THE SUREST ROAD TO WEALTH IS THROUGH LIBERAL ADVERTISING!

THE News has found out "who signed the petition." If the paper had the enterprising characteristics it lays claim to it could have published the list last Sunday.

THERE are business failures every day in every year, but have the people of Pennsylvania noticed the increase of failures in the state since the Democrats made their sweep last fall?

THE News is trying to weaken the petition presented to the court for a redivision of the wards of town and, for that purpose, places in the mouths of some of the signers as excuses for appending their signatures to the petition. But the News gets in from the rain by admitting the necessity for dividing the wards and places the "kicking" at the doors of others.

EX-SENATOR DELAMATER paid a visit to Harrisburg last week and met with a cordial reception. From those who met him it is learned he was hopeful and expressed himself as undaunted by last fall's defeat. He says he will be before the people again. We believe it. We have faith in Delamater as a man and feel confident that in due time he will rise, Phoenix-like, from the ashes of his financial failure and put to flight the demagogues who "jumped upon him with both feet" when he was down.

ARRESTED AT SEA

PHILADELPHIA'S BANK PRESIDENT A PRISONER.

HE WAS ON HIS WAY TO BRAZIL.

A United States Marshal and Two Detectives on the Same Ship. Detectives Guarding Treasurer Bardsley at His Home.

By National Press Association.

NEWPORT, Va., May 25.—Marsh, the abducting president of the Philadelphia bank, is undoubtedly a prisoner on the Brazilian mail steamship which left here yesterday. Just as the vessel left the United States Marshal with two detectives reached the dock. They were barely in time, but managed to scramble on board and have gone to sea with the fugitive.

There is intense interest here as to the outcome. If the marshal asserts his authority the captain of the vessel must set his detectives and Marsh ashore. This will probably be done at some point outside the capes, and the next known of the quartet will be their arrival at some city still further south.

It may be that this party may be carried as far as Florida, but it is not thought the captain of the Brazilian vessel will refuse to obey the marshal's order to land them at the nearest American port.

BARDSLEY A PRISONER.

The Arrest of Philadelphia's City Treasurer May Bring Out Exposures.

PHILADELPHIA, May 25.—The great climax has come in the bank failure sensation and the matter of the accounts of John Bardsley, city treasurer, and holder of almost $1,000,000 of money belonging to the State.

Bardsley has been arrested, and is now watched by two detectives in his elegant residence at Germantown. He is too ill to be taken to court or prison, but it is expected that he will be arraigned tomorrow.

The warrant was issued by Mayor Stuart, when he learned that the records of the city treasurer's office are irregular, that his books are crooked, and that there are gross discrepancies in his bank accounts, and that the experts appointed by Mayor Stuart have already discovered a condition of affairs which indicates that the recent revelations are merely the beginning of a series of still more astounding exposures.

"There will be some big corpses lying about this city," said one of the persons who is interested in an official capacity in the investigation, "and if John Bardsley will tell the truth there will be an exodus to South America or some interesting additions to the penitentiary population. Philadelphia will furnish a sensation for the whole country."

Mrs. Bardsley, who is almost wild over the whole affair, has promised Mayor Stuart that she will use all her power to make her husband tell everything he knows in relation to the defunct bank, and the city officials are hoping that ere long they will get to the bottom of what even the bank officials admit is one of the most rotten concerns in the country.

LOOKED LIKE THE ITATA.

Sheered Off to Avoid Being Spoken by a Coasting Steamer.

CITY OF MEXICO, via Galveston, May 25.—It is reported from Central America that a steamer resembling the Itata was seen last Wednesday by a coasting steamer, which attempted to approach her. The vessel was running south, about 80 miles off shore, and sheered off to avoid being spoken.

The captain of the Esmeralda indignantly denies the reports that he is short of funds, and to disprove the statements exhibited to a newspaper representative letters of credit and cash aggregating upwards of $50,000.

No reinforcements have been sent to Acapulco, the Mexican government regarding the garrison there as amply able to prevent the Esmeralda from forcibly coaling or otherwise defying the port regulations. It is not feared that the Esmeralda will attempt anything of the kind.

Reformed Presbyterian Church Synod.

PITTSBURG, May 25.—One of the most important meetings in the history of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America will begin in this city on Wednesday. The coming synod, instead of being called on to decide the cases of a dozen preachers charged with holding diverse courses, it will have at least twenty-five cases of this kind brought before it. What will make the meeting especially interesting is the fact that the dissenting young men will do their fighting on the ground that covenants are permitted to vote on constitutional amendments, such as the prohibition issue.

