

PACKER FOR PROHIBITION. READ THE PROOFS!

According to the promise made last week we resume our exposure of GENERAL PACKER's views and votes on the Maine liquor law which passed the Senate in 1852, as exhibited by the Journal of the Senate for that year.

On the 3d March, 1852, Mr. Carothers, from the Committee on Vice and Immorality, reported Senate Bill, No. 419, entitled "An Act to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors." See Senate Journal, Vol. 1, p. 363.

March 18th, a motion was made to consider the bill. This was objected to, and the orders of the day called. A motion was then made to suspend the orders to get at the consideration of the bill. On this motion the yeas and nays were called, when the yeas were 20 and the nays 11, so the motion was lost, two-thirds being necessary to suspend the orders. On this motion PACKER voted yea. See Sen. Jour., Vol. 1, p. 480.

March 22d, the bill was taken up for consideration; and on the question whether the first section should pass, the yeas and nays were called, and the section passed by a vote of 19 yeas to 14 nays. PACKER being one of the yeas. See Sen. Jour., Vol. 1, p. 515.

The bill was further debated and considered during that day, and the day following, as appears by the same volume of the Journal, at pages 515, 522, 533, &c., and the yeas and nays were frequently called on different sections of the bill, and in every instance the name of WM. F. PACKER is found recorded in favor of the bill, and along with the names of the other warm friends of that prohibitory liquor law.

March 31st—1852, the sections having been all agreed to, the bill came up on its final passage; and on the question, "shall the bill pass?" the yeas and nays were required by Mr. Crabb and Mr. PACKER, and were as follows: viz:

"YEAS. Messrs. Barnes, Carothers, Cathelet, Evans, Fernon, Guernsey, Hamilton, Hiram, Hasielt, Hoge, McFarland, McMartrie, Malone, PACKER, Robertson, Sanderson, and Sifer.—17.

"NAYS. Messrs. Bailey, Buckalew, Crabb, Darlington, Frailey, Fulton, Jones, Kintzer, Kunkel, McCaslin, Matthias, Millerburg, Myers, Shimer, and Walker, Speakers.—15.

"So the question was determined in the affirmative." See Senate Journal, of 1852, Vol. 1, p. 612.

Such is GENERAL WM. F. PACKER's record in the Senate of 1852, and such are his votes upon the subject of the prohibitory liquor law which passed the Senate that year, as proved by the Journal of the Senate, which is the only authorized record of proceedings. And yet his partisan friends, and the unprincipled press which supports him for Governor, are mean enough and reckless enough, to deny that he is or ever was in favor of prohibition, and roundly abuse all who assert that he voted for prohibitory liquor laws. We say again, we have these Senate Journals in our office, and can show them, day, and date, and page, to any man who wishes to see them, or who desires to know the whole truth on this subject. And we will here remark that not only did Genl. Packer make speeches in the Senate in favor of the bill, and vote as here proved, but according to the well-remembered file of the Bedford Gazette, he gave the casting vote on the final passage of this monstrous Maine Liquor Law.

For an looking at the final vote, it will be observed the bill passed by 17 yeas to 15 nays. Consequently if Genl. Packer had voted nay, the bill would have been defeated on its final passage, by a tie vote, and evidently his vote for the bill was what saved it.

But the same recklessness and disregard of the truth which has heretofore denied that Packer was a prohibitionist, may also deny that the bill which passed the Senate in 1852 was a prohibitory Maine Law. The bill was made up of fifteen sections, and is therefore too long for publication entire, but in order that all doubts may be removed on this point, and all months stopped, we will give our readers some extracts from the bill as specimens. As before stated, it was entitled, "An Act to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors." And to demonstrate that the bill itself corresponded with the title, we publish the first three sections of it, as follows:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, &c. That no person shall be allowed at any time, to manufacture, or sell, by himself, his clerk, or agent, or to cause to be manufactured, or sold, or to cause to be sold, any intoxicating liquor, whether the same be spirituous, vinous, or malt, or a mixture of the same, or any of them, or any other liquor possessing intoxicating properties, except as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. The judges of the court of Quarter Sessions, and the County Commissioners, on the first Monday of July, annually, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, may appoint suitable persons of well-known, honest, temperate, and sober habits, to buy, or manufacture and sell at some convenient point in such of the Townships, boroughs, and cities, within the county, as they may deem expedient, and proper, wines and other liquors, for sacramental, medicinal, mechanical and artistic purposes, and for no other purpose whatsoever.—Such persons shall be appointed for the term of one year, but may be re-appointed at any time at the pleasure of said judges and commissioners for violating this act.

