Ex-Congressman Parker Dies Suddenly.

SEASAY, Pa., July 8.—Hon. John B. Parker died suddenly of heart disease in this city in the morning. In 1868 Mr. Parker was elected to Congress and was re-elected in 1870, 1872 and 1874, declining a unanimous re-nomination in 1876. His wife is a niece of Hon. Simon Cameron.

Valuable Horses Die of Distemper.

GREAT BARNHURST, Mass., July 8.—In New Marlboro, 11 miles east of here, a distemper has broken out among the horses on H. K. Bloodgood's farm and a number of horses are sick. Two valuable horses have died lately, namely, Lady Emma and Lady Tyrone, valued at $10,000.

Springer and the Speakership.

CHICAGO, July 8.—At a private dinner given at the Chicago Club to Congressman Springer and directors of the World's Fair, it was decided that the influence of the World's Fair people should be thrown for Springer as candidate for Speaker of the 52d Congress.

Grand Musical Festival.

A great musical festival by Shamokin and Girardville Massorchers and "Our Band" will be held at Lakeside Park on Tuesday, July 21, 1891.

A Substantial Presentation.

One evening last week several members of the local G. A. R. post visited the residence of one of their comrades, John M. Price, at Brownsville, and presented to him a purse containing nearly $10, which had been made up among his old comrades and was collected by John Watson, of town, and Henry Eisenhart, of Brownsville. Mr. Price, who has been confined to his home for several months, was completely taken by surprise. His emotion was so great he could hardly give expression to his gratitude. This act of old soldiers to a distressed comrade is an excellent example of the spirit that prevails among the organized survivors of the rebellion.

The Great Yale-Harvard Race.

A double-page is devoted to pictures of the great Yale-Harvard race on the Thames, in Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper this week. The fascinating story of the Leslie Alaska Expedition and its adventures is continued. A page is devoted to interesting foreign pictures, and there is also a page of views in Havana. The last is accompanied by a startling article by Frank A. Burr, a well-known journalist, on "The Destiny of Cuba—Annexation." A Kansas belle, a full-page view of an ocean steamer concert, and many other pictures make up the number. Printed in English and German. Price, ten cents. Get it of your newsdealer, or send $1 to 110 Fifth Avenue, New York, for a three months' trial subscription.

New Pavements.

Mr. I. Robbins yesterday had workmen engaged in tearing up the wooden pavement in front of the post office building and replacing it with substantial flag-stones. When the work is completed the pavement will be one of the best in the town.

Stone Pavements are being laid in front of the Samuels, Beck and other properties on Jardin street, between Centre and Lloyd.

Chief Burgess Leasing spent a part of yesterday afternoon in consultation with the property owners on Main street, between Poplar and Laurel streets, where a substantial flag-stone pavement is being laid.

PERSONAL.

Miss Lottie Barton, of Tannaqua, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Hassinger, of Waynesboro, mother of Mrs. Treibley, is visiting her daughter, David Lewis, George W. Hassler and Law Hopkins spent to-day at the county seat.

Rev. Treibley, of the English Lutheran church, has accepted a call in one of our western counties.

Mrs. H. C. Boyer and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John R. Boyer, are visiting at Mrs. Foster's in Scranton.

Insurance Agent Wilson, of Pottsville, and Editor J. Harry James, of Ashland, were in town this morning.

Miss Ida Bell, a charming young lady from Waynesboro, who has been visiting friends in Shenandoah, returned home this morning.

D. A. K. Preston, a graduate of Gettysburg College, who has been visiting friends here for several days past, returned to his home in the Cumberland Valley to-day.

Evan J. Jones, of Clarion, Clarion county, is spending his vacation in town with his father, Arthur C. Jones. Mr. Jones recently carried off the junior honors in the college at Clarion.

T. H. Broughall and wife, Misses Maggie Shaffer, Ida Bell and Lizzie Lessing and Messrs. B. F. Landig, D. A. K. Preston and Harry Preston visited Glen Oako yesterday and had a most delightful time.

Cutting Out.

Jack McCarty got out an illustrated number of the Hazleton Standard for the Fourth. The work shown on the first, third and sixth pages is good, but we are at a loss to find words to express our sentiments regarding the cuts on the seventh and tenth pages. At first we were inclined to believe that they were supposed to represent the photographs of prominent visitors to Hazleton on the Fourth, but we must confess that we have not been able to recognize any of them. Jack should have put a name under each cut to help the reader in the cause of recognition. Under one are the words "Sudden Death," which serve a double purpose in heading a patent medicine article as well as explaining the peculiar expression of the face. "An American's Experience in England" are the words under another cut. We were wondering what a man wanted with such a broad and inflamed nose. We can now surmise that the American ran against Slavin's set while in England. "Almost a Blake" is the inscription below another cut. If the individual whom it is supposed to represent has not seen a copy of the paper Jack should see that no copy reaches him, else the victim will be thrown into a blaze that all the shekels in the Sentinel office will not quench.

The Secret of Success.

C. H. Hagenbuch, the druggist, believes that the secret of success is perseverance. There fore he persists in keeping the first line of perennials, toilet articles, cosmetics, drugs and essentials on the market. He especially favors all persons who have palpitation, short breath, weak or lumpy spells, pain in side or shoulder, oppression, nightmare, dry cough, smothering, drowsy or heart disease to try Dr. Miles' Unyielding New Heart Cure, before it is too late. It has the largest sale of any similar remedy. Fine book of testimony inside free. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is unsurpassed for a nervousness, headache, fits, etc., and it contains no opiates.

Buy Kegatose flour. Be careful that the name Lesato & Co., Ashland, Pa., is printed on every sack. 3-3-Staw
