LOCAL LUNCHEON.

Saltry days. August weather. Housewives are busy preserving. Summer is rapidly slipping away. Not long now till school days again. Thus far cantaloupes are insipid in taste. Keep off the railroad track unless you're inside the cars. In a race between the apple and peach dumping for first place. A spoonful of horse-radish will keep a bit of milk sweet for several days. The wild cherry is ripening, and the robins and flickers are accordingly happy. Now is the time to pay close attention to the cellars, drains, alleys, etc., to prevent disease.

Playing Cards.

You can obtain a pack of best quality playing cards by sending fifteen cents in postage to P. S. Eastis, Gen'l. Pass. Agt., D., C. & Q. R. Chicago, Ill.

A National Event.

The holding of the World's Fair in a city seventy miles old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will benefit this nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nervine by Dr. Franklin Miles is doubtful. This is just what the American people need to cure their excessive nervousness, dyspepsia, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neuritis, nervous debility, dullness, constipation of mind, etc. It acts like a charm. Trial bottles and free book of "Nervous and Heart Diseases," with unequalled testimonials, free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store. It is guaranteed to contain no opium, morphine or dangerous drugs.

Struck by an Engine.

A Hungarian whose name could not be learned was struck by a P. & R. engine at the Suffolk colliery this morning and had both legs and one arm broken.

Squeezed in the Mines.

John Witlovicz, a Pole, was squeezed between a chute and a wagon in the Suffolk colliery yesterday. His collar bone and some of his ribs were fractured. He was taken to the Mineders' Hospital.

$3.00 for $1.00.

Here is a bargain once in a life time, and will continue this week out. To make our beautiful cabinets for $1.00. This is no cheap or trashy pictures, but a first class cabinet. Remember the place, Robbins' new gallery, No. 29 West Centre street.

New Pouch Keys.

Postmaster Boyer yesterday received keys for the Eagle pouch locks, which were recently adopted. Before the locks can be used it will first be necessary to supply every postmaster and railway postal clerk with the keys. This will be accomplished shortly.

The Gospel Meetings.

The open-air gospel meeting was well attended last night. Rev. Russel, of the Primitive Methodist church, preached an earnest sermon. Arrangements have been made, through the kindness of Mr. Baird, to have seats erected and an electric light introduced to-day, so that the meetings need not close on account of darkness. Rev. Glick, of the Evangelical association, will preach this evening.

A Beautiful Art-Gallery.

The striking pictorial features of Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper for the week ending August 10th are sketches of ocean travel, making a double-page, and done in Gleditsch's best style. There is also a very effective summer picture called "Weighed in the Old Mill," by Miss Davis. Among other pictures are illustrations of the Bennington Battle Monument celebration; of the great locust plague in northern India, and a fine representation of a street in Chinatown, San Francisco. The two striking articles of the number relate to the new Private Land Court, with portraits of the judges, and "Free Education in England," by Edward Porritt, of the Manchester Examiner.

A Score Corrected.

EDITOR HERALD:—I know not whether you saw the game of base ball at the trotting park on Saturday afternoon between the single and married men of Camp 40, Sons of Veterans, but if you did not witness it you were misinformed in regard to the score and I would be very much obliged to you if you would correct the same. The score stood 29-52 in favor of the married men. When the single men were having their last innings, remember, so men out on the single men's side, when the married men were sure of a defeat, they commenced a wrangling match and would not play any more. We, the single men, therefore claim the game. We leave it to you, Mr. Editor, be you single, or married, to give a straight decision published in your paper.

STRAW HATS show the way the wind blows, but they don't show what hard blows we have been striking at straw hat prices. Some hats are dear at any price; these hats are cheap at double the money. If what covers your head is not becoming to you, all the puffs you take as to the rest of your attire are simply thrown away. Come and see how you will look in one of our straw hats. There's no use in trying any further description of them than to say this—they are stylish. We cut the price down because we want to cut our stock down. Another big bargain in hats is our $1 black stiff hats. 19 S. Main St.—SCANLAN—Shenandoah
