Interesting Developments in Philadel-phia's City Treasury Investigation.

Philadelphia, June 4 .- There were number of interesting developments in the city treasury investigation during the day. A report was circulated that Bards day. A report was circulated that Bardsley's mind is affected and it attracted considerable attention. Dr. Butcher, the prison physician, who has charge of the ex-city treasurer, has refused, however, to confirm it, and the prevailing lingression is that the rumor has been started by Bardsley's friends for effect.

James Dobson, who, tagether with his brother, is on Bardsley's bond to the extent of $129,000, has had an interview with the prisoner, and has received from him the assurance that the missing million of money was deposited in the Keystone Bank, and if it is not there must have been taken away by Marsh.

Ephraim Young, a director of the Spring Carden Bank and a member of the assigned firm of Van Gunden & Yanng, he made a statement denying that he overdrew his firm's bank account.
