Give Us a Joint Parade.

Representations from all societies inferated in a joint parade on July 4th will neet in the A. T. A. B. hall, on Chestnut treet, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. COMMITTER.

June 20, 1891.

4th of July Musical Treat.

Willie Kenerick, cornelist of the U. S. Marine Band, is expected home for the fourth of July. Also, senti contait and omic vocalists will appear, supported by Kendrick's orchestra, which will play all he latest and most fashionable music during the day and evening, at the Kendrick House.

The Wages.

The following collieries drawn to return prices of coal sold in the month of June, 891, to determine the rate of wages to be paid make returns as follows:

11.10-

A2224 The average of these rates is ... The rate of wages to be paid for work one during the last two weeks of June and the first two weeks of July, 1891, is nine (0) per cent. below the $2.50 basis.

The Robbins Pavement.

Several days ago the Chief Burgess notiled Mr. I. Robbins to repair the pavement n front of the post office building. Mr Robbins asked for a few days time, until tone he had ordered for the pavement won'd arrive. Mr. Robbins said the Chief Burges was to hold off until Tuesday last, On that day the Burgess tore up the old payement and replaced it with a new one On the same day the stone for Mr. Robbins' proposed stone payement arrived. Yesterday Mr. Robbins called upon the Borgess and asked for a permit to dump the stone n front of the premises, as he intended to out flag-stone in place of the planks. The florgess said he could grant no such permit, as he had already laid a pavement. Mr. Robbins is now in a quandary. He said yesterday: "As the Chief Burgess claims ownership of the pavement and won't allow me to replace the planks with flagstone I suppose I had better sell what I have on hand."

The New American Flag.

The American flag-the stars and the lorious red, white and blue-has undergens several changes within the past sixeen months. The admission of North on the now and tanning the rich a desper Dakota, South Dakota, Washington and Montana recently added four stars to the blue field of the flag; then came Idaho; and now the latest new state, Wyoming, daims a star in the constellation of the Union. The flags of the Government are atways changed on the Fourth of July, and on Saturday next the spangled banner forty-four stars will be the standard of the Union. Here are the terms of the We are continually being advised to President's latest order, as announced to the army. "The field or union of the national flag in use in the army will, or and after July 4, 1891, consist of forty-four stars in six rows, the upper and lower rows to have eight stars, and the second, third, tourth and fifth rows seven stars each.

The Lakeside Eisteddfod.

Interest in the great Lakeside musical ctival to be held on Saturday, August 15, 891, is increasing daily and is spreading with surprising speed throughout the adsining counties. Centralia sends word that she will be apresented at the festival by at least one and male club. Lansford has a splendid choir in practic and sends word "We are after one of the big prizes. Audenried has an excellent leader who