Sec. 3. That each person appointed to sell liquors as aforesaid, shall keep an accurate account in writing of all the liquor bought or manufactured by him, specifying the quantity of each kind purchased or manufactured, the price of that purchased, and the name of the person from whom it was purchased, and the date of the purchase, the quantity of each kind sold, and the date of the sale, its price, the name, residence, and occupation of the person to whom it was sold, and the purpose for which it was purchased by him; and he shall cause the person to whom the sale is made, to sign the said specification at the end thereof; he shall send annually, if required, on a day to be fixed and compensation for transacting the same, they shall fix the amount to be retained by him for such compensation, and shall require him to pay the surplus to the Treasurer of the county for the use of the Commonwealth.

Sec. 4. Provides for the giving of a certificate of appointment to the person authorized to sell, upon his giving bond with at least two sureties in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned for his faithful observance of the law, &c.

Sec. 5. Imposes fines of from thirty to two hundred dollars, & costs, for violations of the act together with sundry terms of imprisonment of not less than two, nor more than six months.

Such are the first three sections of this beautiful liquor law in full, and the substance of the fourth and fifth; and we doubt not they are more than sufficient to satisfy all that a more ultra, radical, and out and out prohibitory law was never passed in the State of Maine or anywhere else. It not only prohibits the sale, under severe penalties, of all sorts of liquors, and by every quantity great or small, except "for sacramental, medicinal, mechanical, and artistic purposes," but it absolutely prohibits the manufacture of any and all liquors, except for the purposes just mentioned.

We have now given our readers a true and full explanation of Genl. Packer's views, votes, and position as a prohibitory liquor law man; and we will await with pleasure such explanations as his partisan friends may manufacture for this desperate emergency.

But for the great length of our article we would finish it off with a few choice extracts from the Bedford Gazette, showing what an infamous and unconstitutional outrage it is, and what a narrow-souled, and diabolical fanaticism it exhibits, for any man to speak or vote for a prohibitory liquor law. We will at our leisure hunt these matters up also, and in the mean time console ourselves with the reflection that for the proper use of a few choice extracts there is no doubt "a good time coming."

FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale two valuable farms, both in Union township, Bedford county, Pa., the one lying on the road leading from Bedford to Hollidaysburg, adjoining John Ake, Esq., George Beagle, and others, containing 145 acres of fertile limestone land, about 120 acres cleared—also about 25 acres of timber land adjoining the farm. The improvements are a good dwelling house and a large new bank barn; also a good spring house over a never failing limestone spring. There are also all other out buildings that are necessary, and a large orchard of choice fruit.

The other farm contains about 260 acres, more or less, lying on the waters of Scrubgrass, adjoining Frederick Oster, Grisman's heirs, and others. Over 100 acres are cleared and under fence. The improvements are a good farm house and barn, and other out buildings, with a well at the door and pump in it; three good houses and sawmill, and a fruit orchard thereon. The last tract above named is a good stock farm, as the most of it is bottom land.

If these farms are not sold at private sale, they will be offered at public sale, on Saturday, the 3d day of October next, on the premises. G. F. KIDDLE. June 26, 1857.—ts.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made to the Governor of Pennsylvania for the pardon of Daniel Gordon, convicted at the May Sessions of Bedford County, 1857, of Assault & Battery.
