Wm. P. Schell, Esq., is the candidate for the Senate from this District. Schell is a clever fellow, but pevertheless, we will have to beat him not less than 1500 votes. Burnt brandy will not save him. Cessna would have been the candidate had we had a split on this question as he had fondly hoped, but as he was licked so beautifully six years ago for the same office, when we had a split in curranks, he thought he would just now force the defeat on Schell, and wait for a "more convenient season."

Gen. James Burns of Bedford County. and David Hay of Somerset County, are the Locofoco candidates for the Legislature from this District. We hope they will have a good time of it. Hay is a renegade Know Nothing and Whig; but that will not uniure him any with the Locofocos in this County, as they are now led on by renegade Know Nothings and Whigs, in this Bor- and ballot box stuffing as they did in Califor- uttered it an unscrupulous liar. Our error does not seem to have been one of much substance. On the contrary when the whole truth is given, matters look worse even than we represented them. One of the Resolutions of the State Council was as follows:

"Resolved: That this State Council deen it inexpedient to make a distinctive nomination, and it will not issue a call for a separate American Convention."

In the other Resolutions it endorsed both the Platform and candidates of the Union Convention, and recommended them to the adoption and support of the members of the American party. These illustrious "sixteen," disapproving of all this, seceded and Gen. WM. H. KOONTZ, of Sorrerset Co. in repudiation and defiance of the action of the majority of the Council issued a call of their own for a convention to meet at Laneaster, not to nominate a ticket but "to deter. mine what course to pursue in the campaign." When this Convention met, although only cight counties out of the whole sixty-four were represented, they proceded to nominate Mr. HAZELHURST, and his associates on the ticket; and this is the ticket now supported by the Daily News, and by the York Eagle, and by a paper at Norristown, called, we believe the National Defender, and so far as we can learn, by no other paper in the whole State. And we see by the Philadelphia Sun, that three fourths of those who signed the call are now out and out for
