the stump, and let those "political acts" be discussed before the people of both parties.—The fact is, Packer has grown rich off politics, he was Canal Commissioner once, and during his term the State was run in debt millions of dollars, and he dares not, like an honest man, meet these things, fairly and squarely, and he also knows that as a debater, he is a mere pigny in comparison with David Wilmot, that he would be worsted in every contest, and he absolutely backs right out! What do you think, Locofocos of your pusillanimous candidate now, and what do you think, General, of the following letters, in connection with your boastful article of last week!

Packer Declines to Meet Wilmot on the Stump.

Interesting Correspondence.

Letter from Hon. David Wilmot to General William F. Packer.

TOWANDA, July 14, 1857.

Hon. Wm. F. Packer—Dear Sir: I propose to spend some time, during the summer and fall, in canvassing before the people of the State the principles and issues involved in the pending State election. Party meetings bring out only that portion of the people to whom the call is made, and the addresses are necessarily all on one side, whereas it is desirable that the whole people, so far as may be, should have both sides fairly presented before them at the same time.

If it should meet your views, I propose that we canvass so much of the State as is practicable, in company, addressing alternately the same meetings. Should this meet your assent, please inform me at your earliest convenience, so that we may arrange the times and places of meetings, order of speaking, &c.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant, D. WILMOT.

Gen. Packer to Judge Wilmot. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 27, 1857. Hon. D. WILMOT.

Dear Sir:—Your letter of the 14th inst. was duly received, and as it proposed a plan for conducting the gubernatorial campaign which had never hitherto been adopted in Pennsylvania, and as the interests of other candidates were involved in the result, I did not feel myself at liberty to accede to your proposition without first consulting the State Committee to which the Democratic Convention has on its part specially confided the control and management of the canvass.

You will receive herewith a copy of my report to the Committee, as also their reply, by which you will perceive that your suggestion does not meet their approval, and that, for reasons stated at length, I ought not to accede to your proposition. It is, therefore, respectfully declined.

I am, yours, truly, WM. F. PACKER.

A FAILURE.—Bowman states that our meeting of Saturday night week, was a failure. We presume, however, that he will not state to his readers that the Locofocos had a meeting called for several weeks, to take place at the Court House, on Saturday evening last. Bowman went to the Springs and procured the services of a Mr. Roberts of Pittsburg, the same person who helped to stump this County last summer, to address the great "Democratic" meeting, that was to be! Evening came on, Mr. Roberts could not procure a hack at the Springs to come to town, but nothing daunted, and true to his appointment, he started on foot, and arrived at the Court House, after the bell had been rung several times. A great effort had been made to get up a very large meeting, a report was circulated that one of the best stumpers in the Union was to speak, and that Mr. Buchanan, who was at the Springs, was to grace the assemblage with his presence, but it all would not do. Mr. Roberts was told, very politely of course, by the President of the Club, that he was extremely mortified that they could not get up a meeting, that there were only six in the house, and that they would have to adjourn and have the pleasure of hearing him at a more convenient season! Mr. Roberts also stated that he was sorry, on account of the trouble he had in getting there, that the people among the mountains of Pennsylvania did not appreciate his extraordinary oratorical powers, and also on account of the not very flattering prospects of the party in Bedford County! He then jumped into a hack that was passing by and was off to the Springs. The six, and this is actually the correct number present, left, without speaking or organizing, to meet again some time during the summer or fall!

BEFORD CLASSICAL SCHOOL AND FEMALE SEMINARY.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of this Institution, in to-day's paper. The School is under the charge of the Rev. G. W. Anglinbaugh, a gentleman every way qualified for the discharge of the responsible duties of a first-class teacher. Bedford needs an Institution of this kind, and it should be well patronized. The School opens on Monday the 31st of Aug. inst.

BEFORD SPRINGS.—The Springs are still crowded with visitors. Mr. Buchanan is still there, accompanied by his niece, Miss Lane. E. L. Forrest, the great American tragedian, was at the Springs, a few days ago. The season bids fair to be a lengthy one.

