The superfluity in length and circumference of dresses, so much complained of, is good for trade...

It is very true that the length and expansion of the fashionable dress gives its wearer the form of a bell-mouthed glass tumbler with a stem to it...

Every husband and father ought to approve of the fashionable dresses, for they preclude his wife from attracting unnecessary attention...

What Makes the Negro Black? The following explanation, by Dr. Draper, of New York, possesses some interest...

Human blood is made up of little cells, containing, among other elements, hæmoglobin, a reddish substance, which is largely made up of iron...

Capt. Herndon.—The Savannah Georgian, in announcing the arrival in that place of Mr. Adolph Fredericks, one of the survivors of the Central America, says:

He speaks of Capt. W. L. Herndon, the commander, in the highest terms, as a brave man and a gentleman. Between two and three hours after the vessel sank, Capt. H. floated up to where Fredericks and some others were on a raft...

STOPPED REDEMING.—The Federal Government has visited in the general movement of suspension so far as to stop redeeming its funded debt. That debt being not yet due, the right to stop redeeming it is unquestionable...

OLD-SCHOOLERS.—The action of the liver equally with heat, and therefore, the complexion of the Bismarcks approaches that of the Mongolian negro. This is certainly a simple and an intelligible explanation...

THE FIRST SHINPLASTER.—If New York was the last to suspend, it is the first to issue those swindling scraps of paper called shinplasters. The first, the News of that city says, was issued on Wednesday by one Deacock, promising to pay the bearer twenty-five cents for value received.

THE S. S. Standard says that one of the Indies on board of the Minnehaha, on the p.m. on Wednesday last, exposed her under skirts during the shower. On the back of the skirt was printed in a circle, in large blue letters, "Extra Gossip 26 pounds."

A MELANCHOLY FINALE.—The village of Colchester, on the Chicago, Quincy and Burlington road, was the scene of a sad affair one day last week. A young lady of that place, the daughter of an estimable citizen, had for some time past received the addresses of a young man in opposition to the wishes of her parents...

DEATH OF MR. G. W. P. CUSTIS.—The Alexandria Gazette, in speaking of the death of Mr. Custis, says: The whole country knew him—and his patriotism will long be remembered. Closely allied to the Washington family, fond of calling himself the child of Mount Vernon, he was never so much in his element as when he was talking or writing of the Great Chief, and the men and times of the Revolution.

WHAT IS A FINKIN!—Is a keg a finkin! These questions are before the Court of Appeals for determination. They are raised in an action for the price of a quantity of lard, to which the defence is interposed that the lard was packed in firkins not distinctly branded with their weight or tare...

HERMAN'S TINWARE CAN'T BE BEAT.—His shop is a few doors West of the old Globe Hotel. He is an old and good mechanic, and makes all his work himself, and sells cheaper than anybody else. All who want tinware will save money by calling on him.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY IN ARKANSAS.—The Monticello Sage of the 30th gives some particulars of a bloody tragedy which recently occurred in Ashley county. The Sage's informant states that a couple of negro men, incited, according to their own declarations, by a man named Miller, went to the residence of Mrs. Hill, and after attempting to violate her person, murdered herself and a negro, who threatened to tell of the dreadful crime, set fire to the house and burned them in the flames.

WOODLAND CREAM.—A Pomade for beautifying the Hair.—Highly perfumed, and of the most delicate odor, and for half the price. For dressing Ladies' Hair it has no equal, giving it a bright glossy appearance.

Hogs are a pattern of good humor.—Hit 'em a kick and they forget it as soon as they are out of reach. Dog 'em and they root as happy as if they are left alone.

Prof. Wood, the renowned discoverer of the invaluable "Hair Restorative," still continues to labor in behalf of the afflicted. His medicines are universally admitted by the American press to be far superior to all others for causing the hair, on the head of the aged, to grow forth with as much vigor and luxuriance as when blessed with the advantages of youth.

Who that is troubled with any of those disagreeable Complaints, such as Jaundice, Dyspepsia or Liver Diseases of any kind, but would like to know of a remedy for these unseemly visitations! We feel that we are doing our invalid readers an invaluable service if we can induce them to get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and take it for we know from personal experience that it is one of the greatest remedies for general debility, and consequent inactive bodily powers ever before used.

DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, OR LIVER REMEDY. IS AN ARTICLE THAT EVERY BODY needs who is not in a perfect state of health. It is a medicine peculiarly adapted to the disease of the Liver, and is a powerful remedy for all the ailments which result from a diseased Liver.

A lady writes from Brooklyn, says, "I would that I could express in this short letter the value of your Invigorator to me. It has cured me of a long and painful illness, and has restored me to my former health. I feel that I owe you a debt of gratitude, and I am happy to say that I have recommended it to all my friends."

Among the hundreds of Liver Remedies now offered to the public, there are none we can so truly recommend as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, or Liver Remedy, so generally known now throughout the Union. This preparation is free from all the dangerous ingredients which are so common to the cheaply prepared Liver Remedies of the day.
