CONVENTION CALL.

To the Republican Electors of Pennsylvania: After consultation and correspondence with members of the Republican State Committee, by their direction, I hereby give notice that the Republican electors of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State Convention at Harrisburg, Wednesday, August 19, 1891, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for Delegates-at-Large to the Constitutional Convention provided for in the Act of Assembly approved June 19, 1891, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

Notice is especially directed to the fact that, in accordance with the provisions of the last mentioned act, each Senatorial district is entitled to a representation of three delegates to said Constitutional Convention, two of whom only can be members of the majority party in said district. The electors of each district are therefore requested to make proper nominations for delegates to said convention, the rules governing the nomination of candidates for State Senator to be applicable.

In this connection the Chairman desires to call the attention of Republican voters to the recommendation of the State Convention of 1882, that "they allow the greatest freedom in the general participation in the primaries consistent with the preservation of the party organization."

WM. H. ANDREWS, Chairman.

COUNTY COMMITTEE MEETING.

The members of the Republican County Committee elected at the primaries held on Saturday, August 1, 1891, are requested to meet at Centennial Hall, in the Borough of Pottsville, on Tuesday, August 18, at 10 A. M., for the purpose of electing a County Chairman and transacting such other business as may be required.

ELIAS DAVIS, Chairman County Convention.

weavers to use their efforts to assist friendly manufacturers against those whose aim in business is to pay the smallest possible wages, is unusual, but it is encouraging. The weavers have come to learn that because a man is an employer, he is not necessarily an enemy. The labor unions have done much injustice in the past by refusing to believe that an employer may be kindly disposed toward his men, but is compelled by circumstances to insist on measures that seem hard and unjust to the employees. On the other hand, there has been with the employer a spirit that resents a question of the right and justice of his decision to cut wages, or to refuse an increase. It has been easier to reduce wages in the factory than to take other measures of economy, and it has often been that the weight of retrenchment has fallen on those least able to bear it. There is much to say for both sides, and any move that may bring the two into closer relations is to be welcomed. In every trade, the man who by hook or crook secures cheaper labor is recognized as a factor in cutting prices. It is not easy to go to work, other than on the old plan, to reach the class at which their resolution was aimed, but the will counts for much, and the recognition of the friendly spirit that many manufacturers hold, counts for a great deal, coming as it does as the first expression of the kind from a labor union.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Gossip That is Dished Up to the Newspaper Man in His Sanctum Mingled With Scraps Caught by Himself.

Another business place in town has gone under. This time it is the Greek Catholic co-operative store on West Centre street, which has been controlled by members of the Greek Catholic church. The young man who filled the position of driver and hostler for the store, and who claims to hold shares in the business, wanted $2.02 due him and as the cash was not forthcoming he put an attachment on the place. Constable Tosh will sell what remains in the store on the 17th inst. at public sale.

Window wire screens are one of the greatest conveniences of households. On warm days and evenings they are invaluable. They throw dust and like insects to despair and allow the windows to be thrown open without subjecting the occupants of the houses to public gaze. But it should not be forgotten that the screens are not sufficiently strong to keep out burglars. The town police say that window screens are a source of great annoyance to them. People leave them in first story windows over night and such places require almost the entire watch of an officer, as it would be the easiest thing for a midnight marauder to remove a policeman's back is turned for a few minutes. People using window screens should take the hint and try to struggle along during the hot nights with the supply of air the screens in the upper windows may admit.

But little respect was shown for the Sabbath last Sunday. While the congregations of several churches were holding a meeting in Thomas Baird's garden a number of less devout townsmen were holding a clam bake on the mountain a few hundred yards above them, and at the same time a base ball game between out-of-town clubs was in progress at the trotting park, while a grand stand full of young men and their escorts applauded vociferously. I am not a crank on the law and order question, neither can I countenance such a state of affairs. It is running things into the ground. The last two Sundays the scenes on the streets have been most disgraceful and if the parties who are responsible for them do not change soon I, for one, will feel compelled to become a crank—so called—and urge that steps be taken to enforce the rights of those who are inclined to respect the Sabbath.