TOWN CLOCK.—The Town Clock is now up in the Court House Cupola. It was put up by Messrs. Daniel and John Border, both excellent mechanics, and keeps good time. It strikes on the bell of the Court House, and can be heard a considerable distance from town. The clock has cost putting up and all, between five and six hundred dollars. The Commissioners of the County subscribed $250, and the citizens the balance.

IN TOWN.—Gen. Wm. H. Koontz and Cyrus Myers, Esq., of Somerset.

Owing to the absence of one of our hands, our paper has been unavoidably delayed this week.

MEXICAN LETTERS OF MARQUE.—Should Spain be silly enough to wage war upon Mexico, Mexico will retaliate by an attempt on Cuba, for which purpose, it is said, Commodore will employ the filibusters who are so desirous of setting their foot on that fertile Island. It is stated that he has already sent to some of our ports a number of quizes of blank letters of marque commissions, which the Mexican Consuls will be ready to fill up and deliver to applicants upon certain favorable terms, the amount that war shall be declared by either party. This will, no doubt, be the result, and as there are so many ways of evading the neutrality laws, even with the strictest vigilance of the Government, the scheme would probably be entirely successful.—We have no idea, however, that Spain intend to set so foolishly and endanger her possessions. Her movements, so far, military and naval, are of no consequence, and evince no very warlike disposition.

A correspondent of the Journal of Commerce says that ere long the present executive mansion will cease to be the President's residence, and will be appropriated entirely to offices connected with the presidency.—The grounds of the mansion are to be occupied by executive buildings, one of which is now in process of erection.

KANSAS AND MINNESOTA.

It is a significant fact, that while the President's appointee is endeavoring to thwart the clearly expressed will of the people of Minnesota Territory, that Gov. WALKER is defying the public sentiment of the people over which he is set as a ruler, in Kansas.

In Minnesota the people, by a decided majority, elected a Republican Convention to frame a Constitution. The Democratic Secretary heads the minority members, calls them to order in an upper chamber, and insists upon their being recognized as the Convention which the people elected.

So in Kansas. A very large majority refused to take part in the election of delegates to the Constitutional Convention in that Territory, because the government there was begotten by fraud and carried on in corruption, ending in disfranchisement. The Governor knowing these things calls U. S. troops into the field to subjugate that majority.

In both instances, it is a bold attempt to crush out the majority principle and in its place set up the one man power, as if in mockery of the right of the people to govern themselves.

Santa Anna is handled without gloves by the Republican press of Mexico, for his late manifesto, in which he says that constitutional government is a poison which always endangers the life of nations. It is only such lawless despots as Santa Anna who ever doubt the efficacy of any law higher than their will. The Mexican press, however, show that the public sentiment clearly appreciates the necessity of a fundamental code of laws, binding the governor as well as the governed; and it is not likely that anything the expelled Dictator can say will induce them to overlook its advantages.

A BRAVE GIRL.—An exchange paper tells us that a young lady in Lian, Massachusetts, the other night, hearing a man under her bed after she had retired, drove him forth and assailed him with a heavy cut glass lamp, dealing him several severe blows with it in the face, and as he gained the stairway and made tracks for the door, helping him in his onward course by hurling it after him, taking him fair and square on the head. He must have felt light-headed after this treatment.

Walker, the filibuster, notifies his friends to be ready for another visit to Nicaragua. If Walker were to take his former friends with him he would empty some of the hospitals of the country. The stories about his dissensions among the Nicaraguans and between them and their allies are believed to be unfounded reports, started by the filibuster chiefs. By recent accounts, both parties in Nicaragua had agreed to support Martinez for President. Walker's prospects in Nicaragua are like his late victories, flattering only at a very great distance.

Just two weeks before the death of Gov. Marcy, he was in the Rochester Union office, and visited the press room of the establishment. This was the first time, he said, that he had ever seen a printing press at work! The Union observes: "When we consider that he had, from his youth up, been accustomed to write for the political press, and had always been more or less associated with the printing office, this circumstance seems very singular."

UNION AND VICTORY.—Who of the opposition to the Bogus Democracy does not want to see that party—Irish Brigade and all—beaten "horse, foot and dragon" at the approaching election in this State? And who doesn't know that it can be beaten only by a union of the opposition? Then why should any one of us decline to join in a union movement—especially when the union candidates come out manfully for our principles!—Harrisburg Telegraph.

