MURDERED BY A MOB

A Family of Seven Persons Killed by Italians.

BUTCHERED AND THEN BURNED.

All the Victims Had Their Throats Cut and Were Repeatedly Stabbed.

It Is Believed That Enemies of the Family Instigated the Crime—Tragedy at a Ball —A Desperado Causes Murder and Fame—Three Persons Killed and the Murderer Escapes.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., Aug. 3.—Wayne County, W. Va., was the scene of a series of murders last night. Mr. Brumfield, his wife and five children were murdered in a most horrible manner and their bodies consumed by fire.

About midnight 50 Italian railroad laborers became drunk and started on a tour of devastation. The Brumfield family were thought to have considerable money.

The Italians went to Brumfield's residence and were refused admission. Doors and windows were then forced open. Mr.
Brumfield with his two half-grown sons fought with desperation, but were finally murdered, their throats being cut from ear to ear and the bodies repeatedly stabbed. Mrs. Brumfield and her three little children were next killed by the drunken Italians, who then searched the house for money and set it on fire.

As soon as Sheriff Spurgeon heard of the murder he summoned a posse of the most brave and determined men in Wayne County and started upon a search for the murderers.

Every Italian camp on the Norfolk & Western Railroad has been searched thoroughly, and should they be fortunate enough to discover the murderers a repetition of the New Orleans affair will be the result, with no time for jury-briding.
The people are thoroughly aroused and determined that blood shall be the only atonement.

Mr. Brumfield was influential and wealthy. Two or three years ago, while county commissioner, he opposed the building of a new court house and thus made many enemies. The court house was built, and it is thought that the murderous work was the result of the old feud, and that Brumfield's enemies supplied the Italians with liquor and then pointed out the path to the residence.

TRAGEDY AT A BALL

Three Deaths Caused by a Tough Character Who Insisted on Dancing.

DUBANCO, Col., Aug. 3.—News has just been received here of a terrible tragedy which occurred at a ball in the Blue Mountains Saturday night.

While the dancing was going on a tough character by the name of Tom Roach insisted on dancing. He was drunk and armed with a knife and pistol. He was not allowed to dance and raised a row.

Frank Hyde tried to quell the disturbance, and was stabbed by Roach in several places and soon after died. A cowboy by the name of William McCord tried to pacify Roach. This seemed to enrage Roach more than ever, and drawing his revolver he killed McCord on the spot.

A boy slipped away to a house near by and, securing a Winchester, returned to the ball room and took aim and fired at Roach, killing Mrs. Walton, an estimable lady, living in the community.

In the excitement Roach escaped and is still at large.

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

A New York Man Attacked While Writing a Letter.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—A mysterious shooting case occurred early last night in the apartment house No. 230 West Forty-second street.

While Charles C. Goodwin was engaged in writing a letter in his room, Bertram Webster, an acquaintance, opened the door and stood upon the threshold with a revolver in his hand. Without uttering a word Webster fired at Goodwin, who fell to the floor with a bullet in his abdomen.

Webster coolly walked down stairs and told the janitor that Goodwin was sick and needed a doctor, after which he disappeared and has not since been seen.

Goodwin was taken to the hospital and will probably die. He is a bachelor, aged 35, and Webster is a married man 30 years of age. The police profess to believe that Mrs. Webster, who is young and pretty, is the cause of the shooting.

Largest Steel Plant in the World.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 3.—The first Bessemer steel produced in Maryland was blown at Sparrow's Point, Saturday, by the Maryland Steel Company, whose new works are said to be the largest and most complete steel mill plants in the world.
The mills will not be in full blast for a fortnight more, but when in complete operation they will have a capacity equal to one-third of the total production of the Bessemer steel works of Great Britain.

Infatuated With the Salvation Army.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Aug. 3.—Captain Goodrich, of the Salvation Army is accused of being responsible for the disappearance of Mrs. Fagan, who signed a separation Saturday from her husband. It is thought Mrs. Fagan has gone to Chicago with a letter to Captain Goodrich's sister, but this the captain denies.

