The secret of many a man's failure in life is downright laziness.

The late P. T. Bernum, the great showman, believed in advertising and left an estate worth over four million dollars.

Two-thirds of the church members of this country are women, and out of 45,000 convicts in our state prisons more than 45,000 are men.

The best preventative for wrinkles is good temper, care-as-to-diet, and the ability to wash your face properly, that is, smoothing the wrinkles out every time it is washed.

"A little lemon on the bottom" affords a smile to the dispenser as he shakes acid from the bottle into the glass before the whiskey. Still there is a reality about lemons.

It does not seem like a fair verdict for a jury to render pronouncing a man "not guilty," and then saddle half the costs upon him. He must be either guilty or not guilty, and if not guilty why make him pay costs.

If you wish to have fine tomatoes and plenty of them cut back at the leading shops from three to six inches, and remove all sprouts from the base of the plants. There will be an important gain in earliness, productiveness and size of plants.

Its Excellent Qualities. Command to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

MOVED TO 22 East Centre St., Shenandoah,

CHAS. T. RICE'S OLD STAND.

Died of Sun Stroke. Mrs. Elton Davison, a widow residing at the corner of Mayberry Alley and Gilbert street, died last evening from the effects of sun stroke received last Monday while she was moving.

PERSONAL. Miss Lucy Richards, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Ida Bell, of Waynesborough, Franklin county, is visiting Miss Adelle Sander, of North Main street.

Court Notes. In the case of Michael Monaghan and Thomas B. Han, who were charged with arsony by Cora Weiss, the court at Pottsville yesterday directed the jury to find a verdict of not guilty.

John Kane was yesterday sentenced to pay the costs in the case of the Commonwealth against Mary McEever.

A Shenandoah Unfortunate. A woman with three children was arrested on Fourth and Penn streets this afternoon and taken to the station house in the "burry up" wagon. Here she gave the name of Dizzie Suckow, and P. & R. Officer Wartman went before Alderman Schrader and swore out a warrant charging her with drunkenness and cruelty to children. The woman was too drunk to be interviewed, but the eldest child, a bright little girl, said her mother didn't often get drunk; that they met another woman, and both drank. The party came from Shenandoah and were on their way to Pottsville, according to the little girl's story, and that her mother collected money on the way. She said they had no father.—Reading World.

LAKESIDE. Great Attendance at the Popular Resort Yesterday. There was an unexpected large attendance at Lakeside yesterday and the performance by Pawnee Bill's company was the best of the week. The throng on the grand stand eclipsed all those of the previous day and the management was in high glow. Mahanoy City was well represented and carriages and vehicles from all parts of the county studded the grounds. Among the visitors were a number of Pottsville's prominent citizens who had not visited Lakeside before and who expressed surprise to find such a beautiful resort in the heart of the county.

This afternoon Pawnee Bill gave his first exhibition. To-night he will pack and load his tents, ropes and other goods and leave for Wilkes-Barre. The week following the combination will be at Shamokin.

WILD WEST WHISPERS. Deadwood Dick, (Wilbur Collins,) the expert shot with the Winchester rifle, broncho rider and cowboy, will, after his engagement with Pawnee Bill, probably go with Tony Pastor's "Celebrity" for a season.

The fellow who takes the character of the berserker like sleep better than anything else—he is something like Dickens' fat boy on the Pickwick papers. Breakfast was over yesterday before he arose, and to get him up Pawnee Bill gave him a bath with a bucket of water.

Oklahoma Frank owns a large number of the rifles and curiosities in the museum. He is a dead shot, his skill with the rifle being a feature of the show.

Horse-haired George is a popular member of the Wild West Show, and is an experienced cowboy.

It will not be surprising to hear within the next few days of some runaways of girls who have just entered their teens. Several of them have been noticed, almost daily, hanging around the Wild West camp, and they seem to be so completely initiated with the whole business that it makes no difference whether it is a dashing cowboy, a fascinating suitor, a young or a big Indian, with whom they spend their moments—just so he has kind of a Wild West flavor about him.

He guarantees it to cure headache, dizziness, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, the ill effects of spirits, tobacco, coffee, etc. Druggists say it is the greatest seller they ever knew, and is universally satisfactory. Not Our Townsman. The county papers on Thursday stated that Monroe Kahler had been sentenced for false pretense, and some of our people thought it was our townsman, M. R. Kahler, the popular uptown merchant. Fortunately for Mr. Kahler, it was some other fellow.

A Success. The ice cream and strawberry festival held in Robbins' opera house, last evening, by the ladies connected with the Presbyterian church, was a most gratifying success and netted the church society a nice little sum. The Grand Band was present and added to the interest of the occasion by playing several of their best pieces.
