THE RE-DIVISION.

The report of the viewers on the re-division of the town has been filed with the Court at Pottsville and confirmed. Of course considerable dissatisfaction exists—not because the town has been re-divided, as that was an absolute necessity,—but because of the boundary lines selected for the new wards. All the maps submitted to the viewers were ignored and they evidently fixed upon their report in a spirit of compromise with a view to making the result as nearly satisfactory to all as they possibly could. It is to this alone that the parties interested have to look for consolation.

The maps submitted to the viewers by the petitioners for the re-division was, notwithstanding the claims of the opposition, based upon lines as equitable as any that would possibly be drawn; yet the viewers saw fit to ignore it and adopt a plan of their own. This, of course, they had a perfect right to do and if the petitioners are wise they will submit gracefully to the decision.

Those who opposed the re-division are, of course, in a "kicking" mood. They, in their own minds, are the only people who can discriminate between right and wrong and it would be unnatural for them not to kick. The map they had prepared was marked out so ingeniously that had the viewers adopted it three of the wards would need another re-division very soon. The map was a cold-blooded, daring scheme to have the town politically divided to make six Democratic wards against three for the Republicans. The failure of this scheme serves as a panacea for the disappointment sustained by the petitioners.

As to the report of the viewers the scheme was killed, as the new lines seem to give the Citizens' party some show for life.

THE RE-DIVISION!

The Viewers Yesterday Submitted Their Report to Court.

THE BOROUGH CUT INTO NINE WARDS

Four Wards Have Been Added, So That the Town Now Has Nine Instead of Five—All Maps Ignored—The Viewers Were Evidently Prompted by a Desire to Compromise—The New Lines Described.

Col. J. G. Frick, A. B. Cochran and J. H. Mudge, the viewers appointed to re-divide this borough yesterday submitted their report to the court at Pottsville.

The viewers met in town on the 10th inst. and heard statements for and against the re-division. They also received maps showing the lines of the proposed new wards.

The HERALD herewith publishes a full description of all the new lines and the accompanying map, used with the description, gives a clear showing of the re-division.

The report of the viewers is based upon lines almost independent of the maps submitted to them and the re-division is practically a compromise.

The following is a description of the new lines:

First ward—Northwardly by north line of borough; eastwardly by east line of borough; southwardly by south line of borough and westwardly by the centre of White street.

Second ward—Northwardly by north line of borough; eastwardly by a line extending from the north line of the borough southward along the centre of Emerick street, to the centre of Lloyd street, thence westwardly along Lloyd street to the centre of Bowers street and thence southwardly along middle of Bowers street to the south line of the borough; southwardly by the centre of White street; southwardly by the south line of the borough and westwardly by the centre of Main street.

Third ward—Northwardly by the north line of the borough; eastwardly by the centre of White street; southwardly by the south line of the borough and westwardly by the centre of Main street.

Fourth ward—Northwardly by the north line of borough; eastwardly by centre of Main street; southwardly by middle of Centre street and westwardly by centre of West street.

Fifth ward—Northwardly by middle of Centre street; eastwardly by centre of Main street; southwardly by centre of Poplar street and westwardly by centre of West street.

Sixth ward—Northwardly by north line of borough; eastwardly by centre of West street; southwardly by centre of Lloyd street and a continuation of that line westwardly to the west line of the borough and westwardly by west line of the borough.

Seventh ward—Northwardly by centre of Lloyd street and a continuation of the centre line of said street, westwardly to the west line of the borough, eastwardly by the centre of West street; southwardly by the middle of Huckleberry alley and a continuation of it westwardly to the west line of borough and westwardly by west line of borough.

Eighth ward—Northwardly by centre of Huckleberry alley and the extension of the centre line of said alley westwardly to the west line of the borough; eastwardly by the centre of West street; southwardly by centre of Poplar street and the extension of the centre line of said street westward to the west line of the borough and westwardly by said west line of borough.

Ninth ward—Northwardly by the centre of Poplar street and extension of centre line of said street westwardly to west line of borough; eastwardly by a line extending from the centre of Poplar and Main street southwardly to the southeast corner of the borough; southwardly by the southern line of the borough and westwardly by the west line of the borough.

Company Store to Close.

It is said that the big company store at New Boston, above Mahanoy City, will close out business in order to comply with the new act lately passed by the Legislature in reference to company stores. The penalties attached to the bill are so severe, it is said by those who are familiar with the wording of the act, that all stores now run by mining corporations will have to close.

HON. JOHN B. ALLEY ASSIGNS.

The Announcement Creates a Sensation in Lynn.

BOSTON, June 27.—The Hon. John B. Alley, of Lynn, has assigned for the benefit of his creditors to Wm. A. Knowlton, who is one of the assignees of Alley Bros. & Place, the leather dealers who recently failed.

