Visited by White Caps.

On Sand Mountain, near Holmes Gap, Ala., white caps visited the home of G. V. Jones, a farmer, broke down the doors and after dragging him out, beat him half to death with hickory switches. Jones accuses his neighbors, who run illicit distilleries and were recently raided by officers, of committing the outrage under the impression that he gave them away.

Foot Crushed.
John, son of Edward Williams, of West Cherry street, had his left foot crushed this morning by having it caught between the bumpers of coal cars in the Maple Dale caddy. He was removed to the residence of his parents.

A Narrow Escape.
While driving to Wm. Penn. on Saturday to visit patients Dr. Hamilton, of town, narrowly escaped serious injury. His horse was frightened by a train and ran away. The doctor was thrown out of the buggy, but escaped with a few bruises. The vehicle was badly damaged.

Will Not be Induced.
Efforts to induce the Third Brigade Band, of Potomac, to compete for the $75 prize and gold medal offered for the band competition at the grand musical festival to be held at Lakeside on August 15th, next, have thus far proved fruitless. The Grand Concert Band has entered and nothing would delight its members more than to have the Third Brigade Band as a competitor, but it looks as if the county seat musical pets will not give them the opportunity. This is regretted. There are a number of people in this section of the county who honestly believe that the Grand Band can take some of the thunder out of the "Brigade's" horns.

A GREAT GATHERING.
Great Day for Singers at Lakeside To-morrow.

A great gathering of German singing societies will take place at Lakeside to-morrow. The following organizations will be in attendance:

Hermione Maennerchor, Reading; Germania Saengerbund, Harrisburg; Concordia Hanteton; Maennerchor, Hanteton; Liederkreis, Potomac; Maennerchor, St. Clair; Maennerchor, Ashland; Maennerchor, Shamokin; Maennerchor, Girardville; Liberty Band, Hanteton; Our Band, Shamokin; Citizens' Band, Girardville.

It will be a day of delightful song, profitable sociability and genuine enjoyment.

The Philadelphia & Reading Railroad Company will run special trains from all points.

The Girardville Maennerchor has made arrangements for a train to leave that place at 7:30 a. m. and the fare has been fixed at the low price of forty cents, children's tickets to be sold at twenty-five cents.

This will be a splendid opportunity for the Germans of Eastern Pennsylvania to become acquainted with each other. Everything in the way of amusement will be first class. Dancing music will be furnished by the famous Schoppe orchestra, of town, and Weston's orchestra, of Potomac. At 4 p. m. there will be horse races in the trotting park, to which no admission fee will be charged.

The day will certainly be a big one and all who can go should not miss the opportunity. The following is the programme:

Powderly Criticized.

Scranton, July 29.—The Free Press, the most influential Democratic journal in the region, keenly criticizes General Master Workman Powderly's candidacy for the position of delegate to the Constitutional Convention, which it considers not consistent with his published reasons for declining to act as World's Fair Commissioner. The Free Press thinks that no party will be anxious to take him up. The article goes on to say that the eagerness of Mr. Powderly to have his brother appointed to office under Cleveland, and on the Immigration Committee, does not look as though Mr. Powderly is afraid to compromise himself by accepting favors from politicians.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning? The signal of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cents, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cough Cure will cure it. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves Croup and Whooping Cough at once. Mothers do not be without it. For Ladies Balm, Sore or Chink, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by C. H. Hagshush, N. E. corner Main and Lloyd streets.
