tution to be designated as article eleven,

ARTICLE XI. OF PUBLIC DEBTS.

Section 1. The State may contract debts, to supply casual deficits or failures in revenues, or to meet expenses not otherwise provided for; but the aggregate amount of such debts direct and contingent, whether contracted by virtue of one or more acts of the general assembly, of at different periods of time, shall never exceed at different periods of time, shall never exceed seven hundred and tifty thousand dollars, and seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the money arising from the creation of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was obtained, or to repay the debts so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

Szerros 2. In addition to the above limited power, the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the State in war, or to redeem the present outstanding indebtedness of the State; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts, shall be applied to the purpose for which money arising from the contracting of such delts, shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no her purpose whatever. Secrion 3. Except the debts above specified in sections one and two of this article, no debt whatever shall be created by, or on behalf of SECTION 4. To provide for the payment of the Section 4. To provide for the payment of the present debt, and any a chitional debt contracted as adoresaid, the Legislature shall, at its first session, after the adoption of this amendment, create a sinking fand, which shall be sufficient to pay the accruing interest on such debt, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; which sinking fund shall consist of the net annual income of the public works, from time to time owned by the State, or the pro-ceeds of the sale of the same, or any part thereof and of the income or proceeds of sale of stocks owned by the State, together with other funds, or resources, that may be designated by law. The said sisking fund may be increased from time to time, by assigning it to any past of the taxes, or other revenues of the State, not required for the ordinary and current expenses of government, and noises in case of war, inva-sion or insurrection, no part of the said sinking sion or insurrection, no part of the sand singui-fund shall be used or applied otherwise than in extinguishment of the public debt, until the amount of such debt is reduced below the sum of five millions of dollars.

Section 5. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner, or event, be pledged, or loaned to, any individual, company, corpora-tion or association; nor shall the common-wealth hereafter become a joint owner, or stockholder, in any company, association or corpora

Sec. 6, The commonwealth shall not assum the d-bt, or any part thereof, of any county, city, borough, or township or of any corporation or association; unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the State to repel invasion, suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in suppress domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the State in the dis-charge of any portion of its present indebted-