Caused by a Drunken Husband.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—To escape the fury of a drunken husband Mrs. Bow-meyer, occupying the second floor flat of No. 632 East Thirtieth street, threw herself out of a window of her apartments last evening, receiving internal injuries from the effects of which she may die.

Enecke's Comet Is on Time.

MOUNT HAMILTON, Cal., Aug. 3.—The well-known periodical comet of Enecke was rediscovered this morning at Lick Observatory by E. E. Barnard. It is very faint and is following closely the path predicted for it by Dr. Barkland.

A Prominent Baltimorean Dead.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 3.—Jacob Spe-muller, a director of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and also of several banks, died at the Deer Park Hotel, in Western Maryland, last night.

THE NEW BALLOT LAW.

FULL TEXT OF PENNSYLVANIA'S NEW ELECTION LAW.

Sec. 16. The county commissioners of each county shall provide for each election district in which an election is to be held, except in elections for township and borough offices, two sets of such ballots each of not less than 75 for every 100 and fraction of 100 voters therein as contained upon the assessor's list. They shall also prepare full instructions for the guidance of voters as to obtaining ballots, as to the manner of marking them and the method of gaining assistance, and as to obtaining new ballots in place of those accidently spoiled, and they shall respectively cause the same, together with copies of sections 14 to 38 inclusive of this act to be printed in large clear type on separate cards to be called cards of instruction.

They shall also cause to be printed on lined paper and without the facsimile indentments an equal number of copies of the form of the ballot provided for each voting place at each election therein, which shall be called specimen ballots, and at each election they shall furnish to each voting place, together with the ballots to be used there a sufficient number of cards of instruction and specimen ballots for use as required in section 21 of this act. They shall also provide for each election district at every election therein two copies of the assessor's lists of voters and shall deliver the same as such lists are now delivered, one copy to be called the "ballot checklist" for the inspectors in charge of the ballots and the other copy to be called the "voting checklist," to be used in marking the names of those who have voted, and the numbers of their ballots, as now required by law.

Sec. 17. The two sets of ballots, together with the specimen ballots and cards of instruction printed by the county commissioners as herein provided, shall be packed in separate sealed packages, with marks on the outside clearly designating the election districts for which they are intended and the number of ballots of each kind enclosed.

They shall then be sent by the county commissioners of the respective counties separately and at different times or by different methods to the judges of election at the several voting places so as to be received by them, one set on the Saturday before the day of election and the other set on the Monday before the day of election. The respective judges of election shall on delivery to them of such packages return receipts therefor to the commissioner, who shall keep a record of the time and the manner in which the several packages are sent, and shall preserve for the period of one year the receipt of the said judges of election. For elections of officers of townships and boroughs and of election officers and school directors in the same, the auditor shall provide for each election district seventy-five ballots for every fifty and fraction of fifty voters on the assessor's list and an equal number of specimen ballots, and shall obtain from the county commissioners the requisite cards of instruction, which shall be delivered with the ballots to the judges of election the day before the day of election.

Sec. 18. In case the ballots to be furnished in any voting place in accordance with the provisions of this act shall fail for any reason to be duly delivered, or in case after delivery they shall be destroyed or stolen, it shall be the duty of the judge of election of such voting place to cause other ballots to be prepared substantially in the form of the ballots so wanting, and upon receipt of such other ballots from him, accompanied by a statement under oath that the same have been so prepared and furnished by him, and that the original ballots have so failed to be received or have been so destroyed or stolen, the election officers shall cause the ballots so substituted to be used in lieu of the ballots wanting as above. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners of each county to mail complete specimens of the ballots and other necessary papers by registered letter to the judge of elections of each election district at least four days before the election to enable him to comply with the directions of this section.

PRIVATE STALLS FOR VOTERS.