Swept Over a Falls and Drowned.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 25.—A terrible accident occurred on the Kettle River near Sandstone last evening. A boat load of men were crossing the river at dark and ventured too near the Kettle Falls. The boat was caught in the rapids and whirled over the falls. Thomas Barney of Chipewa Falls and Charles A. McGraw of Augusta, Me., both prominent lumbermen, and Swan Peterson were drowned. A boy named Whitesides and an unknown man are missing and are probably drowned.

A Challenge to Andy Bowen.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 25.—M. J. Mooney, instructor of sparring at the Missouri Gymnasium, this city, is out with a challenge to Andy Bowen for a finish fight for $1,000 and any purse that may be put up by any athletic club in the country. As an earnest Mooney has deposited $100 forfeit.

James C. Converse Dead.

GREENFIELD, Mass., May 25.—James C. Converse, of late years president of the National Tube Works at McKeesport, Pa., and formerly a prominent Boston merchant, died yesterday aged 85 years.

An Old-Time Actor Dead.

OLEAN, N. Y., May 25.—J. H. Hughes, aged 88, an old-time actor, better known to the profession as the Fakir of Avon, died at the Mansion House yesterday.

Mother and Child Drowned.

WINCHESTON, Mass., May 25.—Mrs. A. L. Scott and her one-year-old child were drowned near Glen Allen Mill. The woman, who was 80 years old, was out rowing with her husband when their boat capsized and the occupants were thrown into the water. Mr. Scott made desperate efforts to save his wife and child and only desisted when almost exhausted. The bodies have been recovered.

Train Robbers Captured.

OKLAHOMA CITY, O. T., May 25.—The Dalton brothers and the gang that robbed the Santa Fe passenger train at Wharton station, after being chased for two weeks, have been captured in the Sac and Fox reservation, 60 miles east of here, after a 19-hour fight by United States Deputy Marshals, aided by a detachment of the Fifth cavalry.

Alexander McKibben Commits Suicide.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 25.—Alexander McKibben, who committed suicide in Denver, was well known in this city and comes from an old and respected family. His brother, Col. Chambers McKibben, is a member of Gov. Patterson's staff and is secretary of the Duquesne Club, the swell club of Pittsburgh.

Not Favorable to Dr. Brooks.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 25.—The standing committee of the Episcopal Diocese of Western New York has deferred consideration of the proposition to make Rev. Dr. Phillips Brooks Bishop of Massachusetts. This is equivalent to a vote in the negative, as the next meeting will not be held for three months.

The Strike Thoroughly Broken.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 25.—The coke strike is thoroughly broken, and reports indicate that 10,000 men went to work this morning. It is now probable W. J. Rainey and other independent companies, who have been paying the old wages, will force the cheaper Frick sliding scale on their men.

Found Guilty of Poisoning.

GLENS FALLS, N. Y., May 25.—The coroner's jury found Anna Murray guilty of poisoning Theodore Hunter at Crown Point. The woman was taken to Elizabethtown jail.

They Held Davis' Paper.

BOSTON, May 25.—It is said that the four Salem banks interested in the Davis failure held $140,000 of his paper. Banks in Lynn are said to have held $120,000 more.

From The Nation's Capitol.

Mr. A. N. Hazard, Washington, D. C., says: The famous Red Flag Oil is a perfect family medicine and has no equal for rheumatism, neuralgia, sprains, cuts, burns, and all bodily pain. Price 25 cents. At Kirtin's drug store.

BOROUGH BUDGET.

GLEANINGS MADE BY THE LOCAL REPORTERS.

ANOTHER DEPREDEATION BY BOYS.

They Break Into a Fruit Stand, but Secure Little—A Suspicion that Others are Behind Them.

Last night the fruit stand at the corner of Market and Centre streets, owned by Frank Spainia, was broken into. The stand has attached to it a small place of shelter in which the proprietor sits during rough weather and in which he is supposed to keep some of his stock after business hours.

The door of this place of shelter was fastened by a flap, staple and pad-lock. The burglars last night forced the staple and gained admittance to the place, securing a few bananas and a box of cigars. A peculiarity of the robbery is that it is but a few nights since the stable owned by Otto Carl, on the same block, was broken into by forcing the staple, and at the time the boys were caught in the latter act it was believed they were acting as "feelers" for older heads. The similarity of the two burglaries, in the same neighborhood and within a few nights of each other, leads to the suspicion that an attempt has been made to build a case in favor of the boys already in custody by committing an act as near alike the other as possible to give the impression that the real parties who broke into Carl's stable are still at large. If such is the case it is quite natural to believe that the supposed backers of the "feelers" robbed the fruit stand.

WILL HUGHES ARRESTED.

Taken Into Custody in Town Saturday Night.

