PARNELL IS HAPPY

He Says He is Going to Win the Carlow Election.

HIS PLANS FOR THE FUTURE.

He Will Devote Special Attention to Irish Industrial Questions.

Coming to the United States in the Autume-He Will Atland the Bultimore Convention-Mulster Reid, Gives a Dinner and Ball in Honor of Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Harrisoni

Losnos, June 27,-In an interview with Mr. Parnell at Brighton he said that he found it impossible to procure a Heense for marriage in any country church, and in order to prevent delay be thought it best to marry in the registry office. The church ceremony would be performed in London as soon as he was able to put in a fortnight's residence there-probably after the Carlow elec-

He will probably go to Carlow this evening. He says he is confident that he will win the only election since the divorce suit which be has had a chance of winning. He would take his wife to Carlow if possible, but she was a had sallor and was likewise compelled to remain near her lawyers owing to the com-ing trial of the suit over the will of her late aunt, Lady Wood, in which suit her brothers contested her right to the Eltham property.

His Future Plans.

Mr. Parnell says be intends in future to devote special attention to Irish in-dustrial questions, in which he was more interested than any other. He had given a general support to Mr. Balfour's frish Land Furchase bill, believing it to be a measure well conceived, and that, if well carried out, it would greatly benefit the tenants as well as the landowners.

Will Visit the United States. He intended in the autumn to visit the United States, where he believed pub-lic opinion to be virtually unanimous in his favor. He would try to attend the Baltimore convention.

He had not thought nor did be intend to think upon the political effect of his marriage. His wife was perfectly happy, and he was experiencing greater happiness than ever in his life previously.

The c respondent never saw Parnell looking healthier or in better spirits.

THE WHITE HOUSE LADIES.

A Great Ball in Paris, in Honor of Mrs. Mcker and Mrs. Harrison.

MRS. PHILO'S DARING ESCAPE. She Jumped from a Train Going at Full

Cmcago, June 27 .- Mrs. E. L. Philo, a handsome blonde, aged 28 years, was arrested here yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Deputy Sheriff Reno, of Denver, Col. She was turned over to the Denver officer, who started with her for Denver at 6 o'clock last evening.

When the train was near Ashton, a station 90 miles west of Chicago, the woman jumped through the open window of the car and escaped. The train was running at full speed at the time, and Rano was dozing, not thinking that his fair prisoner would attempt to escape. The train was quickly brought to a standstill, but no trace of the woman could be found.

Mrs. Philo is wanted at Denver for jumping her ball bond. She had been arrested for a large forgery and the case was continued for hearing, the bond being fixed at $5,000. As soon as bail was furnished the woman disappeared.

A Governor's Opinion

An ex-General of the Union Army, ex-Gov-ernor of the State of Maine, ex-Represen-tative to Congress, and ex-Attorney Gen-Brown's SarsaparHia.

With the exception, possibly, of Hon-James G. Blaine, there is no min so wellknown to the people of Maine, as

CEN. HARRIS M. PLAISTED.

Who has a grand record as a soldier, who has been the Governor of the State, Representative to Congress, and who is at present the editor and proprietor of the "New Age" newspaper, printed in Augusta, Me. General Plaisted, formerly a resident of Bangor, Me., knew Dr. William H. Brown others fail. It is the best in the world.

In due season Gen. Platsted found himsoif a perfectly well man, and one day, while ut his desk in his editorial room, crote an article on Motne's famous com wrote an article on Maine's manual con-edy The article was bested July 1864, 1867, and, while our space will forbid the print-ing of the whole, we feel warranted in taking from it the following:

Gen. Plaisted says: Our confidence in Brown's Sarsaparilla is based upon per sonni knowledge of its curative proper-ties in cases of Malaria, and upon our long acquaintance with that eminent physician, Dr. William H. Brown, late of Bangor, who perfected the formula by which the medicine is propared.

Malaria is a prevalent disease now-adays. It not only fistens itself upon the systems of the old veterans, who fought for years in the Southern swamps and reds, but it takes hold of the live in the atmospheres of the cities and larrer towns. Gases from awamps, sing-gish rivers, sewers, the streets, and many other ill kept places, poison the system making site entrance of some other dis ease easy. You can avoid all danger, can keep disease at a distance, and have a system teeming with rich blood and vitality, by simply using Brown's Sarso
