Damage in New York State.

Thoy, N. Y., June 27.—Buskirk's Bridge, near this city, was visited last evening by a terrible storm of wind and hail. Several buildings on George my's farm were carried from the foundations, trees were approated by score, halistones as large as walnuts fell in great quantities and growing crops suffered seriously. The storm lasted less than half an hour.

VILLAGES SWEPT AWAY. A Tremendous Cloudburst Works Sad Havoe in Germany.

Benian, June 27 .- Early in the morn Brains, June 27.—Early in the morning a tremendous cloudburst did great damage to the Soden Medicinal Springs, and the villages of Holzendorf, Wernsdorf and Murk are reported to have been totally destroyed. Houses roads, bridges, walls, cattle and crops have been swept away, and the inhabitants of those districts are terror stricken and in despair, Great destruction of life and property be cloudbursts and thunderstorms is recloudbursts and thunderstorms is re-

BASE BALL AT DELANO.

Support a Club. Base ball has taken a big boom in Del ano, the citizens of that place held a public meeting Monday night and organized an athletic association, electing the following officers: President, J. A. Dopew; Secretary, Garrett Hartley; Treac urer, Jao. B. Antheny; Trustees, Wm. Ryan, Calvin Gouldner and Samue Depew; Manager, George Brill, and Captain, Thomas Sanger. Its objects are the supporting and encouraging of a first class ball team. The membership has already attained the 100 mark with promeets of reaching into the 2 0. Each men ber will pay into the treasury 50c, per month to support the club. About 28 young men have been practicing, in order to be selected as the team, and last evening Manager Brill and Capt. Sanger selected the following players: M. Reynolds and Roger Devers, pitchers; Robert Griffin and William Hughes, catchers; Samuel Depaw Lieb, infleders; and John Bannan, Thomas Flomming and Edward Depew. outfielders. The team will be furnished with all the latest playing outfits and neat uniforms. Negotiations are under way to make as fine, if not the finest, ball ground in the county. Their first game will be called at 4:30. Two games are to be arranged for July 4th, at Delano.
