This Institution is located in the borough of Kamsburg, Bedford county, Pa., noted for its healthfulness, and beauty of surrounding scenery. It is 10 miles from Bedford, and 8 from the celebrated Bedford Springs.

The building is large and commodious, capable of accommodating 200 students. It is the purpose of all concerned to spare no pains in making this institution the efficient instrument of securing to all in attendance a thorough education, and also to throw around them the benign influence of moral and religious instruction.

TERMS AND VACATIONS. The academic year consists of two sessions of 22 weeks; each session is divided into two terms of 11 weeks, but without an intervening vacation. The Summer session will commence on the 4th day of August next. The Winter session will commence on the second Thursday of January 1857. Winter vacation, 2 weeks.

EXPENSES PER TERM OF 11 WEEKS. Common English, $3 00. To which will be added for each additional higher branch, 1 50.

Greek and Latin, each, 1 50. German, French and Spanish, each, 2 00. Incidentals, 2 00.

ORNAMENTAL. Drawing, $2 00. Colored crayon and water colors, each, 3 00. Painting in Oil, 6 00.

Paint and Wax flowers, each, 3 00. Peliss work, 1 00. Embroidery, 1 50.

Vocal music, 2 lessons per week, 1 00. Music, with use of Piano, 10 00.

The price of board will be $1 50 per week; and 25 cents will be charged for fuel and rooms furnished.

GENERAL EXERCISES. Weekly exercises in composition and declamation by the gentlemen, and composition and declamation by the ladies, will be required throughout the entire course.

During the term commencing in August, there will be a class organized for the special benefit of those designing to engage in teaching Common Schools.

The last days of each session will be devoted to examinations; and at the close of the year, there will be an annual examination and exhibition.

A Lyceum is a literary society sustained by the young gentlemen of the "Lodge" Association; it is a similar one sustained by the young ladies.

It is highly important that all who desire to attend the school should be present at the commencement of the terms, as all regular classes are then formed. Students will be received, however, at any time, and admitted to such classes as they may be found qualified to enter.

But all will be charged tuition from the commencement to the close of the term, except those who enter for only half a term; and no admission will be made for absence, except in case of sickness. No one will be admitted a student who does not sustain a good moral character.

RESOLUTION Proposing Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met: That the following amendments be proposed to the constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

FIRST AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional article to said constitution to be designated as article eleven, as follows:

ARTICLE XI. OF PUBLIC DEBTS. SECTION 1. The State may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for, but the aggregate amount of such debts direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, or at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which they were contracted, and to no other purpose.

SECTION 2. Except the debts above specified in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by, or on behalf of the State.

SECTION 3. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any additional debt contracted as aforesaid, the Legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fund, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from the time to time ordered by the State, or proceeds of the sale of the same, or any part thereof, and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the State, together with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sinking fund may be increased, from time to time, by assigning to it any part of the taxes, or other revenues of the State, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and unless in case of war, invasion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking fund shall be used or applied otherwise than in extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

SECTION 4. The credit of the Commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corporation or association; nor shall the Commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association or corporation.

SECTION 5. The Commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township, or of any corporation or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the State to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the State in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness.

SECTION 6. The Legislature shall not authorize any county, city, borough, township, or incorporated district, by virtue of a vote of its citizens or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any company, association or corporation; or to obtain money, for, or loan its credit to, any corporation, association, institution or party.

constitution, to be designated as article XII, as follows:

ARTICLE XII. OF NEW COUNTIES. No county shall be divided by a line cutting off over one-tenth of its population, (either to form a new county, or otherwise,) without the express assent of such county, by a vote of the electors thereof, nor shall any new county be established, containing less than four hundred square miles.

THIRD AMENDMENT. From section two of the first article of the constitution, strike out the words, "of the city of Philadelphia and each county respectively," from section five article, strike out the words, "Philadelphia and of the several counties;" and from section seven, in same article, strike out the words, "either the city of Philadelphia nor any;" and insert in lieu thereof, the words, "and not;" and strike out section four, same article, and in lieu thereof, insert the following:

SEC. 4. In the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and every seventh year thereafter, shall be apportioned and distributed equally throughout the State, by districts, in proportion to the taxable inhabitants thereof, except that any county containing at least three townships, or having a population of more than a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided in the formation of a district. Any city having a sufficient number of taxable inhabitants to entitle it to separate representation, shall be a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided in the formation of a district.

Any city having a sufficient number of taxable inhabitants to entitle it to separate representation, shall be a separate representation; but no more than three counties shall be joined, and no county shall be divided in the formation of a district.

At the end of section seven, same article, insert these words, "the city of Philadelphia shall be divided into single senatorial districts, of contiguous territory, nearly equal in population as possible; but no ward shall be divided in the formation thereof."

The Legislature, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, shall divide the city of Philadelphia into senatorial and representative districts, in the manner above provided; such districts to remain unchanged until the apportionment in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

FOURTH AMENDMENT. There shall be an additional section to the first article of the said constitution, which shall be numbered and read as follows:

"SEC. 26. The Legislature shall have the power to alter, to amend, or to change its charter of incorporation, hereafter conferred, by, or under, any special, or general law, whenever in their opinion it may be injurious to the citizens of the Commonwealth; in such manner, how, or to what injustice shall be done to the corporation."
