A Husband's Mistake.

Husbands too often permit wives, and parents their children, to suffer from headache, dizziness, neuralgia, sleeplessness, fits, nervousness, when by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine such serious results could easily be prevented. Druggists everywhere say it gives universal satisfaction, and has an immense sale. Woodworth & Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Snow & Co., of Syracuse, N. Y.; J. C. Wolf, Hillsdale, Mich.; and hundreds of others say "it is the greatest seller they ever knew." It contains no opiates. Trial bottles and fine book on Nervous Diseases, free at C. H. Hagenbuch's.

What a Prominent Physician and Chemist says After Analysis and Practical Test.

Dr. J. Lipter, formerly of Bellevue Hospital Medical College and Long Island College, speaks as follows:

NEW YORK, October 25, 1890.

Alva's Brazilian Specific Co., 6 Wall street.—Gents: The sample of your Cactus Blood Cure, which I bought for analysis, I have subjected to a very thorough test, and can find not a single trace of mineral or mercurial preparation in it whatever; and, as I have had considerable experience in its constitutional effect in certain diseases already known to you, I consider it the safest and best vegetable blood purifier in the market.

Yours respectfully,

Charges Against a Husband.

Reading, July 16—Mrs. Rush Pelham, of 346 Locust street, this city, has brought some very sensational charges against her husband. She says that he came home on Friday last, and after amusing himself by breaking windows and furniture, mixed up a dose of Paris green and tried to force her to swallow it, and when she resisted he drew a knife and tried to stab her. Mrs. Pelham is but 17 years of age and has been married only six months.

CAMPBELL RENOMINATED.

More Than 300 Majority on the First Ballot.

Cleveland, July 16.—Governor Jas. E. Campbell was renominated on the first ballot by the Democratic State Convention yesterday afternoon. The vote as officially announced was as follows: James E. Campbell, 568 7-16; Lawrence T. Neal, 134 9-16; Virgil P. Kline, 56; and Thomas L. Johnson, 1. Lieutenant Governor W. V. Marquis was also renominated, but by acclamation. The convention, by a majority of 99½ votes, declared in favor of a free silver plank in the platform. After the Kline people had moved that the nomination of Governor Campbell be made unanimous, to which the Hamilton county friends objected vehemently, Lieutenant Governor Marquis was renominated by acclamation.

Young Girls Drowned

Wilkes-Barre, July 16.—Katie and Mary McGowan, aged 17 and 20 years respectively, were drowned at 11 o'clock Wednesday night in the Susquehanna river at Pittston. They were out rowing with a young man named Walter Lanes, and the boat was capsized close under the lower bridge. The young man succeeded in reaching the pier of the bridge and hung on until rescued. The two girls sank at once. Their bodies were recovered about midnight.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The vestibuled compartment sleeping cars recently introduced on the Chicago, St. Paul and Kansas City Railway are models of comfort, convenience and luxury. Any patron of the sleeping car is enabled, by the introduction of these compartment cars, to secure the same privacy and convenience that he would in the best hotel. No other line west of Chicago runs the compartment cars. In addition, the trains are equipped with the regular open Pullman sleeper, giving passengers their choice. The dining car service is fully up to the requirements of modern railway service. An excellent cuisine, promptly served amid elegant surroundings, at moderate charges, leaves nothing now to be desired. Any of our people contemplating a trip to any part of the west or northwest cannot possibly secure better accommodations or lower rates than by addressing W. P. Cooley, General Agent of the Passenger department, 836 Chestnut St. Philadelphia, Pa.

WHITE PEAKS AND DARK CANONS.

Colorado is a land of sharp contrasts, of brilliant lights, of intense shade; a land where heights and depths make obvious the meaning of the word antithesis; a land where every mood in mind can find an answering mood in nature. The high, white minarets of the mountains, from whose slender pinnacles float the wind-blown banners of the snow, appeal with silent eloquence to the lofty aspirations of the soul; the sombre chasms cleft by Titan forces through granite-hearted hills within whose depths dark shadows throng and swirling torrents dash speak to the heart, a language that thrills, inspires and awes. It does not follow that these glories of white peaks and these glooms of dark canons preclude the pleasant intervals, the sunny meadows or the secluded nooks wherein the tired mind or wearied body may find peaceful rest and refuge from turmoil and toil. To one making a journey in Colorado, New Mexico or Utah, or taking a transcontinental tour from East to West, or vice versa, the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad offers accommodations equal in elegance, convenience and luxury to those of any other line with the added attractions of the unrivalled scenery along its line, abounding in a magnificent opulence of white peaks and dark canons. The month of November, 1890, witnessed one of the most important improvements in railroad facilities that has yet been made in Colorado and the West. The completion of the standard gauge of the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad from Denver, Colorado, over the mountains to Ogden, Utah, which five years ago was deemed an impossibility, is certainly a triumph of daring and engineering skill. The new line is by the way of Leadville, tunneling Tennessee Pass, threading the canons of the Eagle and Grand Rivers, giving a view of the Mount of the Holy Cross, enroute, taking its trains through Glenwood Springs and down the Grand River to Grand Junction, thence to Salt Lake City, Ogden and San Francisco. By this route one is given an opportunity to behold the magnificence of Eagle River Canon and the marvelous beauty and grandeur of the Canon of the Grand. The overland train is a model in every respect. From the engine to the last first-class coach everything is bright and new, and of the most elegant style of workmanship and finish.

If any reader desires to know more about these stupendous works of nature, write to S. K. Hooper, General Passenger Agent, Denver, Colorado, and he will send you, free of cost, elegantly illustrated books, giving a full description of the marvels of the "Scenic Line."—Stanley Wood in the "Great Divide."
