The Grand Army Encampment Opened To-Day.

TROUBLE OVER THE COLOR ISSUE

White Comrades from the South to Force a Vote on the Question,

It is Conceded that Washington Will Have the Next Encampment-Weissert of Wisconsin to the Lead for Commander-In-Chief-Brilliant Reception to Commander-in-Chief Youroy.

DETROIT, Mich, Aug. 5.—This morning Beston Wine a Game and Takes Second the sessions of the Grand Army encampment were formally opened.

Probably the most important question that will come up for consideration is to the trouble over the color haus in Louisiana. The white comrades from New Orleans are determined to force a vote on the question whether or not they shall be compelled to have justs of mixed color, or whether the colored man and brother in whose behalf they fought shall not be compelled to get into posts by themselves.

If the encampment lays down the law of "no color line" the white comrades threaten to break up the department.

Lust Night's Reception. Last Night's Recention.

Last night the comrades flocked out to the rink to participate in a reception to Commander-in-Unief Veazey. ExGov. Alger was master of ceremontes.

Mayor Pingree, in a well-chosen address, welcomed the veterans to the metropolis of the Wolverine State and the Commander-in-Chief made a brief response.

Bite addresses teaching a wint of cool. Brief addresses, breathing a spirit of good will to the veterans, were made by ex-President Hayes, Secretary Proctor, Gov-ernors Hovey and Page, Gen. Butterfield and Gen Falschild. and Gen, Fairchild.

Meanwhile another great crowd had gathered at Camp Shermen in the Ex-position building, and thither the same speakers were burried and the programme repeated.

At midnight the streets were just as crowded as they were at mid-day, but the sleeping accommodations of the city were ample, and nobody was compalled to seek a lodgement in the open air.

Washington Will Win. It is pretty well conceded that Washington will get the next encampment. The Western posts have made a gallant fight, and the Lincoln delegation especially have spent money like water. The Washington crowd, however, had got in their work, and the Western men have about given up the fight. Ex-Postmaster-General Frank Hatton was the leader of the Washington boomers.

A. G. Welssert, of Wisconsin, is still in the least for commander-in-chief, although a combination against him is probable. The chief argument against him is that both Wisconsin and Minnesota have had the office in the last decade.

Two weeks ago, on the recommendation of his physician, he went to the Cambridge mineral springs, but the water, instead of benefiting him, aggravated his sickness, and he returned home to take to his bed, from which he has scarcely risen since.

The members of Mr. Scott's family are all here, and though but little is given to the public regarding Mr. Scott's condition, they cannot diaguise their anxious concern, nor the conviction that he is a very sick men.
