SERIOUS RUNAWAY. Three Ladies Violently Thrown

From a Carriago.

Mrs. Couch, Mrs. Dunlsp and Mrs. lonkins left Wm. Penn yesterday after soon in a carriage to make purchases here As they were driving past the office of the Kohinoor colliery the horses were startled by escaping steam and ran away. Th adies attempted to jump out of the car risgs, but lost control of themselves and were thrown violently to the ground. Mrs. Couch, who is a heavily built we han about 50 years of ago, was picked up n an unconscious condition. Mrs. Dun ap and Mrs. Jenkins were more fortunate ut they were not able to rise unassisted Menera, William Tregiso, F. C. Rees Richard Resse and Morris Brown, clork doyed at the colliery, mastened to th relief of the ladies, taking them into th office. Dr. Straup was sent for. Mrs Couch remained unconscious for about twenty minutes and the doctor pronounce her injuries serious. The other ladie suffered from bruises and cuts, but they were able to go home in a carriage. I was necessary to send Mrs. Couch home is an ambulance.

The horses dashed along Coal street at mad pace, dragging the carriage afte them, and were not stopped until they reached the corner of Chestnut street. To-day Mrs. Couch's condition was reported as somewhat improved, but it wil be some time before she will fully recove from the effects of the accident.

THE WILD WEST.

of the Show.

Prior to the races Pawmee Bill's Wild West Show, which has encamped on the grounds for over two weeks, gave their exhibition, portraying many thrilling and realistic scenes of happenings in the far West. Every member of the company was introduced to the sudience by an or collent spokesman, who served as master o ceremonics during the entire exhibition which lasted almost two hours.

Each not was presented with amusiperfectness and the audionce fiberall applauded the members of the compafor their efforts. The fancy shooting o Major Lilly and Miss May Lilly was re ceived with rounds of applause. Their exhibition includes many difficult feats an proves that they are masters of the rifle In order to do justice to the Wild Wes aggregation we would be obliged to devot considerable space, which unfortunately esnnot to-day be spared. Go, for your serves. The money is well spent and yo will be afforded the privilege of witnessin the grandest and best exhibitions of th kind that has ever appeared in this city. The "Wild West" will open a week engagement at Lakuide Driving Park (East Mahanoy Junction,) on Monday June 15, 1891.