John Beck, one of the letter carriers, has been bitten again. Poor John! He seems to be a bone of contention for all the dogs and if there are any spare bites he generally gets them. But some fine day John will draw a bead on some valuable canine, and when he does the hair will fly. But a less dangerous and more effective means for dealing with neglectful owners of vicious dogs is at the disposal of the carriers, and it is surprising to me that they have not already availed themselves of it. A letter carrier is not bound to leave mail where such a dog is kept. He may notify the owner that he must call at the post office for his mail until he disposes of the animal, or takes other steps to prevent interference with the carrier. This action would bring many to terms.

A Sufficient Reason.

"Has that young man proposed yet?" asked the fond father.
"Yes, pa," she answered.
"Did you accept him?"
"Yes; you see, he has promised to take me to the Lakeside cistern next Saturday."

THE PROHIBITION TICKET.

A County Ticket Placed in the Field Yesterday.

The Prohibition county convention was held in Pottsville yesterday, in the office of A. J. Pilgram, Esq., twenty-five delegates being present. A platform with a plank condemning the calling of a constitutional convention was adopted and the following ticket was nominated:

Judge—S. G. M. Holloper, of Shenandoah.
Sheriff—William Nagle, of Auburn.
Poor Director—W. Y. Payne, of Girardville.

Jury Commissioner—Jacob H. Reichert, of Pottsville.

The county organization was perfected as follows:

Chairman—J. H. Kurtz, of Shenandoah.
Secretary—J. H. Reichert, of Pottsville.
Treasurer—S. G. M. Holloper, of Shenandoah.

The following were chosen as delegates to the State Convention:

Shenandoah—Rev. William Powick, Rev. Mr. Russel, J. H. Kurtz, S. G. M. Holloper, O. Yost.

Mahanoy City—Rev. I. Zimmerman, Charles Bensinger, Martin Miller, Rev. B. H. Miller, J. H. Elsenhower.

Pottsville—A. J. Pilgram, Rev. Mr. Lynn, Rev. Mr. Proude, J. H. Reichert.

Tamaqua—W. J. Oliver.

Auburn—W. Nagle.

Pinegrove—J. J. Kimmel.

Tower City—Benjamin Rickert.

Donaldson—J. L. Gaskins.

Barnesville—Rev. Mr. Heffner.

The platform adopted also condemns "all political parties and public officials who provide intoxicants at their great banquets and state dinners, or on the funeral junkies;" and favors the election of the President, Vice President and United States Senators by direct vote of the people.

OBITUARY.

The Hot Weather Increases the Death Record.

The infant child of District Superintendent J. J. Bradigan died this morning.

Martin J. Dalton, who had been a resident of this town for about twenty-three years, and who was engaged in the boot and shoe business on East Centre street for some time, died yesterday at his residence on West Cherry street. He was 65 years of age. His funeral will take place to-morrow morning.

Dominick Farrell died at his residence on East Centre street yesterday. He was 67 years of age and had been a resident of the town for a number of years. Thomas Farrell, the telegraph operator in the P. & R. passenger station, is his son. The funeral will take place at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Dr. J. S. Callen and wife mourn the death of their infant child, Harry B., aged 6 months. The funeral will take place on Thursday, at 2 p. m.

Taken to the Asylum.

Balto Garnese, the Hungarian of the First ward who attempted to commit suicide on Sunday by cutting his throat with a razor, yesterday developed symptoms of violent insanity. Last night his friends applied to Squire Monaghan to have him cared for and this morning the man was taken to the Schuylkill county insane asylum, which is connected with the almshouse. While the man was being taken to the 9:08 Lehigh Valley train he fought so desperately that it required the united efforts of Constable Toomey and four citizens to carry him to the depot and put him on the car, although he was handcuffed.

TO MAKE THE BIG GUNS.

