THE EVENING HERALD.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY.

LOCAL LUNCHEON.

Summer days.

Carpenters wanted. See advertisement.

You are going to see the Wild West Show? Of course, you are.

An adult laboring man wastes five ounces of muscle in the course of his daily labor.

Nearly one half of 1891 is already gone and it seems but a little while since it began.

We all respect those who know more than we do; but we don't wish them to run our business.

Lakeside Driving Park, at East Mahanoy Junction, will be formally opened on Monday.

A store room, centrally located, at reasonable rent, wanted. Inquire at the HERALD office.

The letter list does not appear in to-day's HERALD, for the very reason that there are no letters to advertise.

The subscription list of the HERALD has been wonderfully increased the past two months, and it continues to increase.

Remember the ice cream and strawberry feast at the English Baptist church on Monday afternoon and evening.

Playing Cards.

You can obtain a pack of best quality playing cards by sending fifteen cents in postage to P. S. Eustis, Gen'l Pass. Agt., B., C. & Q. R. R. Chicago, Ill. tf

The Burlington Route, C., B. & Q. R. R., from Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis, is now completed, and daily passenger trains are running through Lincoln, Neb., and Custer, S. D., to Deadwood. Also to Newcastle, Wyoming. Sleeping cars to Deadwood. tf

Coming Events.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning? The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cents, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will Cure your Cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves Croup and Whopping Cough at once. Mothers do not be without it. For Lame Back, Side or Chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, N. E. corner Main and Lloyd streets.

A New Business.

P. J. Cleary has opened a store in the Ferguson's building, on East Centre street, and is prepared to furnish the local trade with fine leather and shoe findings and all kinds of shoemaker's supplies. His stock is a large one and well equipped to fully supply all demands of the trade. 5-15-tf

Shortland's Statement.

EDITOR HERALD:—I see a charge in your paper the other evening of my embezzlement of thirty dollars, while in partnership with one John Thurlby. I would like to contradict the charge and state that such partnership never existed. I would thank you to publish this in your paper. FRED K. SHORTLAND.

Philadelphia, June 12, 1891.

More Stock Bought.

The party was in business no longer than six months and, therefore, the goods are not shelf-worn, but almost brand new. Coffee's prices and goods will surprise you. Go and see him while his stock is complete. If you want to save 40 or 50 per cent. on each pair of boots give him a call. His best miners' boots, worth $3 elsewhere, can be bought at $2. 6-5-6t

GETTYSBURG.

Fourth of July Excursions to the Battle-Field.

Patriotism and pleasure in coalition will attract many of our readers to the historic battle-field of Gettysburg, on the coming Independence Day. The Reading Railroad, which recently acquired control of the only direct line to this famous spot, is preparing a new and fast schedule of train service, and the route, by way of Harrisburg, from any part of the Reading system, is a most delightful one. The rates for excursion tickets will be greatly reduced, and special tickets will be sold on July 3d and 4th, good to return until July 6th, particulars of which will shortly be announced by the railroad company.

Startling Facts.

The American people are rapidly becoming a race of nervous wrecks, and the following suggests the best remedy: Alphonso Hempfling, of Butler, Pa., swears that when his son was speechless from St. Vitus dance Dr. Miles' great Restorative Nervine cured him. Mrs. J. R. Miller, of Valparaiso, and J. D. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained 20 pounds from taking it. Mrs. H. A. Gardner, of Vistula, Ind., was cured of 40 to 50 convulsions a day, and much headache, dizziness, backache and nervous prostration by one bottle. Trial bottles, and fine books of marvelous cures, free at C. H. Hagenbuch, the druggist, who recommends and guarantees this unequaled remedy.