Mr. Alley owes the above mentioned firm $500,000 or $600,000, but aside from this indebtedness the liabilities are very small. Mr. Alley's indebtedness to Alley Bros. & Place is understood to be secured in whole or in part.

The announcement of the assignment made a decided sensation in Lynn. Mr. Alley's fortune, a few years ago, having been estimated at $3,000,000. The famous Snow-Alley law suit cost Mr. Alley a large sum of money, and he has also met with heavy losses in the West, but no one supposed that he would have to assign.

ELOPED IN A BALLOON.

A Massachusetts Woman Looking for Her Sixteen-Year-Old Daughter.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., June 27.—A special from St. Louis says: "A singular story was developed here by the application at the City Hall of Mrs. J. F. Goodrich, of Pittsfield, Mass., for help to recover her 16-year-old daughter Clara, who eloped in a balloon from Pittsfield Decoration Day with an aeronaut named Walter Cooper.

There was evidently a vein of sensationalism in the young people, because when they determined to elope the common-place methods which have been in vogue for centuries would not do.

"Decoration Day, dressing herself in a suit of her brother's, Clara eluded her parents and made her way to Pittsfield. Her father pursued and reached the fair grounds just in time to see his daughter borne into the air in a balloon with the young aeronaut.

"Mrs. Goodrich has been pursuing the couple ever since and swears to kill her daughter's betrayer on sight."

PIERCED BY AN IRON BAR.

A Pennsylvania Quarryman Meets a Terrible Death.

ALTOONA, Pa., June 27.—Shortly before noon at the large quarry at Piney Creek, Robert Calbert and a gang of men prepared two blasts and fired them. One failed to explode.

Calbert took a 16-foot bar and prepared to drill it out. He placed the end of the bar in the hole and let it drop when the explosion occurred.

Twelve feet of the bar was driven through his body, and it is said his screams were heard for half a mile.

The remainder of the bar was pulled through the wound, and after 20 minutes of agony Calbert died.

JACK THE RIPPER'S NOTICE.

He Sends Warning to Whitechapel of Another Murder.

LONDON, June 27.—The vigilance committee in Whitechapel has been re-awakened to activity by an undoubted warning from Jack the Ripper.

Patrols and vigilants were revived last night, and Scotland Yard sent an extraordinary contingent to watch the Whitechapel district.

A letter identical in style and writing with previous missives from Jack the Ripper has been received by the chairman of the vigilants, in which "Jack" announces that he is about to perform another "operation," and that if the chairman or vigilants attempt to track him he will knife them to the heart. It is the duty of the police, he says, to catch him. He adds that he has been nearly caught twice, but that he will never be taken alive.

CYCLONE'S WORK.

THE ELEMENTS PLAY HAVOC AT MT. CARMEL.

SIX MEN INSTANTLY KILLED.

A Cyclone Strikes the Patterson Breaker and the Adjoining Tower Falls With Dreadful Effect.

MT. CARMEL, June 27.—Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock a cyclone struck the Patterson breaker, completely demolishing the tower, and burying in the debris six workmen. The following is the list of the killed.

J. N. Blossom, Hawley, Pa., aged 60.
WM. TODGE, Luzerne, Pa., a slater.
WALTER ROBERTS, a slater.
BARTLEY DOBSON, Shickshinny.
ITALIAN, name unknown, New York.
UNKNOWN, carpenter.

Patterson colliery is situated at Natalie, on the Big Mountain, about midway between Mt. Carmel and Bear Gap. It is a new operation being opened up by the Patterson Coal Company, and is to be quite an extensive affair. The breaker is about completed, and ready for the reception of machinery. Tuesday a gang of workmen arrived from in the direction of Wilkes-Barre and commenced the work of placing the machinery and finishing the slate roof.

Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock these men were engaged in the manner stated when dark clouds hovered over and around the structure, indicating the approach of a storm. Of a sudden the wind acquired terrific velocity, and the immense concern was struck by a genuine cyclone. Within almost the twinkling of an eye the main tower, 108 feet high, 30 feet wide and 100 feet deep, and adjoining the breaker, was torn from its fastenings, twisted and piled in confusion where a moment before had stood a model structure. In the mass of debris were buried the workmen. Willing hands were immediately at work to rescue the unfortunate men. Five were taken out bearing every evidence of having been killed outright, while one poor fellow was allowed to live a sufficient length of time to inform his questioners of his identity and gave his family's address. Late last night none other than the six given above had been recovered, although others are supposed to be buried beneath the fallen timbers and machinery.

Immediately after the accident a messenger was dispatched to Mt. Carmel for medical assistance. Drs. Montellus and Williams were summoned and responded promptly but their services were not required. Every available team in the town was pressed into service and hundreds visited the scene of the wreck.

The course of the cyclone lay in a path-way about 25 to 30 yards in width and was visible coming down the mountain, but had spent its fury before reaching Mt. Carmel. Rain fell in torrents and was accompanied by vivid flashes of lightning and heavy peals of thunder.