The Bethlehem Company to be Awarded the Contract.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The Board of Ordnance and Fortifications recommend that a contract be entered into with the Bethlehem Company of Bethlehem, Pa., for the manufacture of 190 breech-loading, single charge, built-up forged steel rifled guns as follows: 25 8-inch at $17,346.55 each, including ten rounds of ammunition complete, the first gun, which shall be subject to such tests as the Board of Ordnance and Fortifications shall prescribe; 50 10-inch guns, each for $39,847.55, including ten rounds of ammunition complete, the type gun to be subject to tests which the Board may prescribe; and 25 12-inch guns each for $54,473.23, including ten rounds of ammunition complete, the first gun (the type) to be subject to tests prescribed by the Board. Under this bid guns will be delivered as follows:

The 8-inch type gun two years from the date of signing the contract and the 24 service guns of this type six years and eight months after the test of the type gun; the 10-inch type gun to be delivered two years and five months from the date of the contract; the 40 service guns of this type nine years and three months after the test of the type gun; the 12-inch type gun to be delivered for its test two years and nine months from the date of the contract; the 24 service guns of this type to be completed in eight years and nine months thereafter. The guns will cost $3,589,373.50 and the appropriation for them was about $4,500,000.

It is a well known fact that Pan-Tina Cough and Consumption Cure has cured 100 in number, struck because the firm refused to disc. large several men who had been expelled from their union.

BOROUGH BUDGET.

GLEANINGS BY THE LOCAL CORPS OF REPORTERS.

A TAX COLLECTOR'S TUSSELE.

The Difficulty Experienced by Schmidt's Deputy and the Police in Making Collections. Other Local News.

Deputy Tax Collector Knobel and Police-men Officers are meeting with flattering success in making collections from delinquents, but at times they experience no small amount of trouble in the work.

Yesterday they called on Andrus Walantikonis, a Polish resident of East Centre street who has heretofore boasted of the ownership of citizen papers and has boasted to his countrymen of his good fortune in never having had any personal dealings with the Tax Collector. When the officers stated their business Walantikonis declared that he would not pay taxes, adding "You look in book. My name there I pay." He showed his citizen papers, but declared he would not pay unless his names could be shown in the Tax Collector's book. The officers said they would arrest him if he did not pay, but he only answered, "You no can arrest." Conners and Knobel then attempted to take hold of him, but he jumped behind tables and chairs to escape. A tussle followed and when Conners was trying to handcuff the obstinate man Mrs. Walantikonis punched him three or four times on the head. Conners and Knobel finally got the man before Squire Monaghan and after the taxes were paid the husband and wife were put under bail for trial on a charge of interfering with officers and assault and battery.

Letter Box Destroyed.

The letter box at Ellengowan was broken open and destroyed by unknown parties last night. The staple of the drop-door was forced with some powerful instrument and a piece of the side plate was broken off, leaving the box worthless for further use. If the parties who tampered with the box are caught the United States court at Philadelphia will give them a lesson they will not forget.

LUMBER DEALERS FAIL.

The Glendon Company's Liabilities Estimated at $200,000.

BOSTON, Aug. 11.—The Glendon Company, which has been engaged in the lumber trade and in the manufacture of sash, blinds and interior furnishings, have failed. The liabilities of the firm to the trade are estimated at $200,000.

The firm has been engaged in speculative building operations and several buildings have been left on their hands. This and some other minor causes led to the failure.

It is not believed that other firms in the trade will become involved.

Died from an Overdose of Medicine.

BOSTON, Aug. 11.—A dispatch from Auburn, N. H., says that Mrs. Lela Robinson Sawtelle, an authoress and a member of the Massachusetts bar, died during the morning from, it is supposed, an overdose of medicine taken inadvertently. She was the first woman in Massachusetts to be admitted to the Bar. She graduated in 1851 from the University Law School. She was the author of the books "Law Made Easy" and "Law of Husband and Wife." She was a vigorous speaker and writer.

A Chance for Fugitive Mitchell.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Fugitive Jim Corbett will start out with his show to-morrow. He says he is willing to meet Slavin or Mitchell for $1,000 a side. He was particularly anxious he said to meet Mitchell and take some of the conceit out of him. "I will meet him," he said, "any place in America, and will offer him inducements which he cannot refuse. I will fight him any way he wants from one round to a finish."

The York Farm Colliery Disaster.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 11.—The mine disaster which occurred at the York Farm Colliery on Saturday afternoon was far more serious than was reported. Sixteen miners were burned, several of whom are in a precarious condition. John Corby expired in a terrible agony nine hours after the explosion. He was a single man, and his home was at Oxford, N. J.

Charged With Grand Larceny.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Moses S. Levy, of the firm of Levy Bros. & Co., which recently failed for several hundred thousand dollars, has been arrested charged with grand larceny. Butterfield & Co. and the Assabet Manufacturing Company, both of this city, are the accusers.

