LOCAL LUNCHEON.

It is said that everything comes to him who waits. Perhaps so. But he will be shoved aside often than not.
A lover of statistics has calculated that 19,999 stitches are required for a hand-sewed shirt.
"Mamma, you say that papa goes to work to earn his bread. Why don't he earn cream cakes sometimes?"
The young man who is bewailing his mis-spent time, probably put up his watch to take his girl out buggy riding.
The difference between a marriage ceremony and a divorce is very slight—only the transposition of two letters, which changes "united" to "untied."
Another sweetheart killed for refusing to marry the man who wanted her. The only safe way for a girl to do nowadays is to make the young man throw up his arms before she says no to him.

SERVIA'S EX-QUEEN.

The Only Authentic Portrait Yet Published in This Country.
The wrongs of ex-queen Natalie, of Servia, have roused the sympathy of the entire world for the unfortunate lady, who is still the pride of the Servian people. A few years ago she was called the "Pearl of the Orient," and no more popular sovereign reigned in Europe. Her differences with Milan were created by her royal husband's infidelity and brutality, and when the unfortunate lady sought a legal separation from Milan and the establishment of a regency until the majority of the young king, Alexander, she had little idea of the trouble and persecution to which she would be subjected. Tools of Milan constantly surrounded the boy and poisoned his mind against his mother. When Natalie sent a written remonstrance to the Skupschina, that body refused to read it. The brave ex-queen persisted in her attempts to be permitted to her son, whom she was not permitted to see, and was finally ordered by the Servian authorities to quit Servian territory and upon her refusal they made an attempt to remove her by force. She was compelled to enter a carriage and was being rapidly driven toward the frontier, when the students of the university were informed of the fact. They rallied to her defense, surrounded the officers and conveyed Natalie back to her own house, which they guarded, gallantly repulsing the police and the military who attempted to effect an entrance. Our portrait of this brave and noble lady is from L'Illustration, and is the only authentic one ever published in this country.

Completed to Deadwood.

The Coroner's Doings.
Deputy Coroner Brennan and his jury last night held an inquest in the case of John Kelly, the man who committed suicide by hanging at Turkey Run on Monday night. The verdict was that the suicide ended his life while suffering under temporary aberration of the mind. The inquest in the case of Daniel Goodrich, the boy who was drowned in the Maple Dale shaft on Tuesday, will be held next Tuesday evening.

The Gospel Meetings.
The meeting at Columbia Park last evening was more largely attended than the previous meetings. After several pieces of music were rendered by the choir of the Methodist Episcopal church, led by the organist of John Hitchens, Rev. E. Potts led in prayer. Then followed an earnest and deeply impressive sermon by Rev. Theodore Stevens, D. D., of Potomac. The meetings will be continued from night to night. If the weather should continue to be favorable and the interest increases the service of the Methodist Episcopal church will probably be held at the park on Sunday evening, instead of in the church. Rev. A. J. Colton, of Girardville, will preach this evening. One hundred and fifty additional seats were provided yesterday.

A Girl Tortured.
A few days ago Lottie Vance, a pretty girl of 16, left her home at Greenville, Mo. She neglected to tell her parents of her intentions and the city was consequently greatly alarmed at her sudden disappearance. The mystery was cleared up by the St. Louis police, who recently found the girl a prisoner in a questionable resort of that city. She had been locked up for several days by the matron of the place who had sold her into slavery. She was finally compelled to submit to the most horrible outrages. She had been enticed from home by Lena Amaron, a woman in the employ of the house from which the hapless girl was taken.

Oh, What a Cough.
Will you heed the warning? The signal person of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cents to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Carter's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves Croup and Whooping Cough at once. Mothers do not be worried. For Lame Back, Sore or Chest, use Carter's Pectoral Plaster. Sold by T. H. Hagenbuch, N. E. corner Main and Lloyd streets.
