Fooled his Mamma. A North Main street lady was puzzled for several days over the supposed extraordinary conduct of one of her hens. Every morning she visited the nest she was surprised by discovering two large and, presumably, fresh laid eggs. The laying qualities of the hen were heralded through the neighborhood and her henship was reaching a high notch in public opinion when, one morning, the owner caught her son placing an extra egg in the nest. The boy confessed that he had slipped an extra egg into the nest every morning to have some fun with his mamma. The fond parent added an unpleasant sequel (for the boy) to the joke.

MUST PAY. A Pointer for Our Borough Dads to Consider.

The Evening Chronicle says many people have had the idea that they could let their pavements and gutters take care of themselves and never pay any attention to the notices from the borough authorities to pave, curb and gutter. They also had an idea that if council did the work the money could not be collected from them. Those ideas are all exploded now.

From Wednesday until last evening the case of the borough of Pottsville against Francis B. Bannan to recover the cost of curbing and guttering his property on Railroad street was on trial before Judge Bechtel. The jury took the case late yesterday afternoon and this morning rendered a verdict in favor of the borough. Mr. Bannan must reimburse the town for the money spent to fix up his property. This was a test case. Are others to follow? The Borough Solicitor says that there is $4,000 worth of these kind of debts to be collected and he means to get every cent of it.

Startling Facts. The American people are rapidly becoming a race of nervous wrecks, and the following suggests the best remedy: Alphaeus Hemphill, of Butler, Pa., writes that when his son was speechless from St. Vitus dance Dr. Cass' great Restorative Nervine cured him. Mrs. J. B. Miller, of Vicksburg, and J. D. Taylor, of Leesport, Ind., saw a gained 30 pounds from taking it. Mrs. H. A. Gardner, of Vicksburg, Ind., was cured of 30 to 50 convulsions a day, and much headache, dizziness, backache and nervous prostration by one bottle. Trial bottles, and five books of marvelous cures, free at C. H. Wagner's, the druggist, who recommends and guarantees this unequalled remedy.

The Commencement. Unusual interest is taken in the approaching commencement exercises. The charts for the sale of reserved seats for the evening exercises are already badly mutilated and the theatre will be crowded both evenings. The offer of prizes has no doubt greatly increased the interest this year. Four prizes are offered. Five dollars for the best composition and $2.50 for the second best, Five dollars for the best declamation and $2.50 for the second best. Five prominent citizens will be selected to adjudicate the competitions. A new feature has been arranged for the High School class day exercises on Friday. Instead of the usual programme of declamations, recitations, etc., there will be "Ye Olds Folks' Concert," introducing a dialogue "The Town Meeting," in which the High School male graduates will participate. The session will be a very entertaining one.
