Philadelphia and each county respectively, from section five same article, strike out the words, "of Philadelphia and of the several counties;" and from section seven, in same article, strike out the words, "the city of Philadelphia or any ray;" and insert in lieu thereof, the words, "and strike out section four, same article and in lieu thereof, insert the following: Sec. 4 In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and every seventh year thereafter representatives to the number of one hundred shall be apportioned and distributed equally throughout the State, by districts, in proportion to the taxable inhabitants thereof, except that any county containing at least three thousand five hundred taxable males, may be allowed a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided in the formation of a district. Any city having a sufficient number of taxable males to entitle it to at least two representatives, shall have a separate representation assigned it, and shall be divided into convenient districts of contiguous territory, of equal taxable population as near as may be, each of which districts shall elect one representative."

At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be divided into single senatorial districts of contiguous territory, as nearly equal in taxable population as possible; but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof."

The Legislature, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and representative districts, in the manner above provided; such districts to remain unchanged until the apportionment in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

FOURTH AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional section to the first article of the said constitution, which shall be numbered and read as follows: "Sec. 25. The Legislature shall have the power to alter, revoke, or amend any charter of incorporation, hereafter conferred, by, or under any special or general law, whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the Commonwealth, in such manner as they shall think proper, but no injustice shall be done to the incorporator."

IN SENATE, March 27, 1857. Resolved, That the resolution passed, on the first amendment, yeas 23, nays 7; on the second amendment, yeas 23, nays 8; on the third amendment, yeas 24, nays 4; on the fourth amendment, yeas 25, nays 3. [Extract from the Journal.] GEO. W. HAMERSLY, Clerk.