On Saturday evening, at half past nine o'clock, William Hughes, late agent at Hazleton for the Grand Union Tea Company, was arrested by Policeman D. J. Connors on a warrant issued by a Hazleton Justice of the Peace. Hughes appeared before Squire Shoemaker and furnished $1,000 bail. The charge upon which the arrest was made is embezzlement and the amount is something over $800.

PERSONAL.

James Monaghan has moved to Connors' Patch.

Mrs. Mary Coakley, of East Lloyd street, is very ill.

Mrs. G. W. Johnson, of St. Clair is reported to be very low.

Rev. McNally, of Girardville, was a visitor to town this morning.

Miss Lizzie Lambert spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends in Shamokin.

Mrs. J. H. Roxby and Mrs. Charles New, of town, went to St. Clair this morning.

Grant Goodman and Capt. William E. Jones, of Mahanoy City, were in town this morning.

C. G. Palmer spent part of last week in Philadelphia, serving as a Grand Juror of the United States Court.

Mine Superintendent Richard Palmer, of Wm. Penn, paid a flying visit to Shamokin on Saturday, in connection with mining affairs.

Charles Bowman and Frank Schmidt arrived home last night after an extended trip through Virginia and other Southern States.

Charles Rice, having disposed of his properties in this town, left on Thursday for the old country, where he will hereafter permanently reside.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Tally, of Baltimore, who spent the past week in town with relatives, left this morning for Wilkes-Barre, to visit friends, and will return here in a few days.

William Thickens, of town; E. C. Wagner, of Girardville, and Messrs. Depew and Mullen, of Delano, left for Erie this morning to attend the Grand Encampment of the Knights Templars.

Pushing to the Front.

The Home Friendly Society, of Baltimore, Md., is rapidly pushing itself to the leadership of industrial insurance societies. Its statement for the year ending January 1st, 1891, is a flattering one, one which can be expected only from a well and conservatively managed institution. The members enrolled during 1890 numbered 23,471, making a business of $1,672,700, and the income for the year amounted to $111,650.50. The sick and death claims paid during the same period numbered 6,439 and amounted in cash to $56,561.42. The insurance carried at the end of the year amounted to $5,021,600 and there is not a disputed claim upon the books of the society to-day. A comparison of the report of 1890 with that of 1885 shows a wonderful growth of the society's business.

During the latter year the insurance amounted to $152,000. The income was $1,883.12 and the claims paid aggregated $1,454.74. We publish in this issue an acknowledgment by the society. It is only one of many testimonials to the company which the file of paper shows.

IT'S A SUCCESS.

That is the Way the "Chronicle" Puts It.

The Schuylkill Press Association in the first year of its existence has been a good thing if for nothing else than to convince the members that some of their editorial brethren do not wear horns, and to awaken among others a respect for the printing press that was not heretofore entertained.

The several gatherings, held since May, 1890, have thrown the members of the profession of Schuylkill county into the happiest relations with each other. Some of them still about in itches—but no one pays any attention to that, because the man who uses that sort of argument is sized up to his proper estate very quickly, and sooner or later the Schuylkill Press Association will eliminate that sort of journalism by force of contact.

But while the members of the press of Schuylkill county are getting together, a very large majority are already together and the others must get there or have a very long time,—there are others who have learned the lesson the organization was intended to teach. They no longer go off to job offices to get their work done, and then expect the newspapers to puff them. Every newspaper office in the county depends on the job office attached to it to a certain extent. Printing newspapers is only a means to an end. It is hard work with but little outcome. In times gone by people have gone off to job offices that were unencumbered with newspapers and got their printing done, and then asked—and expected—to be puffed by other offices.

The Schuylkill Press Association is putting an end to that. The reports yesterday were very gratifying on that score as to every other.

To which we, one and all, agree.

ANOTHER "GOBELE."

The Reading Gets the Gettysburg Road.

The Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company has consummated an arrangement with the proprietors of the Gettysburg and Harrisburg Railroad by which the Reading will assume control of that road, taking formal possession at once. Mr. McLeod was elected president of the Gettysburg and Harrisburg Railroad, and a board of his choosing was selected to take the place of the retiring board, who resigned on Tuesday last.

Mr. W. H. Woodward, who for many years has been superintendent of the Gettysburg and Harrisburg Railroad, will be retained by the Reading, being placed in charge not only of the Gettysburg and Harrisburg, but of the Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pittsburg Railroad as well, with his office at Harrisburg.

The Gettysburg and Harrisburg Railroad is an exceedingly valuable acquisition, furnishing as it does the most direct route from the East and West to the greatest battle field of the rebellion. It gives the Reading an additional connection with the Cumberland Valley Railroad at Carlisle, and with the Western Maryland Railroad at Gettysburg, the latter making way for a short line to Baltimore via the Western Maryland Railroad.