We cannot refrain from calling the attention of our readers to an advertisement in this day's paper of the "Hair Restorative" of Prof. O. J. Wood & Co., of St. Louis. It will be seen that he has numerous certificates from persons of the highest character, to the merits of his Restorative. From positive knowledge we are also enabled to say, that it is in every sense what it professes to be, and we do not hesitate to pronounce it the finest preparation for the head and hair which has so far been devised by human ingenuity. We have seen it arrest threatened baldness, and restore to the head its original profusion of natural and glossy hair, and when the latter has been prematurely tinged with gray, we have seen it, like magic, restore the colors of youth and health. The distinguished property of this, we might truly say, miraculous "Restorative," is that it gives to the persons who use it, the same head of hair that they wore in youth, thus acting in strict compliance with the rules of the first and greatest of all toilet makers—Nature. No one who has used it will hesitate to unite with us in this testimony to its peculiar merit.—[Covington (La.) People's Friend.—For sale by Dr. Harry. July 31.—b.

There is nothing in the whole list of medicine creating such a stir among invalids as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator or Liver Remedy. It gives such quick relief as to convince the patient of receiving benefit almost as soon as the medicine is taken. We do not know of a single instance where it has been taken without benefit, and in nearly all cases a complete cure is effected by its use. It has acquired its wide popularity simply because it does what it is recommended to do. It is constantly enlarging its circle of friends, carrying healing on its wings, and joy to the hearts of those suffering from Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia or general debility.—For sale by Dr. Harry. July 31.—b.

From the Wilkesbarre Record. POLITICS.

It is curious to observe how extensive if not how complete, is the influence of the Canal Commissioners' faction. Powerful, if not supreme. Note, General Packer, an X-Canal Commissioner, nominated for Governor, Gen. Forsyth an X-Commissioner, an officer in the Philadelphia Custom House, with handsome salary and perquisites. We wonder if General Baker, Collector, had ever anything to do with the Public Works.

Another curious thing, is that Col. Mott, Canal Commissioner, was selected by the President, in preference to any other gentleman to convey his wishes to the Legislature, as to the person whom he should wish to be chosen U. S. Senator, thereby, as Col. Mott, who, (though a very handsome and urbane gentleman) is not supposed personally superior to many others, showing the great weight he was presumed to have from his official position as President of the Canal Board!

From the Hollidaysburg Register. OBITUARY.

DIED.—At the Exchange Hotel in Hollidaysburg, on the 31st day of July A. D. 1857, Mrs. PUBLIC PLUNDER, the mother of the "Democratic" party, in full life and vigor, at an advanced age, in the presence of her three loving sons, the Canal Commissioners, and a large and extensive number of near relatives and dear friends. Her illness increased on the birth of her son Henry C. Mott, nearly three years ago. Since then she has been tottering over her grave in the last stage of her disease, which was in the heart. The large dose of "the people" administered by the Legislature last winter was likely to prove fatal. Her son Henry grew up, all of a sudden, to be a great big fat boy, rather likely than otherwise. To him belongs the credit of a change in the Physician from the people to the Supreme Bench. But unfortunately the medicine of the latter only hastened her to the grave. Poor Henry, after being kicked out of Court, was well nigh being prostrated with the same disease, but he survived to witness his mother shed her last tear and breath. He is a worthy son of his mother. It is a painful duty to record the departure of one who leaves behind so many weeping relatives and friends. It may be truly said of the deceased that her loss will be severely felt by many throughout the entire community. Her blood runs in the veins of at least fifty thousand persons, besides a large number of relatives not of the blood. Her funeral was honored with the presence of more blood relations than that of any other person's whose loss has been mourned in our community. Her Great Grand Father was present. One hundred uncles with at least one thousand other relatives witnessed the solemn ceremony. They could boast of being the founders of the old Portage road as well as of the new, and of being otherwise extensively distinguished citizens.