Sec. 19. The county commissioners
election district therein, at each election, a room large enough to be fitted up with voting shelves and a guardrail as hereinafter provided. If in any district no such room can be rented or otherwise obtained, the said commissioners shall cause to be constructed for such district a temporary room of adequate size to be used as a voting room; they shall also cause all the said rooms to be suitably provided with heat and light, and with a sufficient number of voting shelves or compartments at or in which voters may conveniently mark their ballots, so that in the marking thereof they may be screened from the observation of others and a guardrail shall be so constructed and placed that only such persons as are inside said rail can approach within six feet of the ballot box and of such voting shelves or compartments. The arrangement shall be such that neither the ballot box nor the voting booths shall be hidden from view of those just outside the said guardrail. The number of such voting shelves or compartments shall not be less than one for every fifty names on the assessor's list, but shall not in any case be less than three for the voters qualified to vote at such voting place. No persons other than the election officers and voters admitted as hereinafter provided shall be permitted within the said rail except by authority of the election officers for the purpose of keeping order and enforcing the law. Each voting shelf or compartment shall be kept provided with proper supplies and conveniences for marking the ballots.

Sec. 20. To provide for the cost of said shelves or compartments and guardrails in the year of 1892, the secretary of the commonwealth, the secretary of internal affairs and the auditor general shall be and they are hereby constituted a board to decide upon a pattern of the said shelves or compartments, and a pattern of the said guardrails and upon the material to be used for them, and such other furniture or apparatus as may be necessary, and to fix a limit cost of the same per shelf or compartment and per linear foot of rail, and the said board shall within two months after the passage of this act notify the commissioners of the respective counties of the pattern adopted and of the limit of cost of the said shelves or compartments and guardrails, after they have provided the said shelves or compartments and guardrails, shall send to the auditor general of the commonwealth a statement of the voting places in the county, naming them, and of the number of shelves or compartments provided for each according to the pattern adopted and of the cost of the same, not exceeding the limit to be fixed as aforesaid, which statement shall be signed by the said commissioners, verified by the affidavit of one of them and approved by the county controller or auditors. On receipt of the said statement the auditor general shall draw warrants upon the treasury of the commonwealth in favor of the treasurers of the counties from which the said statements shall have been received for the sums therein stated to be due, and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the said warrants.

The said shelves or compartments and guardrails shall thereafter be the property of the respective counties, and no further allowance shall be made to the county by the auditor general for providing the same.

Sec. 21. At the opening of the polls in each voting place the seals of one package shall be publicly broken, and the said package shall be opened by the judge of elections.
The cards of instruction shall be immediately posted at or in each voting shelf or compartment provided in accordance with this act for the marking of the ballots, and not less than five specimen ballots shall be immediately posted in or about the voting room outside the guardrail, and such specimen ballots shall be given to any voter at his request. The second set of ballots shall be retained unopened by the respective judges of election until they are needed for the purposes of voting.

Sec. 22. Any person desiring to vote shall give his name and residence to one of the election officers in charge of the ballots, who shall thereupon announce the same in a loud and distinct tone of voice, and if such name is found upon the ballot checklist by the inspector or clerks in charge of the rail he shall likewise repeat the said name, and the voter shall be allowed to enter the space enclosed by the guardrail unless his right to vote be challenged.
No person whose name is not on the said list or whose right to vote shall be challenged by a qualified citizen shall be admitted within said guardrail until he has established his right to vote in the manner now provided by law, and his name if not on the checklists shall then be added to both lists. As soon as a voter is admitted within the rail the election officer having charge of the ballots shall detach a ballot from the stub and give it to the said voter but shall first fold it so that the words printed on the back and outside as provided in section 15 of this act shall be the only wording visible, and no ballot shall be voted unless folded in the same manner. Not more than one ballot shall be given to a voter except as is provided in section 20 of this act. As soon as a voter receives a ballot the letter "B" shall be marked against his name on the margin of the ballot checklist; but no record of the number of the ballots shall be made on the said lists. Besides the election officers and such supervisors as are authorized by the laws of the United States or overseers appointed by the courts of this commonwealth, not more than four voters in excess of the number of voting shelves or compartments provided shall be allowed in said inclosed space at one time.

HIS FIGHT FOR LIFE

Details of the Tragedy at Croton Landing.