The acquisition of this road is another line in the chain which is being forged by President McLeod for the future and material prosperity of the Reading Railroad Company.

Memorial Services in an Old Church.

HINGHAM, Mass., May 25.—Humphrey Post 104, G. A. R., held memorial services last night in the meeting house of the first parish, erected in 1681, and the oldest church in the United States in which religious services have been continually held. Rev. John F. Lindsay, rector of St. Paul's Church, Boston, and formerly a soldier in the Confederate army, was the orator of the occasion.

Cycling Trip Across the Continent.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., May 25.—Allen W. Swan, a resident of Rochester and a member of the New Bedford Cycle Club, has started from this city on a cycling trip across the continent. He will go via Philadelphia, Gettysburg, Wheeling, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, Salt Lake, Leadville and Colorado Springs. He expects to be but very little over 100 days on his trip out.

The National Regatta.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Sporting men in Washington believe that the national regatta on the Potomac in August will be the greatest of its kind ever held in America. In support of this belief they point to the fact that Secretary Gibson has already received more letters asking for information than ever before since he filled the office.

Murderer Hallinger Writing a Book.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 25.—Edward W. Hallinger, the condemned murderer, who is to be hanged here on June 30, has begun to write a book. He says it will be a history of his life. His object in writing it is to raise money for the support of his two children. He used to be a Baptist exhorter, afterwards he became a prize fighter.

PARNELL TO STAY

IF DEPOSED AS LEADER HE WILL BATTLE IN THE RANKS.

HE CONDEMNNS THE SECEDERS

Willing to Step Aside if Gladstone Will Guarantee Home Rule.

The Government of Spain Alarmed.

DUBLIN, May 25.—Mr. Parnell went to Newcastle West and Limerick yesterday and was warmly received.

In Limerick he referred to the Boulogne negotiations, reminding his hearers that if Mr. O'Brien had then obtained the home rule assurances from Mr. Gladstone that he sought for, he, Mr. Parnell, would have been enabled to retire from public life, and he would renew the offer he then made.

If driven from the leadership of the Irish nation at the general election, he would still persevere, as a private citizen, to stand up, independently of all opposition, for perfect freedom in Irish politics.

Mr. Parnell West addressed 1,000 people at Newcastle West, and dwelt on the Land Bill, especially the clause limiting purchase to holdings of $30 valuation.

He condemned the seceders who opposed this clause, and declared that he himself would have been proud had he obtained this boon for Irish farmers, even from the Tory government.

LORD ROMILY'S FATE.

With Two Servants He Perishes in a Midnight Fire.

LONDON, May 25.—A tragical fire occurred here about midnight. Lord William Romilly was in his drawing-room at his London town house, No. 2 Orington Gardens, S. W., when he accidentally upset a paraffine lamp, causing a blaze which set fire to the apartment.

Lord Romilly attempted in vain to extinguish the flames, which spread, causing a suffocating smoke. His lordship was overcome by the smoke, and sank senseless to the floor.

The butler, smelling the smoke, rushed to the drawing-room. There he found Lord Romilly helpless. He at once pulled his lordship out of the room, and by his cries aroused the other servants.

An alarm of fire was given, and engines hurried to the scene and soon extinguished the flames. The firemen, entering the house, found two of the servants, Blanche Griffin, the housemaid, and Emma Lovell, the cook, both senseless.

A great crowd surrounded the house and the excitement was intense. Lord Romilly was removed to St. George's Hospital, but all attempts to bring him to life failed. Both the servants named were already dead when carried to the hospital.

Lord William Romilly was descended from the great jurists, Sir Samuel Romilly. His father was also an eminent lawyer. He was himself born in 1838. He leaves a widow, Lady Helen (Denison) Romilly, and a son by a former wife, John Gaspard Romilly, born in 1866.

TROUBLE IN SPAIN.

The Government Alarmed Over the Strength of the Republic Movement.

MADRID, May 25.—The government is gravely alarmed over the growing strength of the Republican movement in Spain. Since their victories in the municipal elections, the Republicans have begun to recover from the depression into which they were cast by the overwhelming triumph of the Royalists in the early part of the year, and they are both resolute and demonstrative in asserting their opposition to monarchism.

In Madrid, where the Republicans scored a remarkable success, the newspapers of the party are outspoken in calling for reform and retrenchment in the national and local administration, while there is no concealment of sympathy with the Republican struggle in Portugal. The tour of President Carnot is also commented on as showing the stability and security of Republican institutions in France.
