THE EVENING HERALD.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY.

LOCAL LUNCHEON.

Harvest not far off. Yes, its summ-like. Longest day yesterday. June is on the decline. Raspberries are coming. Sugar loaf, pineapples are here. Out-door sports are now popular. A recipe for sweetening humanity. Southern position will soon be appearing. All who can should enjoy the picnic season. This is a great year for babies as well as other crops. It is now reasonably safe to lay aside winter clothing.

Its Excellent Qualities

Commenced to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectively, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

Davis the Man.

If the Republicans want a winner for Sheriff of Shenandoah county this fall, let them nominate Hiram Davis, of New Castle. His record in Harrison has made him a favorite among the working-men, irrespective of party. Talk with any of them any where and they will tell you that he has been a true and persistent friend of labor. There is no man that the party can name whom the Democratic politicians would rather see nominated. However, Mr. Davis is not a candidate for the office, but he ought to be, and the party should tender him the nomination and rely to his support for the strength that he will be sure to bring to the rest of the ticket. -Herald Record.

Coming Events.

June 23.—Picnic at Courthouse Park by National Guard of Waraw. July 4.—Grand Carnival and picnic by Columbia Home Steam Fire Engine Company. July 20th.—Festival and entertainment; Robbins' opera house, under the auspices of Silver Wave Castle, A. O. K. at M. C.

Professor Tenen, of Yale University, thereby demonstrates that the Millennium will come in 1891. The Alaska explorers continue their narrative with superb illustrations. The Confederate monument at Jackson; the marriage of Miss Elaine Goodale to an Indian; the Chicago Fair; New York street scenes; Apache prisoners in Alabama, and the National Chautauque at Washington, are superbly illustrated. Price, ten cents. Printed in both German and English.

Children's Day.

Children's Day was observed in the Methodist Episcopal church last evening and was witnessed by over seven hundred people. The program was a most interesting one. The church was beautifully decorated. There was a string of evergreen from one end of the church to the other and straws protruded out to the windows of the church on each side. Underneath were suspended a number of brass cages containing canaries. The church was filled with lovely flowers of every description in pots, vases, bowls and baskets, and on the pulpit platform was erected a finely modeled ship, the hull and mast being covered with evergreen. The ship had a sail and jib, made of muslin. On the former was an anchor made of evergreen and the figure "191" were upon the latter in blue.

Two Degraded Girls.

The place was surrounded and Policeman Williams, who entered the place through a window, allowed his fellow officers to enter at the stage door.