Work to Stop on the Ship Railway.

HALIFAX, Aug. 11.—Orders have been received from London to stop all work on the ship railway at the end of this week. The suspension is due to the present rate of the money market, the company not being able to float their remaining securities without a sacrifice.

Quarantined Striker.

MILFORD, Mass., Aug. 11.—All the quarantined employed by Darling Bros., about 100 in number, struck because the firm refused to disc. large several men who had been expelled from their union.

PRISONERS ESCAPE.

They Break Out of the Somerset Jail and Make for the Woods.

SOMERSET, Pa., Aug. 11.—Five prisoners escaped from Somerset's new county jail at noon. The sixth one was intercepted as he was descending the rope by which his comrades escaped, and was returned to the prison.

The hole in the wall from which the nicely brothers escaped last March had been bricked up in a loose manner, and when the prisoners had gained an entrance to the attic it was the work of but a few moments to punch the brick out, and with a rope made from the cell hammock slide to the ground, a distance of forty feet. They at once broke for a strip of woods about a quarter of a mile distant from the town.

Deputy Sheriff Basson has organized a posse and gone in pursuit of the runaways, several of whom are desperate characters.

TOO MANY PEACHES.

Excellent Fruit in Great Abundance in Western New York.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Three carloads of Crawford peaches, containing in all 2,400 baskets, were auctioned off during the morning in this city, and went at prices ranging from 20 to 50 cents per basket. The fruit was in excellent condition, but the market has been glutted. Not only is the peach market glutted, but most every variety of fruit is in great abundance. Watermelons are cheaper than ever before, 20 and 25 cents is all that is asked for the finest Southern Bananas have been retailed by the thousand dozens at 10 cents a dozen, and potatoes are retailing at 25 cents per bushel for the finest variety, with the prospect of a reduction before fall.

STABBING AFFRAY.

Two Deaths the Probable Result of a Quarrel Between Three Brothers.

ASHLAND, Pa., Aug. 11.—News of a serious stabbing affray at New Media, near Centalla, has been received here. Three brothers named Earnest became involved in a quarrel in which one of them was beaten so badly that he will die.

During the fight Bert Cleaver interfered in favor of the beaten brother, but he was turned upon and stabbed with a knife by one of the Earnests. Cleaver's assailant escaped to the woods and is still at large.

THINK HE WAS ALMY.

The Hanover Murderer Said to Have Worked for a Connecticut Farmer.

WATERBURY, Conn., Aug. 11.—Frank C. Almy, the Hanover murderer, hired out with a farmer in South Ford last week, but left suddenly a few days later. It was not known until afterward that he was the murderer.

The description tallied exactly with the one sent out by the New Hampshire authorities. He gave his name as Frank Anderson and had a large handled knife marked "Cattle" on the blade. He also had a revolver.

A Well-Known Crook Arrested.

OLNEY, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Matt S. Reilly, a well-known McKean County, Pa., crook, and son of ex-Commissioner A. Reilly, of Smithport, was arrested in Jamestown and brought here charged with forgery. He forged his father's name to a $30 check, and got it cashed upon the endorsement of two Olney men. He is also held on the charge of highway robbery, perpetrated near Westons a few nights ago.

An International Prize Fight.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—A cable dispatch from London says that Ted Pritchard, the champion pugilist of England, has posted a forfeit of $300 to bind a match with Bob Fitzsimmons. The Olympic Club, of New Orleans, has offered a $10,000 purse for the fight, and Pritchard has accepted this offer. The probabilities are that a great international prize fight will shortly be decided in America.

Distressed Over a Water Famine.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., Aug. 11.—It looks as if this place will suffer from water famine. Yesterday the reservoir gave out and hundreds of families are without water. Not only is it distressing, but also dangerous. In the event of a fire there is no water for use. People are in dread of such a catastrophe.

Attached His Real Estate.

NORTH BRIMFORD, Mass., Aug. 11.—The real estate in Plymouth County owned by Moses N. Arnold has been attached by the creditors of Potter, White & Bayley, of Boston, for $100,000. Mr. Arnold was at one time a member of the firm, but is at a loss to understand upon what ground the suit is brought.