It may be truly said of the deceased, that in the midst of her usefulness, she was in death. Three years ago she bid fair for a long life, full of vigor and health. Able to do anything her heart might desire. She need not lay her hand upon the head of the blind to restore their sight. She need not declare her will and Franklin Pierce and James Buchanan would be carried to Presidential Honors. In early life she would not let the right hand know what the left was doing. The last act of her life fully exemplifies this principle;—it was on the night of the 30th, the night before her death in its darkness and stillness, when no human eye could see, that she, of her own free any one, volunteered to convey from her Depot in Gaystreet, to the Foundry in the same place, a large lot of new Bars of iron. What a magnificent act! There, early in the Morning of the 31st, on the scales were to be seen the fruits of her noble generosity. Although her hours, like those of McKim, were numbered, she was not the one to be seen blazing forth her own glory.

Mine is not the pen to do the deceased full justice. I hope some one of the relatives will furnish the statistics necessary to arrive at something like such a result. For the present we will append the programme and funeral obsequies!

It was past one o'clock before the ceremonies closed; and soon after, the procession began to move. We enjoyed a favorable post for observation, having a fair view of the procession; and the impression was that of a solemnity every way worthy of the occasion.

The Hearse which bore the mortal remains was drawn by two beautiful black horses, splendidly caparisoned. The coffin occupied a conspicuous position, and was fully exposed to view.

PALL BEARERS. Wm. F. Packer, John Crosswell, Charles R. Buckalew, Gen. Calhoun, Henry D. Foster, Hon. A. Wilson, A. M. White & Co., Jonathan D. Leet, Geo. W. Bowman, John W. Forney, Hon. Wm. Wilkins, Walter Graham, CHIEF MOURNERS.

1. Hon. Arnold Plummer, Henry C. Mott, Thomas Scott, Canal Commissioners. 2. Henry S. McGraw, State Treasurer. 3. Superintendents, Supervisors, Mad Bosses, and Look Keepers, too numerous to mention.

4. The procession extended nearly two miles; it slowly wound its way over the Plank road to the office of Mr. Lombard in Altoona, to whom the remains were delivered on behalf of the Pennsylvania railroad company.

All the way along that distance, from the starting point to the place of interment, were stationed private carriages, horsemen, groups of citizens, families of children, and a mixed collection of expectant people, wood contractors and others, awaiting the coming of the mourners. DEPOS.

REWARDING TRAITORS!—John K. Calhoun, of Armstrong, and G. Nelson Smith, of Cambria, members of the last House of Representatives who bolted the Forney nomination and supported Foster for the Senate, have been nominated by the Locofocos for their respective counties for re-election. The Locofoco people seem to sympathize with these "traitors."

The Buckeye Blacksmith, so renowned in the Harrison campaign, commences this week to stump the State in the interior in favor of Wilmot.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE TEACHER'S ASSOCIATION.—The semi-annual session of this body will be held at Chambersburg on the 11th of August. Its proceedings are promised to be of unusual interest.

REWARD.

Lost on the evening of the 5th inst., in Bedford, a Crotchet Bag, interspersed with steel beads, with green strings, containing a post-poned with a five dollar bill, and some small silver change.

The above reward will be paid on leaving the property at this office or at the office at the Springs. Bedford, Aug. 7, 1857.—11.

MISS MARY HELEN SMITH, Assistant.

THE duties of this Institution will be resumed on Monday, Aug. 31st. Owing to the limited accommodations of the Seminary Building, the number of pupils will be limited. It is important, therefore, that applications for admission be made at an early day. Those who enter before the expiration of half the quarter, will be charged for the whole quarter; those who enter after the expiration of half the quarter, will be charged for half the quarter. No deduction made for absence except in cases of protracted illness.

In this school students are prepared for the higher classes of any college, or to enter at once upon the active duties of life.—Willst special care is taken to form in our pupils habits of order, strict punctuality and thoroughness, their Physical, Moral and Social Education is not neglected.

The government of the school is designed to be parental. It is the aim of the Principal and his associates to excite in their pupils a love of right doing; and to awaken within them some proper consciousness of the dignity of humanity. Parents may rest assured that no gross delinquency on the part of their children will be reported to them immediately, should circumstances require it, or the discipline of the school fail to accomplish the desired reformation.