BAKER IS LIABLE TO DIE.

Anderson is at Present in the Village Lock-Up.

Both Men Say that Each Other Pulled His Pistol First—The Trouble All Grew Out of a Family Quarrel—Mrs. Baker Caused the Shooting by Claiming she Was In-sulted by Anderson.

STRO SING, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Isaac Newton Baker, Col. Robert G. Ingersoll's private secretary, who was shot Saturday evening by Orville Anderson at Croton Landing, is still lingering between life and death with four bullet holes in his body.

Anderson is at present in the village lock-up, where he gave to-day his reason for the shooting. He said that he was going to the postoffice about 4 o'clock, as he usually does, and met Baker soon after he got off the train. Baker stopped him and proposed that they talk over their differences and see if there was not some way of settling their troubles, which were about the apartments of the house they each occupied. While they were talking Mrs. Baker appeared on the scene, and, pointing to Anderson, said that he had insulted her that morning in the hallway. Baker then took up what she said and made a motion as if to get his pistol. Anderson says that he noticed him and that he quickly drew his revolver to defend himself. Mrs. Baker then jumped between them.

Both men said that each other pulled his pistol first, but Anderson says the only one that fired, as Baker's right arm was shattered before he could shoot and his pistol was not discharged.

Charles C. Fisher, Jr., a brickman, said he was passing after the shooting occurred, when Anderson called out to him to take the pistol from Mrs. Baker, who was trying to get possession of it. Anderson handed his pistol to Fisher, while he said he had to struggle to get possession of Baker's, who exclaimed:
"My darling, I stood to my flag like a man."

His wife answered: "Yes, my dear, this rebel has done you this time." Anderson said that on Thursday last they both met in the depot and that Baker spoke in a snarling way and made a motion as if to get his pistol. He said he carried a pistol ever since.

The Bakers had lived in New York until last April, when they advertised in the newspapers for rooms in the country, and received an answer from Mr. Anderson, who had leased the mansion called the Moody house. Arrangements were made by which Baker occupied six stairs, and the Bakers moved there.

Everything went on smoothly until recently, when the families began to quarrel about little things, and entered at each other in the hall. The dividing of the fruit in the orchard was the most recent disturbance.

PARNELL AT THURLES.

Received Enthusiastically by a Multitude of People.

DUBLIN, Aug. 3.—Notwithstanding the threats and intimations of the anti-Parnellites, the reception of Parnell at Thurles, yesterday, was most enthusiastic.

A multitude of people attended the meeting, most of them from the country, and nearly all ardent in favor of Parnell.
The streets were adorned with Irish flags and arched with evergreens. The people took the horses from Parnell's carriage and dragged the carriage, with Parnell in it, to the market square.

There Parnell delivered an address in his usual language. He affirmed that his policy was unchanged, that he distrusted the Liberal party, and would keep his hands unfettered until he had seen clear evidence of an honest purpose to fulfill Liberal pledges.

He warned O'Brien and Dillon to be careful not to be drawn into a dangerous course by blind confidence in Mr. Gladstone.

A $50,000 Bicycle Race.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 3.—R. W. Cason, Jr., the 19-year-old local champion, and Charles B. Guilloite, the ex-champion, raced a five-mile race for the State championship. The prize was a diamond medal, but fully $50,000 was wagered by friends on the outside. Cason spurred away in the last quarter after a slow race and won easily in 10m. 34-5.

Bitter Feeling Between Indian Factions.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Aug. 3.—The Sioux Commission now at the lower Brais agency has done nothing definite yet.
One faction of the Indians want the agency moved north of the Missouri River, while another insists that it be moved north of the White River to the Rosebud Reservation. The feeling between the two factions is bitter.

Fatal Forgetfulness.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 3.—August Pfeil, a kitchen at the National Brewery, directed young Hugo Givig to clean out the machine. While the boy was at work Pfeil signalled to the engineer to start the machinery. The boy was fatally hurt. The coroner's jury committed Pfeil for causing his death.
