Tried to Do up the Town.
A gang of toughs came to town from Gilberton last evening, and after drinking a few glasses of beer, they, together with a young man of town named Mike Murphy, raised a disturbance in front of Joe Wyatt's saloon on West Oak street. Upon the arrival of an officer the crowd dispersed.

ONE WAY TO DO IT.
How Wayback Towns Are Boomed Successfully.

The following, taken from the Hazleton Sentinel, by changing the name of the place, will suit Shenandoah as well:
How can this town be boomed?
Well, how are other towns boomed?
Did you ever hear of Sudbury, Canada? You didn't? Well, there isn't much there. Only a nickle mine worth about half as much as a Shenandoah mine.
Three years ago there were only 100 people in Sudbury. They were all squatters. Their idea of a house was a log cabin; and of a town a collection of cabins with a straggling street and a few groceries.

To-day it is bigger than Shenandoah. There are dozens of big streets. There are big, sky-scraping buildings. Four corner lots are worth as much as the nickle mine. The groceries have put on style. They are gilded places, brass, nickle and mirror speckled. The boom is on. The squatter has retreated into the woods. Stove-pipe hats and dress suits are seen where the micing hat and overall long held sway.

How was it done?
Simply by advertising. Some few energetic citizens thought that if advertising would sell a patent medicine it would sell town lots. It did. It was a surething. It always is if you go about it in the right way.

Haven't we some advantages that might be set forth by advertising?
Did you ever notice the kind of advertising we get abroad? When you see the name of Shenandoah in the news dispatches it is in connection with an Italian murder, a Hungarian brawl, or some other sensation that comes from the uneducated and unlettered correspondent of the irresponsible city paper.
That's bad advertising, these stories of cave-ins, of murders and lawlessness. Everything is charged to Shenandoah. But to go back—why shouldn't it pay us to set forth our advantages? If it pays Sudbury up in desolate Canada, if it makes big towns spring up in a night on the rocky coast of Maine and the Texan wastes why shouldn't it benefit Shenandoah here in the most accessible part of the great Keystone state?

But who is going to pay the bill you say? Well who pays it in Sudbury for instance.
The newspapers of this town are willing to do their share for the common good. They have persistently worked for the town and will for they are more interested than any in the progress of the place.
We suggest that the Board of Trade be brought back to life, that the members take a fresh hold and give a vigorous impetus to town affairs and improvement, adopt the Western way of booming a town. We can't all be Methuselahs and live for a hundred more years in a big village like this without decent streets, with a primitive form of local government and donate of other disadvantages and be at the mercy of one form of money-making, coal mining.

What a Prominent Physician and Chemist says After Analysis and Practical Test.
Dr. J. Lyster, formerly of Bellevue Hospital Medical College and Long Island College speaks as follows:
New York, October 25, 1890.
Gents: The sample of your Cactus Blood Cure, which I bought for analysis, I have subjected to a very thorough test, and can find not a single trace of mineral or mercurial preparation in it whatever; and, as I have had considerable experience in its constituent blood effect in certain diseases already known to you, I consider it the safest and best vegetable blood purifier in the market. Yours respectfully,
J. L. LYSTER, Ph. L., M. D.

To-morrow's Festival.
The festival and entertainment to be given by Silver Wave Castle, A. O. K. of M. C., takes place in Robbins' opera house to-morrow. A good time is in prospect for all who attend.

Obituary.
Sunday evening Martin King, father of Michael and Patrick King, of town, died from minor's asthma at his late residence on West Line street. The deceased was sixty years of age.

The One Think Lacking.
Lakeside is rapidly forging to the front as a popular summer resort. The new trotting and base ball park will be completed in a few weeks, and after the various contemplated improvements are made this will be the centre of attraction for lovers of genuine pleasure. The only thing lacking is a newspaper box or headquarters, where the weary reporters might go and rest awhile and prepare their "copy," perhaps, whenever any big event is on the tap? The press members have no conveniences. Is this as it should be?—Republican.

Another Anarchist Sees.
St. Petersburg, July 28.—The police here have been much excited over a report that Anarchists disguised as sailors of the French fleet intended an attack on the life of the Czar. The consequence has been that Frenchmen are watched more closely than nihilists, and while to outward appearance all is harmony and fraternity, the best police agents of St. Petersburg are keeping surveillance over the visitors.

Jack McAuliffe Has Signed.
New York, July 28.—Jack McAuliffe, the lightweight champion, has signed articles for a fight to a finish with Austin Gibbons for a stake of $1,000 a side, a purse of $1,000 and the lightweight championship. Both men are to weigh 135 pounds. McAuliffe having waived the 15-round clause, it is expected that Gibbons will now sign the articles, and that the fight will take place before the Granite Club, Hoboken, Sept. 11.

Louisville's Baseball Muddle.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 28.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Louisville Baseball Club next Thursday the president and directors will resign in a body. The purpose is to give the stockholders a chance to vote approval or disapproval of the management.

A Big Sale in Straw Hats.

STRAW hats show the way the wind blows, but they don't show what hard blows we have been striking at straw hat prices. Some hats are dear at any price; these hats are cheap at double the money. If what covers your head is not becoming to you, all the pains you take as to the rest of your attire are simply thrown away. Come and see how you will look in one of our 50c straw hats. There's no use in giving any further description of them than to say this—they are stylish. We cut the price down because we want to cut our stock down. Another big bargain in hats is our $1 buck stiff hats.
